

DIRECTORATE GENERAL FOR EXTERNAL POLICIES

Policy Department, Committee on International Trade and Committee on Foreign Affairs

WORKSHOP

Internet Freedom and Security in EU Foreign Policy: The Role of Business

Brussels
Paul-Henri Spaak Building
Room A5G2
Thursday, 8 February 2012
(16.30-18.30)

PROGRAMME

- 16.30 Welcome and introduction to the workshop by
co-chair AFET: Marietje SCHAAKE
- 16.35 Welcome and introduction to the workshop by
co-chair INTA: Jörg LEICHTFRIED
- 16.40 Interventions by Panellists:
- Fernando PERREAU DE PINNINCK, European Commission, DG Trade, Head of Unit Tariff and non-tariff negotiations, rules of origin
Title: Trade in IT products in the WTO
 - Trevor TIMM, Electronic Freedom Foundation, Deputy Director of International Freedom of Expression
Title: Surveillance technology: Ensuring corporate responsibility and protecting Internet freedom
 - Matthew KIRK, Vodafone, External Affairs Director, speaking on his company's corporate social responsibility strategy
Title:
 - Taylor REYNOLDS, OECD, Head of Unit Information Economy,
Title: Corporate social responsibility, multinational enterprise guidelines and internet principles

The presentations will be followed by comments from Antoneta ANGELOVA-KRASTEVA, Head of Unit, Unit Internet, Information and Network Security, DG Information Society and Media (EC) and Gosia GORSKA, Policy Officer, Unit Human Rights - Policy Instruments, External Action Service of the European Union

- 17.40 Debate
- 18.15 Concluding remarks by the co-rapporteurs