Appointments

2015 – Senior Associate Analyst, European Union Institute for Security Studies, Paris with a main task to coordinate a project of Arctic challenges and opportunities.

2010 – Programme Director, The European Union research programme, Finnish Institute of International Affairs, Helsinki. The main task of a Programme Director (PD) is to successfully manage his/her programme. The PD participates in the planning of research and other work necessary for the Institute, under the guidance of the FIIA leadership. The key focuses on the Institute's EU research programme are the EU's external relations, and institutional development and decision-making. Currently the EU research programme employs six full-time researchers, two visiting research fellows and one research assistant. In addition, a PD also has personal research duties. My current research and publication projects focuses on the EU's role and representation in the G20, multilateralism, external implications of the EMU reforms, and Finnish EU policy.

2009 (Sep) – 2010 (March) Senior Visiting Research Fellow, European Union Institute for Security Studies, Paris. Main duties included independent and collaborative research leading to a publication of Chaillot Paper, planning and organization of high-level events, as well as a set-up of a policy analysis forum on global governance (pilot project).

2009 (Feb-July) Advisor, Unit for Policy Planning and Research, Ministry for Foreign Affairs of Finland.

2008 (Oct- Dec) Director of the Network for European Studies, University of Helsinki. Main responsibilities were to guide, develop and supervise Network's academic activities and finances, and to conclude research agreements.

2007 – 2008 Post-Doctoral Research Fellow in Network for European Studies and Department of Political Science, University of Helsinki. Main duties included the set-up of international and national research networks as well as conducting independent research related to two key projects: (i) EU's role in Asia; and (ii) Europeanization of foreign policy in the face of increasing regional and global governance.

2004 – 2006 Part-time Teacher in the University of Helsinki Open University, Department of Political Science. Courses on Theories of World Politics, Researching Power, and European Politics and Integration on Advanced Level.

2002 – 2003 Part-Time Lecturer in the University of Bristol (UK), Department of Politics. Courses on European Politics (undergraduate level) and Constructivism and International Relations Theory (postgraduate level).
