General recommendations

General recommendations

-1. Calls on the Commission, the Council and the Member States to fully assume their responsibilities in relation to the proper and full application of the mandate and competences of the European Union in relation to fundamental rights, both on the basis of the Charter of Fundamental Rights and of the articles of the Treaties dealing with fundamental rights and citizens' rights issues, and notably Articles 2, 6, 7 TEU; believes that this is the only way to ensure that the EU equips itself - as it has done in other areas of common interest and importance, such as economic and budgetary matters - to deal with democratic, rule of law and fundamental rights crisis and tensions that are affecting the EU and its Member States; calls for the urgent strengthening of the European mechanisms to ensure that democracy, the rule of law and fundamental rights are respected in the EU;

Paragraph 4 a (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

4a. Calls on the Commission to draft an annual report on the situation of fundamental rights in the EU, on the basis inter alia of Articles 2 and 6 TEU and of the Charter of Fundamental Rights, instead of focusing only on the implementation of the Charter and adopting a minimalist approach; such a report should adopt a more balanced and self-critical analysis, to include not only positive developments but also an analysis of where it could strengthen its approach in the future; believes that such a report should include an analysis of the situation in the Member States, including on the basis of international organisations, NGOs, EP and citizens' concerns in relation to violations of fundamental rights, the rule of law and democracy; recalls that the Commission has a duty to conduct such activity both as guardian of the Treaties and of the Charter and on the basis of Articles 2, 6 and 7 TEU;

14a. Freedom of expression

Is concerned about the increasing pressure on freedom of expression exerted by extremist tendencies within Islam, particularly Salafism; stresses that freedom of expression must apply throughout the EU, including for those who wish to express a critical opinion of Islam; condemns, therefore, the situation whereby politicians and artists are the victims of murder plots and attacks and have to be constantly guarded; condemns the disturbance of readings, the destruction of works of art, and the threats to writers and artists; stresses that criticism of any religion and its doctrines, thus including those of Islam, does not show a lack of respect but forms an essential part of the common European legal order which holds that religion, religious texts, religious doctrines, institutions and ministers are also legitimate subjects for debate;
