

Biography

Dr. Johannes LUDEWIG
Executive Director

Community of European Railway and Infrastructure Companies (CER)

Personal data

Date of birth: 06.07.1945
Place of birth: Hamburg, Germany
Marital status: married, 3 children

Education

1965 Aloisiuskolleg, Bonn-Bad Godesberg leaving certificate: university entrance qualification ("Abitur")
1965 - 1967 Military service, reserve officer
1967 - 1971 University of Hamburg (Business Administration)
1971 - 1972 Stanford University, California, USA (Industrial Engineering)
1972 - 1973 University of Hamburg (Doctorate)
1973 - 1974 École Nationale d'Administration (ÉNA), Paris, France

Degrees:

1971 Diplom-Kaufmann
1972 Master of Science (Industrial Engineering)
1973 Dr. rer. pol.
Doctorate thesis: "Principles for Corporate Simulation Models"

Professional career

1975 - 1983 Federal German Ministry of Economics: Energy, Business Cycle, Economic Policy
1983 - 1994 Federal German Chancellery as from 1991 Head of the Department for Economic and Financial Policy Coordination for the New Federal States
1995 - 1997 Federal German Ministry of Economics, State Secretary and Representative Agent of the Federal German Government for the New Federal States
1997 - 1999 Deutsche Bahn AG, CEO and Chairman of the Board of Management
2000 - 2002 Ludewig Consulting, Management Consultant
2002 - Executive Director, Community of European Railway and Infrastructure Companies (CER)
2006 - Chairman of the German National Regulatory Control Council (honorary post)