THE OBSERVERS IN THE EUROPEAN PARLIAMENT

Following the signature of the Treaty on the accession of Croatia to the European Union on 9 December 2011, the President of the European Parliament, after obtaining the agreement of the Conference of Presidents, invited the Croatian Parliament to appoint from among its own Members 12 observers, equal to the number of future seats in the European Parliament allocated to that State.

Their term of office commences on 1 April 2012 and will end with the accession of Croatia to the European Union.

Those observers shall take part in the proceedings of Parliament and shall have a right to speak in committees and political groups. They shall not have the right to vote or to stand for election to positions within Parliament. Their participation shall not have any legal effect on Parliament's proceedings.

Their treatment shall be assimilated to that of a Member of Parliament as regards the use of Parliament's facilities and the reimbursement of expenses incurred in their activities as observers.

(Rule 11 (1), (2) and (3) of Parliament's Rules of Procedure)
