

Question for written answer P-009370/2016
to the Commission
Rule 130
Eleni Theoharous (ECR)

Subject: The situation in Syria and acts of brutality by the Turkish army

Turkey has invaded Syria and, according to the local population, is committing various atrocities against them, violating every rule of international and European law.

1. Will the EU proceed to investigate the situation? Has it already done so?
2. Will it adopt a clear position condemning the brutality of the Turkish army and taking measures? If so, which measures exactly?