Amendment

1. Considers it essential that the EU fulfil, through its revised neighbourhood policy, the aspirations of those who fought for democracy and human rights, including the right to mobility; and provides further support in the democratisation process, in particular promoting fundamental rights, the rule of law, independence of judiciary, free and fair elections and the freedom of expression;

Or. en

Amendment 9
Salvatore Iacolino

Draft opinion
Paragraph 1 a (new)

Draft opinion

Amendment

1a. Reiterates that the EU's neighbourhood policy is based on the values of democracy, the rule of law, respect for human rights and fundamental freedoms, and on women's rights, the market economy and sustainable development;

Or. it

Amendment 10
Sylvie Guillaume

Draft opinion
Paragraph 1 a (new)

Draft opinion

Amendment

1a. Takes the view that the new neighbourhood policy should help to remove the obstacles to physical access to the EU which are too often faced by those in need of protection, making them even more vulnerable and potentially delivering them into the hands of networks of smugglers;

Or. fr

Amendment 11
Sylvie Guillaume

Draft opinion
Paragraph 1 b (new)

Draft opinion

Amendment

1b. Recalls, in this connection, that the Member States must uphold the principle of ‘non-refoulement’ and make every effort to facilitate the development of an accessible, fair and protective EU asylum system;

Or. fr

Amendment 12
Kyriacos Triantaphyllides, Marie-Christine Vergiat, Cornelia Ernst

Draft opinion
Paragraph 2

Draft opinion

Amendment

2. Believes that the review of the ENP creates an opportunity for the EU to effectively carry out its obligations as laid down in Articles 2, 3, 6, 8 and 21 of the TEU;

2. Believes that the review of the ENP creates an opportunity for the EU to effectively carry out its obligations as laid down in Articles 2, 3, 6, 8 and 21 of the TEU and to modify all aspects of its relations with the ENP countries – including the economic and social dimensions – accordingly, with a view to facilitating democratisation and the success of the ENP in those countries and the implementation of more humane migration policies consistent with the international standards the EU has agreed upon with those countries;

Or. fr

Amendment 13

Kyriacos Triantaphyllides, Marie-Christine Vergiat, Cornelia Ernst

Draft opinion

Paragraph 2 a (new)

Draft opinion

Amendment

2a. Expresses disappointment at the continued adoption in the EU countries of an approach consisting in outsourcing the management of immigration to the EU to third countries, in particular those on the southern shore of the Mediterranean;

Or. fr

Amendment 14

Anna Maria Corazza Bildt, Simon Busuttil

Draft opinion

Paragraph 2 a (new)

Draft opinion

Amendment

2a. Believes that, to support the recent developments towards democratic reforms and civil liberties in North Africa and the Mediterranean region, the EU should further open its market, starting with Egypt, Tunisia and the Transitional National Council of Libya;

Or. en

Amendment 15
Anna Maria Corazza Bildt, Simon Busuttil

Draft opinion
Paragraph 2 b (new)

Draft opinion

Amendment

2b. Takes the view that, in order to concretely support the aspirations for freedom in North Africa and the Mediterranean region, the EU should at the same time consider engaging a dialogue to encourage these countries to strengthen their regional relations, with the goal of removing obstacles to freedom of movement for people, goods and services among themselves;

Or. en

Amendment 16
Kyriacos Triantaphyllides, Marie-Christine Vergiat, Cornelia Ernst

Draft opinion
Paragraph 2 b (new)

Draft opinion

Amendment

2b. Deplores the fact that the new neighbourhood strategy proposed by the Commission continues to be based on the principle of making access to closer cooperation in other areas conditional on effective action to combat illegal immigration, inter alia through re-entry agreements that also apply to third country nationals;

Or. fr

Amendment 17
Kyriacos Triantaphyllides, Marie-Christine Vergiat, Cornelia Ernst

Draft opinion
Paragraph 2 c (new)

Draft opinion

Amendment

2c. Expresses disappointment, therefore, at the discrepancy between, on the one hand, the EU's statements of intent concerning the promotion of democracy and human rights in neighbouring countries and, on the other, the way in which these aspects are addressed in the context of migration policy; calls, therefore, for the EU to act on its statements about human rights and democracy by making the promotion of, and respect for, migrants' rights a key focus of the strategy it intends to develop with its neighbourhood partners, in particular those in the south;

Or. fr

Amendment 18
Kyriacos Triantaphyllides, Marie-Christine Vergiat, Cornelia Ernst

Draft opinion
Paragraph 2 d (new)

Draft opinion

Amendment 27
Ioan Enciu

Draft opinion
Paragraph 3 a (new)

Draft opinion

Amendment

3a. Expresses support for the Commission initiative (COM(2011) 292 final) to establish mobility partnerships with the countries of the southern Mediterranean and considers that these should focus on the conclusion of agreements on readmission and voluntary returns, improving cooperation with Frontex and combating organised crime, including the trafficking of human beings; calls similarly on the Commission to assess the possibility of extending such partnerships to also include the other third countries neighbouring the EU;

Or. ro

Amendment 28
Mariya Nedelcheva, Anna Maria Corazza Bildt

Draft opinion
Paragraph 3 a (new)

Draft opinion

Amendment

3a. Takes the view that the prevention of illegal immigration and trafficking in human beings and the fight against organised crime and illegal trafficking of migrants call for specific measures in the context of mobility partnerships; maintains, therefore, that coordinated border management, the adoption of international protection measures in the region – such as asylum – and effective cooperation between police forces are inherently interlinked;

Or. fr

Amendment 29
Antigoni Papadopoulou

Draft opinion
Paragraph 3 a (new)

Draft opinion

Amendment

3a Stresses that the establishment of partnership arrangements for mobility under the revised neighbourhood policy is a means of encouraging the controlled ingress of people from countries which were traditionally a source of illegal immigration;

Amendment

7a. Calls on the Commission and Council to launch, in tandem with Parliament, an in-depth debate on management of the external borders that reflects, in particular, the new situation in the countries of the southern Mediterranean and provides a fitting response to the humanitarian needs and democratic expectations of those countries; considers that this will require a rethink of the role of the European agencies competent for such matters, and especially that of Frontex;
