

ITRE Committee

Public hearing on Spectrum Policy

1st February 2011, 15.00-17.30

Room JAN 2Q2

Draft Agenda

APPLICATIONS OF SPECTRUM: PRESENT AND LONG TERM PERSPECTIVES

15.00: Opening by Mr Herbert Reul, ITRE Chairman

15.05: Introduction by Mr Gunnar Hökmark, rapporteur on RSPP

First panel: 15.15 - Making the digital agenda a reality

Industrial, economical and cultural opportunities

Broadband and broadcasting and New applications (Health applications and e-government, Air traffic control, railway systems, intelligent cars)

Perspectives for Telecom industry and new services

Public value, public uses

Opportunities for SMEs and the Internal Market

Speakers: Mr Richard Feasey, Public Policy Director, Vodafone
Mrs Catherine Smadja, Head of Special Projects, Policy&Strategy BBC
Mr Simon Forge, SCF Associates Ltd

15.45: Questions and answers

2nd panel: 16.30 - Capacity for the future

Development of fix and mobile data traffic

Internet of Things: RFID, radio frequency communications, IP address scarcity

Spectrum efficiency - How to maximise/optimize spectrum usage?

Speakers: Mr Christopher Gow, Head of Spectrum Policy, CISCO
Mr Patrick van Niftrik, Senior Manager, Spectrum Development, SES
Mr Denis Lescop, Director of Research Programmes, Telecom Ecole de Management

17.00: Questions and answers

17.25: Conclusions by the rapporteur

17.30: End of the hearing