Subject: VP/HR - Actions to counteract Russian interference in the Republic of Moldova's 2019 elections

A number of reliable political, diplomatic and media sources have confirmed a strong and sustained campaign of disinformation and interference by the Russian Federation targeting the election process of February 2019 in the Republic of Moldova.

As the EU institutions and Member States are preparing to counteract possible interference by Russia and other state and non-state actors in view of the May 2019 European elections, is the EEAS, and more specifically its East StratCom Task Force, cooperating with, and providing assistance to, the Moldovan authorities to prevent any type of undue foreign interference in the country's parliamentary elections and related referendums taking place on 24 February 2019?
