
Counter-terrorism - Eurojust report on foreign fighters presented to Civil Liberties MEPs

The latest Eurojust report on Foreign Terrorist Fighters was presented to Civil Liberties Committee MEPs on Thursday morning.

Eurojust President Michèle Coninx presented the main findings of the report “Foreign Terrorist Fighters: Eurojust’s views on the phenomenon and the criminal justice response” to MEPs and gave an overview of developments 2012-2016, the justice response in member states, work in the field on deradicalisation and strategies for dealing with returnees.

The report itself is not available to the public, but a video of the presentation by Ms Coninx will shortly be available here.
