Paragraph 1

Draft Opinion

1. Acknowledges the essential role of the Centre in the promotion of vocational education and training (VET) in the European Union and in the contribution to policies which aim to use VET's potential to support economic development and facilitate transition from learning to employment, particularly in the context of the economic recession; welcomes that the different stakeholders show an increased demand for the Centre's expertise and analytical capacity;

Amendment

1. Acknowledges the essential role of the Centre in the promotion of vocational education and training (VET) in the European Union at a time when new methods of training are needed, in the contribution to policies which aim to use VET's potential to support economic development and facilitate transition from learning to employment, particularly in the context of the economic recession; welcomes that the different stakeholders show an increased demand for the Centre's expertise and analytical capacity;

Paragraph 5

Draft Opinion

5. Notes the high budget implementation rates for all titles and that the number of budget transfers was reduced by more than 25% from previous year (down to 55 transfers in 2012 from 77 in 2011); notes furthermore that the high carry-over of committed appropriations mainly resulted from reasons beyond the Centre's control, such as the delays in the repair works carried out by Greek authorities on the Centre's premises, which were not completed in 2012;
