Jo Leinen

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 4

Motion for a resolution

4. Welcomes the fact that the new TFEU links the building of an area of freedom, security and justice to the protection of fundamental rights and the legal order of the EU and of its Member States (Article 67 of the TFEU);

Amendment

4. Welcomes the fact that the new TFEU links the building of an area of freedom, security and justice to the protection of fundamental rights and the legal order of the EU (Article 67 of the TFEU); respectfully notes the guarantees given to Ireland, as recorded in the Presidency Conclusions of the European Council held in December 2008, and underlines that the Charter of Fundamental Rights is legally binding only as regards EU actions;

Or. en

Amendment 7

Danutė Budreikaitė, Josep Borrell Fontelles

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 7

Motion for a resolution

7. Welcomes the fact that, according to Article 208(1) of the TFEU, the ‘Union’s development cooperation policy and that of the Member States complement and reinforce each other’; stresses the increased responsibility of Parliament, given that the Union will have a greater role in terms of initiative in policy-setting which should lead to improved donor coordination and division of labour and to greater aid effectiveness for the ‘reduction and, in the long term, the eradication of poverty’;

Amendment

7. Welcomes the fact that, according to Article 208(1) of the TFEU, the ‘Union’s development cooperation policy and that of the Member States complement and reinforce each other’ whereas, according to the current Article 177(1) of the Treaty establishing the European Community, ‘Community policy in the sphere of development cooperation[...] shall be complementary to the policies pursued by the Member States’; stresses the increased responsibility of Parliament, given that the Union will have a greater role in terms of initiative in policy-setting which should lead to improved donor coordination and division of labour and to greater aid effectiveness for the ‘reduction and, in the long term, the eradication of poverty’ in the context of the Millennium Development Goals (MDGs);

Amendment 8
Evelyne Gebhardt

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 9 a (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

9a. Also welcomes the fact that consumer protection has been strengthened to the extent that it is to be mainstreamed into the other Union policies to be laid down and implemented, and, as a cross-cutting task, now occupies a much more prominent place by virtue of Article 12 of the TFEU;

Or. de

Amendment 9
Angelika Niebler

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 17

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

17. Expresses its satisfaction at the insertion of a provision on a European space policy (Article 189 of the TFEU) and welcomes the opportunity given to Parliament and to the Council to adopt, under the ordinary legislative procedure, the necessary measures establishing a European space programme;

17. Expresses its satisfaction at the insertion of a provision on a European space policy (Article 189 of the TFEU) and welcomes the opportunity given to Parliament and to the Council to adopt, under the ordinary legislative procedure, the necessary measures establishing a European space programme; considers, however, that the words ‘excluding any harmonisation of the laws and regulations of the Member States in this field’ which appear in that article may imply some obstacles to the implementation of a common European space policy;

Or. en

Amendment 10
Herbert Bösch

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 21

Motion for a resolution

21. Welcomes the legal basis for the adoption of measures in the fields of the prevention of and fight against fraud affecting the financial interests of the Union (Art. 325 of the TFEU);

Amendment

21. Welcomes the strengthening of the legal basis for the adoption of EU measures in the fields of the prevention of and fight against fraud affecting the financial interests of the Union (Article 325 of the TFEU); highlights the fact that the Treaty of Lisbon removes the qualification, contained in the current Article 280 of the EC Treaty, that such measures ‘shall not concern the application of national criminal law or the national administration of justice’;

Or. en

Amendment 11
Richard Corbett

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 26

Motion for a resolution

26. Welcomes the fact that the Treaty of Lisbon has included sport amongst the areas in respect of which a legal basis is laid down (Article 165 of the TFEU); stresses in particular that the Union can finally take action for the development of sport and notably its European dimension;

Amendment

26. Welcomes the fact that the Treaty of Lisbon has included sport amongst the areas in respect of which a legal basis is laid down (Article 165 of the TFEU); stresses in particular that the Union can finally take action for the development of sport and its European dimension and can take due account of the specific nature of sport when applying other European policies;

Amendment 12

Jo Leinen

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 29 a (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

29a. Stresses that any power of the Council to adopt measures pursuant to Article 43(3) of the TFEU is subject to the prior adoption, in accordance with the ordinary legislative procedure, of a legislative act pursuant to Article 43(2) of the TFEU, which prescribes the conditions and limitations attaching to the powers conferred on the Council; takes the view that Article 43(3) of the TFEU does not provide for a legal basis or for any autonomous power which would allow the adoption or amendment of any of the Council acts presently in force in the field of the CAP; calls on the Council to refrain from adopting any of the measures referred to in Article 43(3) of the TFEU without prior consultation of Parliament;

Amendment 15
Richard Corbett

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 33

Motion for a resolution

33. Considers Article 182 of the TFEU to be an improvement because the multiannual framework programme and the implementation of a European research area, referred to therein, will be covered by the ordinary legislative procedure; notes, however, that the specific programmes mentioned in that article will be adopted via the special legislative procedure, implying mere consultation of the European Parliament (Article 182(4) of the TFEU);

Amendment

33. Considers Article 182 of the TFEU to be an improvement because the multiannual framework programme and the implementation of a European research area, referred to therein, will be covered by the ordinary legislative procedure; notes, however, that the specific programmes mentioned in that article will be adopted via a special legislative procedure, implying mere consultation of the European Parliament (Article 182(4) of the TFEU);

Amendment 16
Richard Corbett

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 34

Motion for a resolution

34. Welcomes the fact that, as regards the implementation of the Structural Funds, the Lisbon Treaty places the European Parliament on an equal footing with the Council by replacing the current assent procedure by the ordinary legislative procedure; considers that this is especially significant as regards the Structural Funds in the period after 2013, in that it enhances transparency and increases Parliament's accountability to citizens;

Amendment

34. Welcomes the fact that, as regards the implementation of the Structural Funds, the Lisbon Treaty places the European Parliament on an equal footing with the Council by replacing the current assent procedure by the ordinary legislative procedure; considers that this is especially significant as regards the Structural Funds in the period after 2013, in that it enhances transparency and increases the accountability of these funds to citizens;
