Subject: EMPL Coordinators' decisions on petitions of 26 November 2009

Dear David,

I wish to inform you that, at their meeting of 26 November 2009, the Coordinators of the Committee on Employment and Social Affairs have adopted the following decisions concerning petitions sent to the EMPL Committee by the PETI Committee:

Petition 0734/2009, by Muriel Michelin (French), on behalf of the Union syndicale des collectifs des employés de vie scolaire (UNCEVS), on the precarious employment situation of educational staff providing support for handicapped pupils

Decision: inform PETI that EMPL will take the matter of "precarious employment" raised by the Petition into account when drafting its INI report on "atypical contracts, secured professional paths and new forms of social dialogue" and in its legislative work on the new Directive on equal treatment.

Yours sincerely,

Panos Konstantopoulos
