

Curriculum vitae

Karima El Korri

Regional Coordinator, Parliamentary Development Initiative in the Arab Region

Regional Programme Division / Regional Bureau for Arab States

United Nations Development Programme (UNDP)

Ms. El Korri has been leading UNDP's parliamentary development activities in the Arab Region since 2004. She also coordinates UNDP's regional work in the area of participatory governance. Her areas of expertise include parliamentary strengthening, gender and governance and political parties empowerment. Previous to working for UNDP, Ms. El Korri worked as director of a training center in Casablanca then project manager at the Moroccan think-tank Maroc 2020 where she was in charge of UNDP and WBI-supported projects in the area of democracy promotion and development.

Other previous occupations include English language teaching at Alakhawayn University in Ifrane and professional translation. She's fluent in 4 languages and holds a Master's Degree in Applied Linguistics from Teachers' College, Columbia University, New York.