

Elena Kidd has been working at the University of Bath since 2000 and from 2006 was the Director of Studies for Postgraduate Interpreting and Translation from 2006-2011. Elena is currently Course Director for the MA in Interpreting & Translating (European Stream) and for the MA in Translation & Professional Language Skills. Every year her students pass EU and UN interpreting tests.

Elena Kidd has over 18 years of extensive conference interpreting experience in the private and institutional markets in Europe and Russia, including the Gorbachev Foundation where she interpreted at conferences and meetings involving President Mikhail Gorbachev.

As a freelance interpreter, Elena Kidd has worked at the highest level for a number of government bodies, financial institutions and banks, such as the Ministry of Finance of Russia, The Ministry of Finance of Sweden, The World Bank, Experian UK, The US Department of the Treasury, KPMG-Peat Marwick, the UK Chartered Institute of Bankers, the UK Chartered Insurance Institute, The Association of British Insurers, Lloyds of London, The London Institute of Underwriters and others.

She specialises in banking and finance, securities and exchanges, insurance, accounting and auditing. She holds an EU Certificate from Comité Européen des Assurances which is an official authorisation for her to interpret at conferences and seminars in the field of insurance.