

Biography - Gerald Knaus

Gerald Knaus is the President of the European Stability Initiative and one of the two founding analysts. He oversees the strategic development of the institution, manages outreach and fundraising activities from the Istanbul office, and co-ordinates field research across South Eastern Europe and Turkey, where he spends much of his time. Together with the Senior Editor, he is involved in the research and drafting of all ESI publications.

From 2001 to 2004, Gerald was also Director of the Lessons Learned and Analysis Unit (LLA) of the European Union Pillar of UNMIK in Kosovo, a project to capture lessons from economic institution building in post-conflict areas. Before that he taught macroeconomics at the State University in Chernivtsi (Ukraine) and worked in Bulgaria and Bosnia-Herzegovina from 1994 to 1999. Gerald studied at Oxford, Brussels and the School of Advanced International Studies in Bologna. <http://www.esiweb.org/>
