

Title	Name	Last Name	Nationality	City	Short Bio
Ms.	Ranan H.	Taher	UAE		Co-Founder/Projects Manager, Tammeey for Youth Development
Mr.	Kamel	Al Nabulsi	Jordanian		Founder / Chief Visionary Officer, Tammeey for Youth Development
Youth participants
Mr.	Ali	Shehada	Palestinian	Gaza City	BA in Computer Engineering from 2011. Work experience from AMIDEAST in the Gaza Youth Empowerment Project. Has implemented three community youth-led initiatives. Interested in philosophy, religion and international relations.
Ms.	Yasmeen	Rabah	Palestinian	Gaza City	BA in Business Administration from 2010, Al-Azhar University, where she has also worked as an assistant lecturer. Experience as Monitoring and Evaluation Officer, Atfaluna Society for Deaf Children in Gaza. Fluent in English and French. Active in a social media project for The Palestine Youth Association for Leadership and Rights Activities.
Ms.	Sahar	Musa	Palestinian	Gaza City	Graduated from UNRWA's Khan Younis Training Centre in Business and Office Management. Her aspirations are to work for Palestinian development.
Mr.	Moa'taz	El-Jamal	Palestinian	Rafah camp	Excellent Human Rights and English skills from UNRWA's Rafah Preparatory Boys School. His story featured in the UNRWA production "Something to Prove". Awarded a Youth Exchange System (YES) scholarship to study in the US for one year but was prevented to leave due to the political situation in Gaza.
Ms.	Loulou	El Ali	Palestinian	Tarik Jdideh – Beirut	Born in Kuwait and living in northern Lebanon. Studying 5th year of Architectural Engineering at Beirut Arab University and is a honor list student. Rewarded with an EU scholarship as a result of academic excellence. She also works as a freelance graphic designer. She is a member of the Lebanese-Palestinian youth board, and member of the board of directors of a Palestinian football team (public relations section). Member of the scouts in Tripoli. Furthermore, she has helped on the Nahr el Bared Relief campaign.
Mr.	Tareq Hafez	Hamid	Palestinian	Tarik Jdideh – Beirut (originally from Beddawi Camp)	Studying 5th year of Civil Engineering at Beirut Arab University. Very active with social activities such as being a scouts leader and 10 years of experience with volunteering with Palestinian associations organising activities for children. Has worked with the Right to Play Association with Lebanese and Palestinian children. He also worked as a coordinator on the UNRWA project "Play and Learn". He participates in the preparation, presentation and direction of TV programmes on local channels in Palestinian camps.

Ms.	Faten	Kamel el Khatib	Palestinian	Beqaa	Studying 4th year of Industrial and Management Engineering at Beirut Arab University, Lebanon. Obtained a full scholarship from Alumni Scholarship, and a full scholarship from Beirut Arab University for her academic excellence. She joined "Right To Play" with "Renaissance and Justice organisation" Chtoura-Lebanon in addition to teaching sessions at the same organisation for Brevet and High school students.
Ms.	Aida Fawwaz	El Shahabi	Palestinian	Saida	BA in Business Administration from the American University of Beirut (AUB) Lebanon, majoring in Human Resources, Organisational behavior and Finance. Granted a Business/AUB Palestinian club scholarship. High School Valedictorian. She has volunteered with the Norwegian People's Aid during the war in 2006.
Mr.	Ahmad	Khattab	Palestinian	Saida	Studying 4th year of Electrical and Computer Engineering at the American University of Beirut, Lebanon. Placed on the Dean's Honor List and has obtained full scholarship at AUB for academic excellence. Leading position in Palestinian Cultural Club Fund for providing scholarships for refugees, where he established the Makassed Volunteering Group (MVT). He conducts community activities aimed at providing aid for the elderly and orphans of South Lebanon.
Mr.	Khaled Mohammad	Bakrawe	Palestinian	Damascus	Law student and is an active volunteer in the community. He has conducted many initiatives with other youth groups and the community. A trainer on community organisation and participated as member in the technical teams for the formulation of the Palestinian Youth Camps Strategy in 2011.
Mr.	Ammar Mahmoud	Rashdan	Palestinian	Damascus	Studying 2nd year at the English Department at Damascus University. Volunteering at the Engaging Youth Center. He is also a trainer on youth participation and an active member of many political parties in the camp.
Ms.	Abeer Yaser	Alnaqib	Palestinian	Damascus	Graduated from the Department of Sociology at Damascus University and now studying a Masters degree in Family Protection. She works as a case manager (hotline) for helping victims of domestic violence and also as a social worker and trainer on mental health for adolescents and children in the Patriarchate (Roman Orthodox). For four years, a volunteer with UNRWA in the Disability & Women's Programme.
Ms.	Ronza Mohamad	Shehabi	Palestinian	Damascus	Supervisor in a telecommunication company. Member of the technical teams for the formulation of the Palestinian Youth Camps Strategy of 2011.

Ms.	Najlaa Bassam	Jarbou	Palestinian	Damascus	Studying 2nd year at the faculty of Education-Psychological counselling. She has interned in Program Development at the Syria Trust for Development. She is volunteering at the Syrian Association for Family Planning. Board Member in United World Colleges and a Trainer in life skills, youth participation and business awareness.
Mr.	Ahmed Saeed Khader	Yasin	Palestinian	Ramallah	Accounting Degree from Birzeit University, January 2012. Ahmed has been very active in his community for years and was during university involved in the international summer camp as an event organiser. He has volunteered with Sharek Youth Forum for two years. Ahmed believes that his volunteering pursuits have been invaluable to the development of his interpersonal skills and confidence. Furthermore, his volunteer pursuits have enabled him to develop technical skills in areas such as media. Currently working at Sharek on youth employment projects. He loves the work he is doing for fellow youth and is inspired to continue contributing to youth issues. Great English skills.
Mr.	Bashar Hisham Slameh	Farash	Palestinian	Jerusalem	Bsc. in Temporary Business Administration at the Palestine polytechnic University. He is a Manager at the Youth and Programmes Department in the Youth Development Resource Centre and has worked as a Programme Officer at the Terre des Hommes in Italy working on Humanitarian Aid Cooperation and Devevelopment. He is also working as a Coordinator at the Palestine Red Crescent Society and has excellent English and Hebrew language and commuciation skills.
Ms.	Laila Sameer Awad	Duaibes	Palestinian	Ramallah	Masters in Health and Rehabilitation from the University of Southampton (England) and a BA In Occupational Therapy from the Arab American University (Jenin). Programmes and Project manager for Popular Struggle Coordination Committee and a Board Member of Tawoon for Conflict Resolution / PRCS. Research and Planning Manager, Palestine Red Crescent Society, Ramallah. Media and PR Project Officer at Palestinian Paralympic Committee. Experience with Research, project management, planning, evaluation work. Volunteer experience with persons with disabilities. Great English, French and Italian language skills.
Ms.	Sarah Mahmoud	Erbash	Jordanian	East Jerusalem	Studying a BA in English Literature and French Language. She is a Youth Club volunteer and has excellent English skills, good French skills, and excellent writing and presentation skills. She is responsible and open-minded.

Mr.	Bader Saed Bader	Zamareh	Palestinian	Ramallah	Masters in Civil Law from Al-Quds University, Palestine. Executive Director of Sharek Youth Forum a Palestinian NGO that acts as a platform for advocacy on youth issues since its establishment in 2004. Early in his youth development career in December 2004, Bader was awarded the "Leadership Towards Achieving the Millennium Development Goals" by the United Nations in New York and in 2011 awarded the Synergos Institute Award for Social Innovators in the Arab World. Since then, he has been successful in implementing innovative projects across Palestine, even in the most isolated communities. In the past five years he has been an active member of the National Youth Strategy steering committee (2005 – 2010). Mr. Zamareh has also participated in conducting research on development issues addressing Palestinian youth, the latest studies being "Status of Youth in Palestine: Promise or Peril?" and "Youth and Political Factions". Currently he is putting his on-going advocacy towards youth empowerment into action, through supervising the establishment of 15 Youth Councils in partnership with 15 Palestinian municipalities. He works relentlessly to bring to the attention of key decision makers the challenges that youth is facing and encourages all youth to take on a leadership role in society to become their own agents of change.
Mr.	Rami	Mosaallam	Jordanian	Baqaa	Studying 3rd year of Electrical Engineering and volunteers at WPC- Baqaa. He has taken a course in Professional Photography encouraging women to work and is highly engaged with creative art activities. Good English skills.
Ms.	Faten	Jadaan	Jordanian	Baqaa	Studying 1st year of Biology at the Hashemite University and volunteers at WPC-Baqaa. She has taken courses of Communications, Women's Rights, Film making, Writing competitions and Community youth development. She has very good English skills and is an active social media user and writer.
Ms.	Helana	Kaabneh	Jordanian	Marka	Graduate in Social Work from the University of Jordan and highly active in the community working with youth development and visiting poor families in the camps. She is a coordinator of youth activities and has taken a leadership course and worked as a facilitator of a psycho-social support group. Winner of the Faculty elections. She has fair English skills and is a natural leader with great knowledge on youth development.
Mr.	Monther	Ajouri	Jordanian	Marka	Studying 2nd year of Computer Sciences at the Mutah University. He has been an activist with WPC Marka for eight years. He has taken a course called Trainer of Trainees and has knowledge of psycho-social work, professional film making, youth community development, and human rights. He has produced six short movies and has art and media experience. He is a team player with good English skills.
Mr.	Ahmad	Yaghi	Jordanian	Madaba	Studying 1st year of Medicin at the Hashemite University. Youth activist at WPC-Madaba for six years. He has taken courses on Hawiyati, basic life skills, and gender issues and has experience as a psyco-social support group facilitator. He participated in the preparation of the report on Children's Rights in Jordan for UNICEF that was presented before the Queen. Great communication skills, very diplomatic, has knowledge of children's rights and youth activism. He is a critical thinker with great presentation and English skills.