Tomorrow's Parliament

European elections 22-25 May 2014

European voters determine the political balance of the incoming Parliament

First task of the incoming Parliament : to elect a new Commission President

Most of the political groups are affiliated to a pan-European political party and these parties are expected to put forward candidates for the post of Commission President, who must be approved by an absolute majority of MEPs (376 out of 751)
