

European NGOs and networks actively involved in humanitarian and development assistance to Afghanistan

European Network of NGOs
in Afghanistan

CMI
Martti Ahtisaari Centre

European Parliament - June 4, 2013 (closed session)

PEACE FOR ALL AFGHANS?

ENNA, the European Network of NGO's in Afghanistan, together with members and partners, is promoting the citizens participation in the Afghan peace process by facilitating the dialogue. People from civil society organisations, who have lived for years in conflict but still believe that peace is possible, will meet with members of the European Parliament during this special conference arranged in connections to a visit by an Afghan delegation to Brussels.

The meeting is co-hosted by ENNA (European Network of NGO's in Afghanistan-Brussels), CMI (Crisis Management Initiative-Helsinki), ACBAR (Agency Coordinating Body for Afghan Relief-Kabul) and MEP Thijs Berman, Chairperson of the Delegation for relations with Afghanistan of the European Parliament.

Venue: European Parliament, Brussels - building ASP room 5G315

Date: 4 June, 2013 - from 11:00 until 13:00 , followed by lunch

Program:

- 11.00 Opening of the meeting by MEP Thijs Berman
Introduction by Peter Brune, Secretary General ENNA
- 11.10 Justine Piquemal, Director ACBAR, summarizing the policy recommendations
- 11.20 Presentations by Hasina Safi, Director Afghan Women's Network and Mirdad Khan Nijrabi, Chairperson of the Security Committee of the Afghan Parliament
- 11.45 Joint discussion, moderated by Meeri-Maria Jaarva/CMI
- 12.45 Concluding remarks by Peter Brune and Thijs Berman