Final act

Directive 1998/13 OJ L 074 12.03.1998, p. 0001 Summary
---

Telecommunications terminal equipment and satellite earth station equipment (consolidated text)

OBJECTIVE: legislative consolidation SUBSTANCE: Commission proposal to consolidate the European Parliament and Council directive relating to the telecommunications terminal equipment and satellite earth station equipment, including the mutual recognition of their conformity, combining the following directives into a single text: - Council Directive 91/263/EEC concerning telecommunications terminal equipment, including the mutual recognition of their conformity; - Council Directive 93/97/EEC, supplementing Directive 91/262/EEC in respect of satellite earth equipment. The new directive will supersede the various directives incorporated in it; their content is fully preserved, and they are brought together with only such formal amendments as are required by the codification exercise itself. ?

The Committee welcomes the Commission proposal as an appropriate means of simplifying Community legal texts which make for clearer and easier understanding, subject to the following comments: The Commission is advised to take appropriate, legally binding steps quickly to remove the existing discrepancies in the interpretation of Article 6 of Directive 91/263/EEC. The Committee recommends that the wording of Electromagnetic Compatibility Directive 88/336/EEC be brought into line as soon as possible to avoid confusion regarding the repealing of Article 10.4. as set out by Article 9.4. of Directive 91/263/EEC.?

The European Parliament approved the proposal. COD95325 22/05/96 DCN FR The European Parliament approved the Council's common position.?

Telecommunications terminal equipment and satellite earth station equipment (consolidated text)

The joint position is in line with the Commission proposal, subject to a number of purely technical modifications with no political implications. ?

Telecommunications terminal equipment and satellite earth station equipment (consolidated text)

The European Parliament has approved the Council's common position. ?

Telecommunications terminal equipment and satellite earth station equipment (consolidated text)

OBJECTIVE: codification of Directives 91/263/EEC and 93/97/EEC. COMMUNITY MEASURE: Directive 98/13/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council SUBSTANCE: The Directive concerns telecommunications terminal equipment and satellite earth station equipment, including the mutual recognition of their conformity. It consolidates in a single text Council Directives 91/263/EEC concerning telecommunications terminal equipment, including the mutual recognition of their conformity, and 93/97/EEC supplementing Directive 91/262/EEC in respect of satellite earth station equipment. The new directive will replace the two directives which it codifies. ENTRY INTO FORCE: 1/04/1998 ?
