S&D:

§ 89

First part ‘Calls on the Commission to ensure that: all legislative proposals undergo a thorough impact assessment and cost-benefit analysis; – the SME Test is rolled out across all DGs and that systematic cooperation with the Regulatory Scrutiny Board is undertaken in order to achieve a more structured application of the SME test’

Second part ‘an evaluation of the independence of the Regulatory Scrutiny Board in supervising and providing objective advice on impact assessments is submitted to Parliament’

Third part 'the Annual Burden Survey (ABS) is developed as a vital tool to identify and monitor, in a clear and transparent manner, the results of the Union's efforts to avoid and reduce any overregulation and administrative burdens both by the Union itself and by Member States in the transposition and interpretation of legislation; proposals for establishing burden reduction targets in key sectors are submitted to Parliament with the ambition of securing a 25 % reduction by 2020 and a 50 % reduction by 2030 of the economic costs linked to regulatory burdens for businesses'

amendment 55

First part Text as a whole excluding the words: 'relevant use of public procurement and'
Second part those words

amendment 68

First part 'Highlights the need for further steps to align EU trade policies with the Sustainable Development Goals and the Paris climate agreement and to promote global trade that is fair and regulated in the interest of all people on the planet; calls in particular for'
Second part 'a legislative proposal on mandatory due diligence on global value chains, in order to counter unfair trading practices, provide transparency and traceability and uphold human rights, labour rights and environmental rights'

Third part 'a successful and speedy conclusion to the negotiations on the modernisation of EU trade defence instruments against trade practices and subsidies used by third countries that distort competition; action by the Commission to reduce global steel overcapacity in the context of a rules-based multilateral trade system, including through relevant anti-dumping and anti-subsidies legislation; further steps towards the establishment of a multilateral investment court system to replace private arbitration in investor-state dispute settlement'

Fourth part 'proposals from the Commission to reform the way in which 'trade and sustainable development' chapters in trade agreements are enforced; sanctions for non-compliance with sustainable development provisions should be possible as a last resort when all other mechanisms of cooperation and mediation have been exhausted'

Fifth part 'specific proposals from the Commission, building on the reflection paper on harnessing globalisation, for creating viable new opportunities for Europeans who have been let down by global economic competition; these proposals should form part of the EU's investment strategy for sustainable development and involve updating and strengthening instruments such as the European Globalisation Adjustment Fund; continued pressure by the Commission on the Council to publish the negotiating mandates of trade negotiations and considers that these should be made public as a general rule, including previously adopted ones; urges the Commission to intensify its efforts to ensure transparency to the wider public beyond parliamentarians, who must be fully informed at all stages of the lifecycle of agreements, and to emphasise the need for regular civil society dialogues in order to rebuild trust in the EU's trade policy'

EFDD, ECR:
§ 7

First part 'Stresses that a successful European policy on migration requires an agreed mechanism for fair and effective distribution of asylum seekers;'

Second part 'emphasises the importance of progress in tackling the migration crisis in a way that demonstrates much more sensitivity to widespread concerns within the Member States over uncontrolled migration; welcomes the recent achievements in strengthening the management and effective control of the Union's external borders, which is a precondition for the Member States to regain a critical level of mutual trust;'

ECR, ENF:

First part

‘Emphasises that a comprehensive approach is needed to realise the benefits and address the remaining weaknesses of the single currency while ensuring the sustainability, resilience and completion of the EMU and achieving the goals of growth and full employment;’ without the words: ‘to realise the benefits and address the remaining weaknesses of the single currency while ensuring the sustainability, resilience and completion of the EMU and’

Second part
