

CURRICULUM VITAE FOR:

BERTIL DAHLIN

PERSONAL DATA

Nationality: Swedish

Born: 30 December 1948

Languages: Swedish (Mother tongue), English (Fluent), Portuguese (Working knowledge), German (Working knowledge), French (Some reading knowledge)

EDUCATION

Studies in Mathematics, Numerical Analysis, Computer Science and Statistics (1969 – 1974). BA at the University of Uppsala

Transport Management and Economics at the University of Uppsala (1978 – 1979)

EMPLOYMENT POSITIONS

The Swedish Association of Road Haulage Companies (Sveriges Åkeriföretag) (1995 -

Director International Affairs. Responsible for national and international long haulage transports, combined (rail-road) transports and local pick-up and delivery services. President of the International Road Transport Union's (IRU) Goods Transport Liaison Committee to EU since 2003, Swedish Representative in the IRU Council of Direction, General Assembly and Custom Committee.

Swedish expert to the Ministry of Industry, Employment and Communications in bilateral road transport negotiations with countries outside the EU.

ASG Transport Development AB (ASG TD) (1985 – 1995)

Project Director and Area Manager Africa.

ASG TD was a subsidiary to the Swedish forwarding company ASG AB (Now DHL). ASG TD provided long and short time consultancy services to the road transport industry in the fields of Management, Training and Studies. The Projects were financed by the World Bank, UN and SIDA and primarily directed to Africa and the Baltic States. Among the various assignments were responsibility for the ASG TD work together with the Ethiopian Relief and Rehabilitation Commission 1985-1987 during the famine in Ethiopia, planning and conducting Transport Management Seminars in Latvia, Lithuania, Ethiopia and Zimbabwe. Adviser to the Prime Minister's Office and Ministry of Education in Tanzania. Setting up and running of a Road Transport company during 3 years in Mozambique. Freight transport study for future national transport plan in South Korea.

Alfort & Cronholm (Alcro) (1983 – 1985)

Transport Manager for the Alcro fleet comprising 60 vehicles and 80 demountable bodies with daily distribution by road and rail all over Sweden.

Rationell Materialadministration AB (Ramab) (1980 – 1983)

Logistic Consultant at Ramab, a subsidiary company of Electrolux. As such carried out various logistic assignments for different companies from the Swedish industry.

ASG AB (1973 – 1980)

ASG AB (Now DHL) was the largest forwarding company in Sweden. Various assignments during the employment at the ASG AB Head office.

LECTURES

Former part time teacher in transport planning, economy and logistics at the Royal Institute of Technology in Stockholm, Sweden.

Various training programmes and lectures in the field of logistics and road transport.

INTERESTS / HOBBIES

Karate, Cooking and the family.