

Curriculum Vitae of Ms Ellen Nygren

Master of Laws, Uppsala University, Sweden, specialized in insurance law and labour law

Since 2004 LO, The Swedish Trade Union Confederation, regarding negotiations with employers' organisations on occupational pensions and insurance schemes at national level for blue collar workers in the private sector. Since 2010 in the international department of LO and a member of the EESC. Between January 2013 and January 2015 on secondment to the European Trade Union Confederation, as an advisor mainly on social protection issues, including occupational pensions. Member of the Occupational Pensions Stakeholder Group of EIOPA.

2003 – 2004 Ministry for Industry, Commerce and Communication as a political adviser to the minister for labour, regarding labour law and social insurance.

2001 – 2003 Federation of Salaried Employees in Industry and Services, PTK, as a lawyer and negotiating officer regarding occupational pensions and insurance schemes for white collar workers in the private sector.

2000 – 2001 Fora, a company handling collective agreement pensions and insurance schemes, in the cabinet of the CEO.

1996 - 2000 LO, The Swedish Trade Union Confederation, head office in Stockholm, on social security, negotiations on occupational pensions and insurance schemes.

1995 – 1996 Swedish National Board for Social Security, local office in Stockholm.