

Ms Sara Lindvall

Short biography

Sara Lindvall currently holds a position as Field Representative for the Swedish Foundation Kvinna till Kvinna and provides support to Women's right organisations around Syria. She has previously worked for UNHCR on both policy level and in the field and has extensive experience of gender and community work in a context of displacement from Sri Lanka, South Sudan, Somalia and the Central African Republic. She holds a Master in Social Science from Lund's university in Sweden.