

Ms Elinor Hammarskjöld is Deputy Director-General and Head of the Department for International Law, Human Rights and Treaty Law at the Swedish Ministry for Foreign Affairs.

She has worked at the Ministry for Foreign Affairs since 1992, in posts focussing i.e. on issues related to security policy, international law and human rights.

From 1995 to 1999 Ms Hammarskjöld served at the Permanent Mission of Sweden to the United Nations in New York, working on Security Council issues.

In 2000-2002 she was a Consul at the Swedish Consulate General in Jerusalem, covering i.e. political issues and development cooperation in the fields of democracy and human rights.

Ms Hammarskjöld has Masters degrees in Law from the University of Uppsala and the University of Cambridge.

Mrs. Véronique Arnault studied political science and English literature in France and in the UK.

She started her career in 1980 as a French diplomat and then joined the European Commission in 1983 in the team for the enlargement of the European Union to Spain and Portugal, in the fisheries field.

She subsequently worked in the External Relations department of the European Commission on trade relations with the US and Japan.

She became Head of Unit for "Analysis and Policy Planning" for External Relations dealing, in particular, with the preparation of the G7/G8 Summits.

In 1999, she became deputy chief of staff for David Byrne, European Commissioner for Health and Consumer Protection. In 2002, she started working for the Commission Department for Consumer protection, where she was mainly responsible for the development of the European consumer strategy, relations with consumer organisations and external relations.

On the 1st March 2008, she became Director of Multilateral Relations and Human Rights in Directorate General for External Relations.

Mrs. Arnault is married with 2 children.

Dr. Riina Kionka is the Personal Representative of the SG/HR on Human Rights in the Common Foreign and Security Policy area and serves as the Head of the Human Rights Unit at the EU Council.

Her previous positions include the Head of Unit deputizing for the Director of DGE IV (Americas, Counterterrorism, UN, Human Rights) at the Council, Undersecretary of State for EU Affairs at the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Estonia and Ambassador of Estonia in Germany.

She holds a Ph.D. in International Relations (Soviet Studies) from Columbia University NY.

Dr Kionka is married with 2 children.