

INMACULADA RODRÍGUEZ-PIÑERO

Graduate in Economic Sciences, speciality in Economic Theory, from The Complutense University of Madrid.

Master´s degree in Economic Theory from The Minnesota University.

Doctorate Courses in the Department of Economic Theory at Valencia´s University.

Tributary Specialization Courses at The Public Finance School.

Civil Servant at The Highest level of the Generalitat Valenciana´s General Administration.

She has been Chief of the Economic Programming and Public Investments Area at The Consellería de Economía y Hacienda, as well as General Director of The Economic Regime at The Consellería de Cultura, Educación y Ciencias of The Generalitat Valenciana; Chief of The Regional Area of The Comunidad Valenciana of Coordination of Property Process at The Treasury Ministry. She has also been General Secretary of Infrastructures at The Development Ministry.

She has been the first woman Responsible for The Economic Politics of PSOE, chosen as Secretary of Economic and Employment Politics at The 36 th PSOE Federal Congress, where she was in charge until 2008.

In The 2008´s Elections she was chosen as a Member of Parliament for Valencia and she was Economy´s Spokesperson of The Grupo Parlamentario Socialista, Congress of Deputies, until she was named General Secretary of Infrastructures on the 19th of April, 2009.

At The Present Legislation she heads The Congress List of Deputies for Valencia and she is The Vice- President of The Comision Mixta Congreso-Senado for the Relations with The Court of Audit.

At The 38th PSOE Federal Congress, she was chosen again as Secretary of Economy and Employment.

She is the author of many articles as well as Economic Documents.