

The Week Ahead 20 – 26 November 2017

Agenda

Committee meetings, Brussels

Glyphosate. A European Citizens' initiative petition calling for an EU-wide ban on the controversial herbicide glyphosate, will be discussed with the petitioners at a public hearing. Parliament rejected a ten-year renewal of glyphosate's licence in October and proposed a full ban by 2022. EU member states will vote on a five-year renewal on 27 November. (Monday)

Buying online: protection against defective digital goods. The Internal Market and Legal Affairs committees will vote on EU-wide rules to protect online shoppers when digital content, such as downloaded games or music, fails to work properly. These include ways to get money back and guarantee periods. (Tuesday)

Online TV and radio. A regulation making it easier to distribute online TV and radio programmes across the EU is up for a vote in the Legal Affairs Committee. Copyright problems can currently prevent the cross-border supply of online TV and radio programmes. (Tuesday)

Export controls on dual-use goods. The International Trade Committee will vote to reinforce export controls on goods and technologies that have legitimate civilian applications, but can also be used for torture, weapons of mass destruction or terrorism. These include cyber-surveillance technologies, chemicals, explosive-resistant armour, radio equipment and lasers. (Thursday)

Funding of European political parties. Changes in the rules on funding EU political parties and foundations are up for a vote in the Constitutional Affairs Committee. They aim to increase transparency, prevent membership of more than one party, tackle abuse of taxpayers' money and make it easier to reclaim funds that are spent incorrectly. (Thursday)

ECB/Draghi. European Central Bank President Mario Draghi will present and debate with the Economic and Monetary Affairs Committee the Bank's perspective on economic and monetary developments in the Eurozone. MEPs may also raise phasing out bonds buying and other non-standard monetary policy measures and imbalances between national central banks in the euro area. (Monday)

Renewed partnership with Africa. To discuss new responses to the challenges facing Africa and ways to deepen the EU-Africa partnership, Parliament will host a high-level conference of African and European leaders. Private sector and civic society delegates will include 2014 Sakharov Prize Laureate Dr Denis Mukwege. A press conference with EP

President Antonio Tajani and other leaders is scheduled for 15:30. (Wednesday)

President's diary. EP President Antonio Tajani will chair a meeting of the Conference of Presidents of the political groups in Bulgaria, to prepare the upcoming Council Presidency, on Tuesday. On Wednesday, President Tajani will meet the Central African Republic's President Faustin-Archange Touadéra. On Thursday he will deliver the opening speech at the first European Enterprise-Education Summit and on Friday he will take part in the plenary session of the Eastern Partnership Summit, bringing together EU Heads of state or Government and the six Eastern partner countries.

Press briefing. The EP Press Service will hold a press briefing on the week's activities at 11.00 on Monday, in the "Anna Politkovskaya" EP press conference room.

Pan-European Personal Pension Product (PEPP)

On 21 November 2017 from 14.30 to 16.00 the Committee on Economic and Monetary Affairs (ECON) is organising a Public Hearing on Pan-European Personal Pension Product (PEPP).

The PEPP Regulation proposed by the Commission in June 2017 aims to encourage the development of voluntary individually funded pensions and to strengthen the Capital Markets Union by helping to channel more savings to long-term investments in the EU. The proposal is accompanied by the Commission recommendation on the tax treatment of personal pension products, including the PEPP.

The purpose of this hearing is to receive information from stakeholders and experts on impact and practical consequences of this Regulation, which would introduce a new concept at the European level. Firstly, Members will hear representatives of insurers, asset managers, academia, consumer protection organisations and pension funds. Presentations will be followed by Q&A session with Members.

Istanbul Convention: combating violence against women at national and EU level

Interparliamentary committee meeting with national parliaments

On the occasion of International Day for the elimination of Violence against Women 2017 (25 November), the Committee on Women's Rights and Gender Equality are bringing together European and national parliamentarians to assess the state of the ratification and implementation of the Istanbul Convention at EU and national levels and how it is being monitored by GREVIO. The event is taking place in a year that the EU is especially devoting to prevent and combat violence against women. The signature by the EU of the Council of Europe Convention on preventing and combating violence against women and domestic violence (the Istanbul Convention) has been the major milestone of 2017 in the common task of fighting gender-based violence.

Protection of the rights of workers in temporary or precarious employment

Organised by the Petitions Committee, in light of the significant number of petitions received signalling concerns of citizens employed on a temporary basis or under precarious conditions across the EU, this hearing will offer an opportunity to MEPs, the participants, the public and other actors to reflect in a better way on the complexity of employment types with the aim of clarifying the situation of different categories of workers.

The hearing will be divided into two discussion panels. The first panel addresses working conditions in Europe in 2017 with panellists from different academic centres and think tanks, while the second panel focuses on zero-hour contracts, flexi-jobs, short-term contracts and their impact on the legal and socio-economic situation of workers.

Implementation of young farmers' policies after the 2013 CAP reform

Members of the Committee on Agriculture and Rural Development will discuss with experts to what extent has the EU's farming policy helped to introduce fresh blood into the aging sector. During the public hearing they will also debate ways to increase support for young farmers in the future, once the Common Agricultural Policy is reformed again, to ensure generational renewal and viability of EU's rural areas.
