

The Week Ahead 22 – 28 January 2018

Agenda

Committee Week

2019 elections/Distribution of EP seats. The Constitutional Affairs Committee will vote on a new distribution of Parliament's seats for the 2019 -2024 legislative term. MEPs will also vote on whether or not to set up transnational electoral lists comprising the entire territory of the European Union. (Tuesday)

Reduction of CO2 emissions and forestry. Two informal deals with EU Ministers are up for a vote by the Environment Committee: one on establishing national emission reduction targets, and one on ensuring that CO2 emissions are balanced by CO2 absorption by forests, croplands and grasslands. The laws are among the key EU efforts being made to enact the Paris agreement on climate change. (Wednesday)

Police cooperation. Civil Liberties Committee MEPs will vote on a proposal to set up a centralised system for member states to exchange non-EU citizens' criminal records more quickly and easily. (Thursday)

Rule of law in Malta. MEPs from the Civil Liberties Committee and PANA, the former committee of inquiry, will discuss the outcome of their visit to Malta at the end of November last year to investigate the rule of law in the country and allegations of corruption and money laundering. MEPs are expected to meet with Mr Silvio Camilleri, Malta Chief of Justice (tbc). (Thursday)

Honey and bees. The Agriculture Committee will put forward proposals to better protect bee health, intensify the fight against honey counterfeiting, increase support for EU beekeepers and promote the benefits of honey consumption in the EU. (Tuesday)

Holocaust Commemoration. The European Parliament will mark the "International Day of Commemoration in memory of the victims of the Holocaust" by hosting a commemorative event on its premises. Mairead McGuinness, First Vice President of the European Parliament will give an opening speech, followed by a statement by European Jewish Congress President Moche Kantor. This year's event is focusing on education and children. (Wednesday)

President's Diary. President Tajani will host the New Years' Reception for the Diplomatic Corps on Monday evening.

Agenda

Press briefing. The EP Press Service will hold a press briefing on the week's activities at 11.00 a.m. on Monday, in the "Anna Politkovskaya" EP press conference room.

The European Agenda on Migration : What about Legal Avenues and Integration?

Interparliamentary committee meeting with National Parliaments

Now at the start of 2018, it is time to take stock of the EU response to the current migration challenge as it was initially framed in the 2015 European Commission's European Agenda on Migration.

This one-day event, organised by the Civil Liberties, Justice and Home Affairs Committee, will give parliamentarians at both national and European level a unique opportunity to exchange with representatives of EU institutions, bodies and agencies, intergovernmental organisations, local governments, academics and think tanks on a topic which combines competences at all levels of governance in the EU.

Discussion will be divided into four sessions followed by a closing session.

1. The European Agenda for Migration - legal avenues and integration two years on
2. Legal avenues for international protection
3. Labour migration and family reunification
4. Integration - opportunities and challenges
- 5 Closing remarks

See the draft programme for further information.

REGI Workshop on the 7th Cohesion report

The Committee on Regional Development will hold a Workshop on the 7th Report on Economic, Social and Territorial Cohesion. The 7th Cohesion Report was published by the Commission beginning of October 2017 and it is a key document in the context of the upcoming reform of the European Union Cohesion Policy for the next programming period. MEPs will draw up a non-legislative report, on this topic (rapporteur Marc Joulaud (EPP, FR)). Various experts will discuss with MEPs the two main questions- also pointed out in the Commission's communication- namely: where cohesion policy should invest and what should be the investment priorities. They will also present themes such as the middle income trap, urban dimension of cohesion policy and urban agenda, relations between urban-rural areas, as well as the balance between European priorities and territorial needs.
