

Curriculum vitae

Dr. Zoltán Fleck, Ph.D.

Personal information

- Date of Birth: 1965
- Place of Birth: Budapest

Summary of qualifications

- Institution: Eötvös Lóránd University (ELTE), Faculty of Law,
- ELTE, Faculty of Sociology, Budapest
- Professor
- Ph.D. (“Totalitarian and Post-Totalitarian Legal System, the Case of Hungary”) 2001
- Habilitation ELTE, Faculty of Law (“Problems of Legal Culture”) 2007
- Professor, 2011

Education

- 1985 – 1990: ELTE – Faculty of Law
- 1986 – 1991: ELTE – Faculty of Sociology

Professional experience

- 1990 – 1993: Hungarian Academy of Science, Institute for Sociology, Researcher
- 1995 – present: lecturer and researcher at the Department for Sociology of Law, Faculty of Law (ELTE)
- from 2004 – present: Head of Department
- 1995 – 1999: participating at a research coordinated by the Max Planck Institute für Europäische Rechtsgeschichte (Frankfurt/Main)
- 2001: participating in EU Accession Monitoring Program (Open Society Institute)
- 2004: fellow Netherlands Institute for Advanced Study
- member of the Board of Faculty
- member of the MAB (Hungarian Accreditation Committee, Social Science Subcommittee)

Educational experiences: sociology, sociology of law, cultural and legal aspects of equal opportunity, sociology of judiciary. Graduate courses for law and sociology students, Ph.D. courses on methodology and legal sociology at Faculty of Law

Publications: On judicial independence in socialism and present, status of judges, law-enforcement in Hungary, prejudices in Hungarian society, legal culture and rule of law