17:05 - 17.35

Advancing Women's economic statute as a key factor in Arab human development and governance changes

"Gender inequality is one of the most significant obstacles to human development in the Arab region. Despite the legal guarantees for women's right for political and economic participation, stereotypical gender roles are deeply entrenched, limiting women's employment and decision-making opportunities, which are still the lowest in the world" (extract from UNDP website).

Soraya Badrawi, President of l'"Association des femmes chefs d'entreprises du Maroc" (AFEM)

Nadereh Chamlou Senior Advisor at the World Bank's Middle East and North Africa Region for Knowledge and Economic and Sector Work.

Outi Karkkainen, Administrator in the Unit Maghreb and Mashrek, European Training Foundation, on access and participation of women in education, training and employment.
