

Subcommittee on Human Rights
Policy Department - DG EXPO

Workshop on Corruption and human rights in third countries

Thursday, 28 February 2013

10.00 - 12.00

Room: ASP A5E - 2
European Parliament, Brussels

Draft Programme

Chaired by:

Ana Gomes MEP (S&D), DROI/AFET rapporteur on "Corruption in the public and private sectors: the impact on human rights in third countries"

Introductory remarks

Ana Gomes MEP (S&D) - DROI/AFET rapporteur
DEVE rapporteur for opinion

1. panel - Corruption: a human rights issue

1. Ayush Bat-Erdene, Chief of the Right to Development Section, OHCHR on the relevance of linking corruption with Human Rights
2. Transparency International, (TBC)
on linking acts of corruption with specific Human Rights
3. ECHO (speaker TBC)
on humanitarian operational issues when dealing with "high-corruption" rated countries - the Human Rights implications
4. EEAS (speaker TBC),
on EU policy and action to fight corruption in protecting Human Rights

Debate open to Members and audience

2. panel - The impact of corruption on human rights in third countries

5. Julia Pettengill, Research Fellow, Henry Jackson Society, London
Founder and Chair, Russia Studies Centre on impact of corruption on human rights in Russia
 6. Raphael Marques de Moraes, journalist and Angolan anti-corruption campaigner on impact of corruption on human rights in Angola
 7. HRW (speaker TBC),
on possible actions to better fight corruption in protecting Human Rights
- Debate open to Members and audience

Summary

Conclusions by the Chair and DEVE rapporteur for opinion

The exchange of views / hearing / public hearing can be followed online:
<http://www.europarl.europa.eu/activities/committees/homeCom.do?language=EN&body=DROI>