Recital B a (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

B a. whereas in order to offset the weak economic recovery, the new latent crisis trends and the increased divergence in the EU it is necessary to provide an adequate increase to the Union's budget to ensure the adequate level of resources in next year's budget with particular emphasis on the programs and projects aimed at boosting growth and decent employment, eradicating poverty, investing in smart, sustainable, green growth and development; underlines that contributions to this increase should result from an increase in the payments made by Member States with the highest GNI and the highest per capita income, correcting the current biased and unfair system of contribution keys; reiterates that it is imperative to increase support to Member States, especially those facing economic recession, for investment in infrastructure, social facilities, research, innovation and development;

Andrey Novakov

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 1 a (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

1 a. Emphasises that the 2017 EU budget should be able to: manage multiple crises simultaneously without doing so at the expense of needed instruments or stalling; remain flexible by focusing more funds in less but bigger priorities; have positive and negative priorities, whereby successful funding instruments are accelerated and ill-operating ones are being dissolved in order to redirect resources elsewhere;

Paragraph 22

Motion for a resolution

22. Reiterates its position in favour of an in-depth reform of the system of Union own resources, and gives the highest political importance to the work of the High Level Group on Own Resources created as part of the MFF 2014-2020 agreement; expects the Commission and the Council to take on board the final outcome, which is expected by the end of 2016, including any new candidate for own resources; recalls that the leading idea behind the own resources reform is to make the Union budget more stable, more sustainable, more predictable, and more autonomous, while also alleviating the burden of excessive spending from national budgets and improving transparency for the citizens;

Amendment

22. Opposes any idea of the Union having "own resources"; the collection to taxes is historically linked to the assent of the people to the sovereignty and legitimacy of the entity that collects it; acknowledges that the European Union benefits from no such legitimacy and therefore calls to the end of its usurpation of sovereignty;
