

MEPs to debate Nemtsov's murder and annual foreign policy report with Mogherini

MEPs will debate the murder of the Russian opposition leader Boris Nemtsov and the state of democracy in Russia with EU foreign policy chief Federica Mogherini at 15.00. This will be followed by debates on foreign and security policy, human rights in the world, developments in Libya, the Mali peace agreement and EU counter-terrorism cooperation with the League of Arab States.

The House will vote on separate resolutions on the murder of Boris Nemtsov and the state of democracy in Russia, the annual foreign policy report, the annual report on human rights in the world, and on the cooperation with the League of Arab States on Thursday.
