§ 8

First part ‘Is of the opinion that strict civil liability rules should be established for offshore accidents in order to facilitate access to justice for victims (both legal and natural persons) of offshore accidents, as this can provide an incentive for the offshore operator to properly manage the risks of operations;’

Second part ‘believes that financial liability caps should be avoided;’

First part ‘Urges the Commission to encourage the Member States to develop financial security instruments concerning compensation for traditional damage claims resulting from incidents linked to general offshore oil and gas activities or to offshore oil and gas transport, including in cases of insolvency; believes that this could limit the externalisation of operators’ liability for accidental pollution to the public purse, which would otherwise be required to bear the compensation costs if the rules remain as they are;’

Second part ‘considers that in that context, the establishment of a fund based on fees paid by the offshore industry could also be assessed;’

First part Text as a whole excluding the words: ‘regrets, however, that the scope of the ECD does not cover all the activities of the OSD; regrets also that the definitions of the criminal offences and of minimum sanctions when it comes to offshore safety breaches are not harmonised in the EU;’

Second part those words
