

2016/2172(DEC)

3.2.2017

AMENDMENTS

1 - 5

Draft opinion

Claudia Schmidt

(PE595.647v01-00)

2015 discharge: European Maritime Safety Agency (EMSA)
(2016/2172(DEC))

Amendment 1

Pavel Telička, Dominique Riquet, Jozo Radoš

Draft opinion

Paragraph 3

Draft opinion

3. Welcomes the adoption by the Administrative Board of a Fraud prevention and detection strategy, based on the methodology and guidance of OLAF and on the Anti-fraud strategy of DG MOVE;

Amendment

3. Welcomes the adoption by the Administrative Board of a Fraud prevention and detection strategy, based on the methodology and guidance of OLAF and on the Anti-fraud strategy of DG MOVE, and expects it to be fully and speedily implemented;

Or. en

Amendment 2

Marie-Christine Arnautu

Draft opinion

Paragraph 6

Draft opinion

6. Highlights the Agency's contribution to maritime safety, the prevention of ship pollution in Europe, and the assistance provided to Member States and the Commission under international and Union law; welcomes and encourages the Agency collaboration with other European Agencies regarding the refugees crisis and reaffirms that the Agency has to be given the financial, material and human resources it needs in order to perform its tasks effectively, including when dealing with critically important activities outside its mandate, i.e. contribution with know-how, operational support and staff of the Agency to the refugee crisis;

Amendment

6. Highlights the Agency's contribution to maritime safety, the prevention of ship pollution in Europe, and the assistance provided to Member States and the Commission under international and Union law; welcomes and encourages the Agency collaboration with other European Agencies regarding the refugees crisis and reaffirms that the Agency has to be given the financial, material and human resources it needs in order to perform its tasks effectively, including when dealing with critically important activities outside its mandate, i.e. contribution with know-how, operational support and staff of the Agency to the refugee crisis; deplores the fact, however, that that support merely encourages illegals to cross over to the Union rather than being safely taken back to where their crossing started;

Or. fr

Amendment 3
Karima Delli, Keith Taylor

Draft opinion
Paragraph 6

Draft opinion

6. Highlights the Agency's contribution to maritime safety, the prevention of ship pollution in Europe, and the assistance provided to Member States and the Commission under international and Union law; welcomes and encourages the Agency collaboration with other European Agencies regarding the refugees crisis and reaffirms that the Agency has to be given the financial, material and human resources it needs in order to perform its tasks effectively, including when dealing with critically important activities outside its mandate, i.e. contribution with know-how, operational support and staff of the Agency to the refugee crisis;

Amendment

6. Highlights the Agency's contribution to maritime safety, the prevention of pollution from ships as well as from offshore installations for gas and oil exploitation in Europe, and the assistance provided to Member States and the Commission under international and Union law; welcomes and encourages the Agency collaboration with other European Agencies regarding the refugees crisis and reaffirms that the Agency has to be given the financial, material and human resources it needs in order to perform its tasks effectively, including when dealing with critically important activities outside its mandate, i.e. contribution with know-how, operational support and staff of the Agency to the refugee crisis;

Or. en

Amendment 4
Marie-Christine Arnautu

Draft opinion
Paragraph 7

Draft opinion

7. Notes the results of the second benchmarking exercise on the Agency's posts, with 21,67% of the jobs dedicated to administrative support and coordination, 71,29% to operational tasks and 7,05% to control and financial tasks; regrets the continuous reduction of staffing level, while at the same time tasks given to the Agency are increasing;

Amendment

7. Notes the results of the second benchmarking exercise on the Agency's posts, with 21,67% of the jobs dedicated to administrative support and coordination, 71,29% to operational tasks and 7,05% to control and financial tasks; welcomes the fact that the continuous reduction of staffing levels, at a time when tasks given to the Agency are increasing, is not having a detrimental effect on the quality of missions carried out;

Or. fr

Amendment 5

Jill Seymour

Draft opinion

Paragraph 9

Draft opinion

9. Acknowledges the progress of the Agency with regard to the publication on the Agency's website of the CVs and declarations of interests of the Administrative Board members and alternates; regrets, however, that declarations of interest have not been provided by all members and alternates as it has been requested by the Parliament and recommended by the Court of Auditors; invites therefore the Agency to publish without delay all declarations of interests of the Administrative Board members and alternates;

Amendment

9. Acknowledges the progress of the Agency with regard to the publication on the Agency's website of the CVs and declarations of interests of the Administrative Board members and alternates; regrets, however, that declarations of interest have not been provided by all members and alternates as it has been requested by the Parliament and recommended by the Court of Auditors; insists that the Agency publishes without delay all declarations of interests of the Administrative Board members and alternates and publishes the names of the Administrative Board members and alternates who have failed to submit their declarations of interest;

Or. en