3. Asks the Council to consult Parliament again if it intends to substantially amend the text approved by Parliament;

4. Instructs its President to forward its position to the Council, the Commission, the European Investment Bank and the national parliaments.
EXPLANATORY STATEMENT

On 15 October 2018, the EIB submitted to the Council a request to amend Article 4, 7, 9 and 11 of its Statute.

This follows the procedure laid down in Article 308 TFEU according to which “The Council acting unanimously in accordance with a special legislative procedure, at the request of the European Investment Bank and after consulting the European Parliament and the Commission [...] may amend the Statute of the Bank.”

The aim of the targeted amendments proposed by the EIB is to adapt the statute of the Bank to the new situation created by the withdrawal of the UK from the European Union.

The proposal reflects the future departure of the United Kingdom in the EIB statute by reducing the number of directors by one, from twenty-nine to twenty-eight, taking the United Kingdom out of the list of EIB shareholders and reducing the capital of the EIB by the amount of the share of the United Kingdom. This automatic adjustment is the immediate solution to the new situation created by the departure of the United Kingdom while in parallel discussions are ongoing on a replacement of UK share and a future increase of the EIB’s capital, which will require a decision of the Board of Governors of the EIB.

The amendments to the Statute proposed would also increase the number of alternate Directors of the EIB. Currently, there are nineteen alternate directors, some of whom are appointed jointly by groups of Member States. The EIB proposes to increase the number of alternate directors so that their number is at least equal to the number of Member States, with large member States appointing two alternate directors. This change is intended to ensure a sufficient number of alternate directors so that directors could be more effectively substituted in their absence.

Finally, the EIB proposes to extend qualified majority voting in the Board of Directors and the Board of Governors to three areas: the decision on the EIB’s Operational Plan, the appointment of members of the Management Committee and the approval of the Rules of Procedure.

Decisions need, in the Board of Governors, a majority of members representing at least 50% of the subscribed capital and, in the Board of Directors, a majority of at least one third of the members entitled to vote representing at least 50% of the subscribed capital.

A qualified majority will require, in all three areas of the decision on the EIB’s Operational Plan, the appointment of members of the Management Committee and the approval of the Rules of Procedure, eighteen votes in favour and 68% of the subscribed capital. This higher threshold is intended to counterbalance the larger weight of large Member States created by the departure of the United Kingdom.

Your rapporteur welcomes the proposal made by the EIB, which will enable to adjust the governance of the EIB to the withdrawal of the United Kingdom from the Union and enhance its efficiency and effectiveness.
She expects a swift agreement on the amendments to the EIB statute in the Council, so that adjustments can enter into force on time for the withdrawal of the United Kingdom from the Union.

OPINION OF THE COMMITTEE ON BUDGETS

for the Committee on Constitutional Affairs on the draft Council decision amending the Statute of the European Investment Bank (13166/2018 – C8-0464/2018 – 2018/0811(CNS))

SHORT JUSTIFICATION

On 15 October 2018, the EIB submitted to the Council a request to amend Articles 4, 7, 9 and 11 of its Statute.

This follows the procedure laid down in Article 308 TFEU according to which “The Council acting unanimously in accordance with a special legislative procedure, at the request of the European Investment Bank and after consulting the European Parliament and the Commission [...] may amend the Statute of the Bank.”

The aim of the targeted amendments proposed by the EIB is to adapt the statute of the Bank to the new situation created by the withdrawal of the UK from the European Union.

The proposal reflects the future departure of the United Kingdom in the EIB statute by, inter alia, reducing the capital of the EIB by the amount of the share of the United Kingdom. This automatic adjustment is the immediate solution to the new situation created by the departure of the United Kingdom. The Budget Committee notes that discussions are ongoing on a future increase of the EIB’s capital, which will require a decision of the Board of Governors of the EIB, so as to preserve the EIB’s ability to achieve its policy objectives.

The Committee on Budgets calls on the Committee on Constitutional Affairs, as the
