Recital S

First part ‘whereas the Chief Prosecutor of the National Anticorruption Directorate (DNA) was removed from office on 9 July 2018, against the opinion of the Judicial Council following a Constitutional Court ruling limiting the powers of the President; whereas, by contrast, the Venice Commission stated in its opinion of 20 October 2018 that it would be important to “strengthen the independence of prosecutors and maintain and increase the role of institutions such as the President and the CSM [Superior Council of the Magistracy], able to balance the influence of the Minister [of Justice]”;

Second part ‘whereas the Romanian Government passed an emergency ordinance on 15 October 2018; whereas, so far, 48 prosecutors have been dismissed from their current positions following the entry into force of the ordinance, potentially hampering a large number of ongoing investigations;’

Third part ‘whereas on 24 October 2018 the Minister of Justice demanded the dismissal of the Prosecutor-General, accusing him of exceeding his authority;’

S&D:

Second part ‘after a dubious repetition of the vote;’

ALDE:

Amendment 12

First part ‘Questions the legitimacy of the cooperation protocols signed between the Romanian Intelligence Service and judicial institutions;’

Second part ‘calls on the Romanian authorities to put in place safeguards in order to assure a transparent and legal basis for any institutional cooperation and avoid any interference that circumvents the checks and balances system; calls for parliamentary control over the intelligence services to be reinforced;’

Third part ‘urges the Romanian authorities, including the Romanian President, to take a public stand in denouncing these protocols;’
