

Question for written answer P-000450/2018
to the Commission (Vice-President / High Representative)
Rule 130
Doru-Claudian Frunzuliță (S&D)

Subject: VP/HR - Ukraine not respecting human rights

According to international human rights organisations, Ukrainian authorities do not comply with the obligation to respect human rights. There are some reports of difficult situations in Ukraine detailing recent episodes of torture, enforced disappearances, attacks on journalists and corruption cases.

In the light of these considerations, can the VP/HR indicate what steps should be taken to improve the path of democracy in Ukraine?