

Hansjörg HABER

Born on 21 February 1953 in Munich, Germany

Work Experience

Since May 2011	European External Action Service, Head of Civilian Planning and Conduct Capability;
2008-2011	Head of Mission, EUMM (European Union Monitoring Mission), Georgia;
2007-2008	German Ambassador in Beirut, also liaising with UNIFIL;
2002-2006	Head of UN Division (strategic planning and elaboration of Germany's position as to UN peacekeeping, including UNOMIG, UN policy in regional conflicts); Federal Foreign Office, Berlin;
1999-2002	German Embassy Moscow, Head of Press and Information Office;
1996-1999	Deputy Head of UN Division, Federal Foreign Office, Bonn;
1992-1996	German Embassy Ankara, Political Counselor;
1989-1992	Desk Officer, UN Division, Federal Foreign Office, Bonn;
1984-1989	Postings in German Embassies in Paris, Moscow and Manila.

Education

1982-1984	Foreign Service Training;
1978-1981	University of Munich, scientific lecturer (economics);
1978	Diploma (equivalent of Masters degree) in economics;
1974-1978	University of Munich, studies of economics;
1973-1974	Military service
1972	General Certificate of education; Atlantic College, United Kingdom