

2015/2342(INI)

20.10.2016

AMENDMENTS

1 - 250

Draft report

Agustín Díaz de Mera García Consuegra, Elena Valenciano
(PE589.425v02-00)

Addressing refugee and migrant movements: the role of the EU External Action
(2015/2342(INI))

Amendment 1
Notis Marias

Motion for a resolution
Citation 1 a (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

- having regard to the Protocol (No 1) of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union (TFEU) on the role of National Parliaments in the European Union,

Or. el

Amendment 2
Notis Marias

Motion for a resolution
Citation 1 b (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

- having regard to Protocol (No 2) of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union (TFEU) on the application of the principles of subsidiarity and proportionality,

Or. el

Amendment 3
Geoffrey Van Orden

Motion for a resolution
Citation 2

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

- having regard to the Global Strategy for the European Union's

deleted

Foreign and Security Policy published in June 2016,

Or. en

Amendment 4
Eduard Kukan

Motion for a resolution
Citation 8 a (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

– having regard to the conclusions of the Bratislava summit of 16 September 2016,

Or. en

Amendment 5
Eleni Theocharous, Bernd Lucke

Motion for a resolution
Citation 10 a (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

– *having regard to the Geneva
Conventions and their Additional Protocols regulating the conduct of armed conflict and seeking to limit its effects,*

Or. en

Amendment 6
Fabio Massimo Castaldo, Ignazio Corrao, Laura Ferrara

Motion for a resolution
Citation 12 a (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

– having regard to its resolution of 13 September 2016 on the EU Trust Fund for Africa: implications for development and humanitarian aid,

Or. en

Amendment 7

Tokia Saïfi

Motion for a resolution

Citation 13 a (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

- having regard to the joint communication of the Commission and the High Representative of the Union for Foreign Affairs and Security Policy of 18 November 2015 entitled ‘Review of the European Neighbourhood Policy’,

Or. fr

Amendment 8

Marietje Schaake, Hilde Vautmans

Motion for a resolution

Citation 13 a (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

- having regard to the Foreign Affairs Council conclusions on the future partnership priorities and compacts with Jordan and Lebanon on 17 October 2016,

Or. en

Amendment 9

Marietje Schaake, Hilde Vautmans

Motion for a resolution

Citation 13 b (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

- having regard to recent events in the Caribbean, where Hurricane Matthew left thousands of people displaced and in need of aid,

Or. en

Amendment 10
Geoffrey Van Orden

Motion for a resolution
Recital A

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

A. whereas human mobility is at an unprecedentedly high level, with 244 million international migrants, owing to various reasons, including the doubling of the world's population since 1960; whereas international migration occurs primarily within the same region and between developing countries;

deleted

Or. en

Amendment 11
Jean-Luc Schaffhauser

Motion for a resolution
Recital A

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

A. whereas human mobility is at an unprecedentedly high level, with 244 million international migrants, owing to various reasons, including the doubling of the world's population since 1960; whereas international migration occurs primarily within the same region and between developing countries;

A. whereas human mobility is at an unprecedentedly high level, with 244 million international migrants;

Amendment 12Heidi Hautala, Barbara Lochbihler, Jean Lambert*Motion for a resolution*Recital AMotion for a resolution*

A. whereas human mobility is at an unprecedentedly high level, with 244 million international migrants, owing to various reasons, including the doubling of the world's population since 1960; whereas international migration occurs primarily within the same region and between developing countries;

Amendment

A. whereas international migration occurs primarily within the same region and between developing countries; whereas the doubling of the world's population since 1960 has led to increased human mobility, which is now at an unprecedentedly high level of 244 million international migrants; whereas migrant women make up the majority of international migrants in Europe (52.4%) and North America (51.2%); whereas South-South migration flows continued to grow compared to South-North movements: in 2015, 90.2 million international migrants born in developing countries resided in other countries in the Global South, while 85.3 million born in the South resided in countries in the Global North;

Or. en

Amendment 13Fabio Massimo Castaldo, Ignazio Corrao, Laura Ferrara*Motion for a resolution*Recital AMotion for a resolution*

A. whereas human mobility is at an unprecedentedly high level, with 244 million international migrants, owing to various reasons, including the doubling of the world's population since 1960; whereas

Amendment

A. whereas human mobility is at an unprecedentedly high level, with 244 million international migrants, owing to various reasons, including the doubling of the world's population since 1960, the lack international migration occurs primarily within the same region and between developing countries; of serious and effective long-term development policies and the lack of political will to firmly tackle the structural problems underpinning those migration flows; whereas international migration occurs primarily within the same region and between developing countries;

Or. it

Amendment 14 Angel Dzhambazki

Motion for a resolution Recital A

Motion for a resolution

A. whereas human mobility is at an unprecedentedly high level, with 244 million international migrants, owing to various reasons, including the doubling of the world's population since 1960; whereas international migration occurs primarily within the same region and between developing countries;

Amendment

A. whereas human mobility is at an unprecedentedly high level, with 244 million international migrants, among which a continuously increasing share of economic migrants, owing to various reasons, including the doubling of the world's population since 1960; whereas international migration occurs primarily within the same region and between developing countries;

Or. en

Amendment 15 Eleni Theocharous, Bernd Lucke

Motion for a resolution Recital A

Motion for a resolution

A. whereas human mobility is at an unprecedentedly high level, with 244 million international migrants, owing to various reasons, including the doubling of the world's population since 1960; whereas international migration occurs primarily

Amendment

A. whereas human mobility is at an unprecedentedly high level, with 244 million international migrants, due to violent conflict, destabilisation, inequalities and poverty, including the doubling of the world's population since

within the same region and between developing countries;

1960; whereas international migration occurs primarily within the same region and between developing countries;

Or. en

Amendment 16

Hilde Vautmans, Ivo Vajgl, Petras Auštrevičius, Marietje Schaake, Javier Nart

Motion for a resolution

Recital A

Motion for a resolution

A. whereas human mobility is at an unprecedentedly high level, with 244 million international migrants, owing to various reasons, including the doubling of the world's population since 1960; whereas international migration occurs primarily within the same region and between developing countries;

Amendment

A. whereas human mobility is at an unprecedentedly high level, with 244 million international migrants, owing to various reasons; whereas international migration occurs primarily within the same region and between developing countries;

Or. en

Amendment 17

Marietje Schaake, Hilde Vautmans

Motion for a resolution

Recital A

Motion for a resolution

A. whereas human mobility is at an unprecedentedly high level, with 244 million international migrants, owing to various reasons, including the doubling of the world's population since 1960; whereas international migration occurs primarily within the same region and between developing countries;

Amendment

A. whereas human mobility is at an unprecedentedly high level, with 244 million international migrants, migrating both voluntarily and involuntarily, whereas such international migration occurs primarily within the same region and between developing countries;

Or. en

Amendment 18
Paavo Väyrynen

Motion for a resolution
Recital A a (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

Aa. whereas people should have the right to live their lives in their home country and in the region where they have been born and grown up and where they have their cultural and social roots;

Or. en

Amendment 19
Marina Albiol Guzmán
on behalf of the GUE/NGL Group
Lola Sánchez Caldentey, Stelios Kouloglou

Motion for a resolution
Recital A a (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

Aa. whereas migration is a human right enshrined in Article 13 of the UN declaration of Human rights;

Or. en

Amendment 20
Marina Albiol Guzmán
on behalf of the GUE/NGL Group
Lola Sánchez Caldentey, Stelios Kouloglou

Motion for a resolution
Recital A b (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

Ab. whereas the International Organization for Migration's Missing Migrants Projects indicates Europe is the world's most dangerous destination for migrants due to its closed border policies and its militarized approach towards migration;

Or. en

Amendment 21
Geoffrey Van Orden

Motion for a resolution
Recital B

Motion for a resolution

B. whereas 65 million people – including 40.8 million internally displaced persons (IDPs) and 21.3 million refugees – have been forcibly displaced because of conflicts, violence and human rights violations, further to people displaced on account of natural disasters;

Amendment

deleted

Or. en

Amendment 22
Enrique Guerrero Salom

Motion for a resolution
Recital B

Motion for a resolution

B. whereas 65 million people – including 40.8 million internally displaced persons (IDPs) and 21.3 million refugees – have been forcibly displaced because of conflicts, violence and human rights violations, further to people displaced on account of natural disasters;

Amendment

B. whereas in 2015, 65 million people – including 40.8 million internally displaced persons (IDPs) and 21.3 million refugees – have been forcibly displaced because of conflicts and violations of International Humanitarian Law, violence and human rights violations, further to people displaced on account of natural disasters;

Or. en

Amendment 23
Louis Michel, Hilde Vautmans

Motion for a resolution
Recital B

Motion for a resolution

B. whereas 65 million people – including 40.8 million internally displaced persons (IDPs) and 21.3 million refugees – have been forcibly displaced because of conflicts, violence and human rights violations, further to people displaced on account of natural disasters;

Amendment

B. whereas 65 million people – including 40.8 million internally displaced persons (IDPs) and 21.3 million refugees – have been forcibly displaced because of conflicts, violence, poor socioeconomic prospects, and human rights violations, further to people displaced on account of natural disasters;

Or. nl

Amendment 24
Marietje Schaake, Hilde Vautmans

Motion for a resolution
Recital B

Motion for a resolution

B. whereas 65 million people – including 40.8 million internally displaced persons (IDPs) and 21.3 million refugees – have been forcibly displaced because of conflicts, violence and human rights violations, further to people displaced on account of natural disasters;

Amendment

B. whereas the number of people who have been forcibly displaced because of conflicts, violence and human rights has reached an alarming 65 million people – of which 40.8 million internally displaced persons (IDPs) and 21.3 million refugees – in addition to those displaced as a result of natural disasters;

Or. en

Amendment 25
Fabio Massimo Castaldo, Ignazio Corrao, Laura Ferrara

Motion for a resolution
Recital B

Motion for a resolution

B. whereas 65 million people – including 40.8 million internally displaced persons (IDPs) and 21.3 million refugees – have been forcibly displaced because of conflicts, violence and human rights violations, further to people displaced on account of natural disasters;

Amendment

B. whereas 65 million people – including 40.8 million internally displaced persons (IDPs) and 21.3 million refugees – have been forcibly displaced because of conflicts, violence, human rights violations and climate change, further to people displaced on account of natural disasters;

Or. it

Amendment 26

Barbara Lochbihler, Heidi Hautala
on behalf of the Verts/ALE Group
Jean Lambert

Motion for a resolution

Recital B

Motion for a resolution

B. whereas 65 million people – including 40.8 million internally displaced persons (IDPs) and 21.3 million refugees – have been forcibly displaced because of conflicts, violence and human rights violations, further to people displaced on account of natural disasters;

Amendment

B. whereas 65 million people – including 40.8 million internally displaced persons (IDPs) and 21.3 million refugees – have been forcibly displaced because of conflicts, violence and human rights violations, further to people displaced on account of natural disasters and poverty;

Or. en

Amendment 27

Angel Dzhambazki

Motion for a resolution

Recital B

Motion for a resolution

B. whereas this challenge requires global solutions; whereas, however, 86 % of the world's refugees live in developing regions, with least developed countries

Amendment

B. whereas this challenge requires global solutions; whereas, however, 86% of the world's refugees live in developing regions, with least developed countries

hosting 26 % of the total; whereas the million people who arrived in the EU in 2015 represented 0.2 % of the EU population, compared with much higher percentages in neighbouring countries;

hosting 26% of the total; whereas the million refugees and economic migrants who arrived in the EU in 2015 represented 0.2% of the EU population, compared with much higher percentages in neighbouring countries;

Or. bg

Amendment 28
Enrique Guerrero Salom

Motion for a resolution
Recital B a (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

Ba. whereas the current data available underlines an increase of refugees of more than 50% In the last five years; whereas a number of elements contribute to this staggering number, including the fact that the voluntary repatriation of refugees has been the lowest since the 1980s, that the number of refugees offered local integration remains limited, and that resettlement numbers are steady at around 100,000 annually;

Or. en

Amendment 29
Geoffrey Van Orden

Motion for a resolution
Recital C

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

C. whereas this challenge requires global solutions; whereas, however, 86 % of the world's refugees live in developing regions, with least developed countries hosting 26 % of the total; whereas the million people who arrived in the EU in

C. whereas the high levels of migration require global solutions with 86 % of the world's refugees living in developing regions;

2015 represented 0.2 % of the EU population, compared with much higher percentages in neighbouring countries;

Or. en

Amendment 30
Jean-Luc Schaffhauser

Motion for a resolution
Recital C

Motion for a resolution

C. whereas this challenge requires global solutions; whereas, however, 86% of the world's refugees live in developing regions, with least developed countries hosting 26% of the total; whereas the million people who arrived in the EU in 2015 represented 0.2% of the EU population, compared with much higher percentages in neighbouring countries;

Amendment

C. whereas this challenge requires global solutions, the main aim of which should be to keep migrants in their countries of origin;

Or. fr

Amendment 31
Notis Marias

Motion for a resolution
Recital F

Motion for a resolution

C. whereas this challenge requires global solutions; whereas, however, 86 % of the world's refugees live in developing regions, with least developed countries hosting 26 % of the total; whereas the million people who arrived in the EU in 2015 represented 0.2 % of the EU population, compared with much higher percentages in neighbouring countries;

Amendment

C. whereas this challenge requires global solutions; whereas, however, 86 % of the world's refugees live in developing regions, with least developed countries hosting 26 % of the total;

Or. el

Amendment 32
Marietje Schaake, Hilde Vautmans

Motion for a resolution
Recital C

Motion for a resolution

C. whereas this challenge requires global solutions; whereas, however, 86 % of the world's refugees live in developing regions, with least developed countries hosting 26 % of the total; whereas the million people who arrived in the EU in 2015 represented 0.2 % of the EU population, compared with much higher percentages in neighbouring countries;

Amendment

C. whereas the challenge of dealing with both migrants and refugees requires global solutions, which are not only reactionary but anticipate possible future crises, whereas 86% of the world's refugees live in developing regions, with least developed countries hosting 26% of the total; whereas some of these countries host up to 20% of their population in refugee numbers; whereas the million people who arrived in the EU in 2015 represented only 0.2 % of the EU population;

Or. en

Amendment 33
Demetris Papadakis

Motion for a resolution
Recital C

Motion for a resolution

C. whereas this challenge requires global solutions; whereas, however, 86 % of the world's refugees live in developing regions, with least developed countries hosting 26 % of the total; whereas the million people who arrived in the EU in 2015 represented 0.2 % of the EU population, compared with much higher percentages in neighbouring countries;

Amendment

C. whereas this challenge requires a holistic approach based on international cooperation and synergies as well as global solutions; whereas, however, 86 % of the world's refugees live in developing regions, with least developed countries hosting 26 % of the total; whereas the million people who arrived in the EU in 2015 represented 0.2 % of the EU population, compared with much higher percentages in neighbouring countries;

Or. en

Amendment 34

Louis Aliot

Motion for a resolution

Recital C

Motion for a resolution

C. whereas this challenge requires global solutions; whereas, however, 86% of the world's refugees live in developing regions, with least developed countries hosting 26% of the total; whereas the million people who arrived in the EU in 2015 represented 0.2 % of the EU population, compared with much higher percentages in neighbouring countries;

Amendment

C. whereas this challenge requires global solutions; whereas, however, 86% of the world's refugees live in developing regions, with least developed countries hosting 26% of the total; whereas the million people who arrived in the EU in 2015 represented 0.2% of the EU population; whereas this substantial figure cannot be allowed to increase and whereas receiving the huge numbers of people arriving already poses serious problems;

Or. fr

Amendment 35

Philippe Juvin

Motion for a resolution

Recital C

Motion for a resolution

C. whereas this challenge requires global solutions; whereas, however, 86% of the world's refugees live in developing regions, with least developed countries hosting 26% of the total; whereas the million people who arrived in the EU in 2015 represented 0.2% of the EU population, compared with much higher percentages in neighbouring countries;

Amendment

C. whereas this challenge requires global solutions; whereas, however, 86 % of the world's refugees live in developing regions, with least developed countries hosting 26 % of the total; whereas the million people who arrived in the EU in 2015 represented 0.2 % of the EU population;

Or. fr

Amendment 36
Louis Michel, Hilde Vautmans

Motion for a resolution
Recital C

Motion for a resolution

C. whereas this challenge requires global solutions; whereas, however, 86 % of the world's refugees live in developing regions, with least developed countries hosting 26 % of the total; whereas the million people who arrived in the EU in 2015 represented 0.2 % of the EU population, compared with much higher percentages in neighbouring countries;

Amendment

C. whereas global challenges require global solutions and a multilateral approach; whereas, however, 86 % of the world's refugees live in developing regions, with least developed countries hosting 26 % of the total; whereas the million people who arrived in the EU in 2015 represented 0.2 % of the EU population, compared with much higher percentages in neighbouring countries;

Or. nl

Amendment 37
Eleni Theocharous

Motion for a resolution
Recital C

Motion for a resolution

C. whereas this challenge requires global solutions; whereas, however, 86 % of the world's refugees live in developing regions, with least developed countries hosting 26 % of the total; whereas the million people who arrived in the EU in 2015 represented 0.2 % of the EU population, compared with much higher percentages in neighbouring countries;

Amendment

C. whereas this challenge requires global, coordinated and concrete solutions; whereas, however, 86 % of the world's refugees live in developing regions, with least developed countries hosting 26 % of the total; whereas the million people who arrived in the EU in 2015 represented 0.2 % of the EU population, compared with much higher percentages in neighbouring countries;

Or. en

Amendment 38
Marina Albiol Guzmán
on behalf of the GUE/NGL Group

Stelios Kouloglou

Motion for a resolution

Recital C

Motion for a resolution

C. whereas this challenge requires global solutions; whereas, however, 86 % of the world's refugees live in developing regions, with least developed countries hosting 26 % of the total; whereas the million people who arrived in the EU in 2015 represented 0.2 % of the EU population, compared with much higher percentages in neighbouring countries;

Amendment

C. whereas this challenge requires global solutions; whereas, however, 86 % of the world's refugees live in impoverished regions, with the most impoverished countries hosting 26 % of the total; whereas the million people who arrived in the EU in 2015 represented 0.2 % of the EU population, compared with much higher percentages in neighbouring countries;

Or. en

Amendment 39

Heidi Hautala, Barbara Lochbihler, Jean Lambert

Motion for a resolution

Recital C

Motion for a resolution

C. whereas this challenge requires global solutions; whereas, however, 86 % of the world's refugees live in developing regions, with least developed countries hosting 26 % of the total; whereas the million people who arrived in the EU in 2015 represented 0.2 % of the EU population, compared with much higher percentages in neighbouring countries;

Amendment

C. whereas this challenge requires global solutions; whereas, however, 86 % of the world's refugees live in developing regions, with least developed countries hosting 26 % of the total; whereas the million people who arrived in the EU in 2015 represented 0.2 % of the EU population, compared with much higher percentages in neighbouring countries and in Europe in the 1990s;

Or. en

Amendment 40

Heidi Hautala, Barbara Lochbihler, Jean Lambert

Motion for a resolution
Recital C a (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

Ca. whereas a billion people could be displaced because of climate change by 2050, with more than 40 per cent of the global population living in areas of severe water stress; whereas already now, climate change has become a major root cause for migration; whereas economic losses from natural disasters are likely to increase dramatically from the $300 billion currently lost annually;

Or. en

Amendment 41
Elena Valenciano, Agustín Díaz de Mera García Consuegra

Motion for a resolution
Recital C a (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

Ca. whereas 6.7 million refugees are living in protracted displacement situations – estimated to last on average about 26 years – with a total lack of perspectives; whereas durable solutions to displacement remain unacceptably low and this makes it necessary to view forced displacement as a political and development challenge, not an exclusively humanitarian one;

Or. en

Amendment 42
Patrizia Toia

Motion for a resolution
Recital C a (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

Ca. whereas 6.7 million refugees are living in protracted displacement situations, estimated to last on average about 26 years, with a total lack of perspectives; whereas durable solutions to displacement remain unacceptably low and this makes it necessary to view forced displacement as a political and development challenge, not an exclusively humanitarian one;

Or. en

Amendment 43

Eleni Theocharous, Bernd Lucke

Motion for a resolution

Recital C a (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

Ca. whereas regional conflicts, political oppression and violence, abuse of human rights and poverty require bigger geopolitical solutions in order to foster sustainable stability and peace; whereas this is a challenge of the international community and not just the EU;

Or. en

Amendment 44

Louis Michel, Hilde Vautmans

Motion for a resolution

Recital C a (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

Ca. whereas concerted and firm EU action is the best guarantee of a sustainable approach to the migration and refugee phenomenon;

Or. nl

Amendment 45
Elena Valenciano, Enrique Guerrero Salom

Motion for a resolution
Recital C b (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

Cb. whereas no State can manage current movements of refugees on its own and neighbouring and transit countries, being mostly developing countries, are disproportionately affected by the current level of displaced people and suffer from stretched capacities and further destabilisation of their own social and economic cohesion and development;

Or. en

Amendment 46
Jean-Luc Schaffhauser

Motion for a resolution
Recital D

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

D. whereas refugees and migrants are legally two distinct categories but in reality often people are part of large-scale mixed movements of people – with political, economic, social, developmental, humanitarian and human rights implications that cut across borders; deleted

Or. fr

Amendment 47

Elena Valenciano, Enrique Guerrero Salom

Motion for a resolution

Recital D

Motion for a resolution

D. whereas refugees and migrants are legally two distinct categories but in reality often people are part of large-scale mixed movements of people – with political, economic, social, developmental, humanitarian and human rights implications that cut across borders;

Amendment

D. whereas refugees, internally displaced persons and migrants are legally distinct categories but in reality often people are part of large-scale mixed movements of people – with political, economic, social, developmental, humanitarian and human rights implications that cut across borders; whereas this legal distinction should not be taken to indicate that migration for economic reasons or for seeking a better life is less legitimate or noble than for fleeing persecution, thereby putting political and civic rights or freedom of religion above socio-economic rights; whereas in most cases both political and economic rights, among other core human rights, are threatened in situations of conflict, instability or unrest and continue to be challenged as a result of the forcible displacement;

Or. en

Amendment 48

Fabio Massimo Castaldo, Ignazio Corrao, Laura Ferrara

Motion for a resolution

Recital D

Motion for a resolution

D. whereas refugees and migrants are legally two distinct categories but in reality often people are part of large-scale mixed movements of people – with political, economic, social, developmental, humanitarian and human rights implications that cut across borders;

Amendment

D. whereas refugees and migrants are legally two distinct categories but in reality often people are part of large-scale mixed movements of people – with political, economic, social, developmental, humanitarian and human rights implications that cut across borders;

whereas the human dignity of all the people involved in these movements must be at the centre of all European policies concerning such matters; whereas, moreover, refugees and asylum-seekers must always be treated in accordance with their status and under no circumstances should they be denied the benefit of the rights stemming from the relevant international conventions and the Charter of Fundamental Rights of the European Union;

Or. it

Amendment 49
Geoffrey Van Orden

Motion for a resolution
Recital D

Motion for a resolution

D. whereas refugees and migrants are legally two distinct categories but in reality often people are part of large-scale mixed movements of people – with political, economic, social, developmental, humanitarian and human rights implications that cut across borders;

Amendment

D. whereas refugees, asylum seekers and economic migrants are distinct categories;

Or. en

Amendment 50
Notis Marias

Motion for a resolution
Recital Δ

Motion for a resolution

D. whereas refugees and migrants are legally two distinct categories but in reality often people are part of large-scale mixed movements of people – with

Amendment

D. whereas refugees and migrants are legally two distinct categories; political, economic, social, developmental, humanitarian and human rights implications that cut across borders;

Or. el

Amendment 51

Louis Aliot

Motion for a resolution

Recital D

Motion for a resolution

D. whereas refugees and migrants are legally two distinct categories but in reality often people are part of large-scale mixed movements of people – with political, economic, social, developmental, humanitarian and human rights implications that cut across borders;

Amendment

D. whereas refugees and migrants are legally two distinct categories; whereas the distinction should be observed and the legal status of the two categories should not be confused;

Or. fr

Amendment 52

Barbara Lochbihler, Heidi Hautala

on behalf of the Verts/ALE Group

Jean Lambert

Motion for a resolution

Recital D

Motion for a resolution

D. whereas refugees and migrants are legally two distinct categories but in reality often people are part of large-scale mixed movements of people – with political, economic, social, developmental, humanitarian and human rights implications that cut across borders;

Amendment

D. whereas refugees and migrants are legally two distinct categories but in reality often large-scale mixed movements of people occur because of a variety of political, economic, social, developmental and humanitarian reasons and merit a response consistent with respect for human dignity and in accordance with human rights law;

Or. en

Amendment 53
Angel Dzhambazki

Motion for a resolution
Recital D

Motion for a resolution

D. whereas refugees and migrants are legally two distinct categories but in reality often people are part of large-scale mixed movements of people – with political, economic, social, developmental, humanitarian and human rights implications that cut across borders;

Amendment

D. whereas refugees and economic migrants are legally two distinct categories but in reality often people are part of large-scale mixed movements of people – with political, economic, social, developmental, humanitarian and human rights implications that cut across borders;

Or. bg

Amendment 54
Eleni Theocharous

Motion for a resolution
Recital D a (new)

Motion for a resolution

Da. whereas migratory pressure is unfortunately the 'new norm' for both the EU and for partner countries and is part of a global displacement crisis; whereas responding together in a meaningful way requires a more coordinated, systematic and structured approach, matching the EU's interests and the interests of our partners;

Amendment

Or. en

Amendment 55
Eleni Theocharous, Bernd Lucke

Motion for a resolution
Recital D b (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

Db. whereas an effective way of helping large numbers of refugees and asylum seekers is in improving the conditions and offering assistance to conflict regions as well as neighbouring countries offering humanitarian assistance;

Or. en

Amendment 56

Mary Honeyball, Iratxe García Pérez

on behalf of the Committee on Women's Rights and Gender Equality

Motion for a resolution

Recital E

Motion for a resolution

E. whereas vulnerable people, in particular women, but also children, people with disabilities, people in need of urgent medical treatment and the elderly, who are particularly exposed to all kinds of dangers, namely violence, trafficking and abuse, should be urgently protected and granted humanitarian protection as part of their resettlement;

Amendment

E. whereas vulnerable groups such as unaccompanied minors and women; women heads of household; pregnant women; people with disabilities, people in need of urgent medical treatment and the elderly, are particularly exposed to sexual and gender-based violence, trafficking, are often subject to multiple harms at their country of origin, in transit and at their destination and should be urgently protected and granted humanitarian protection as a complement to resettlement;

Or. en

Amendment 57

Soraya Post

Motion for a resolution

Recital E

Motion for a resolution

E. whereas vulnerable people, in particular women, but also children, people with disabilities, people in need of urgent medical treatment and the elderly, who are particularly exposed to all kinds of dangers, namely violence, trafficking and abuse, should be urgently protected and granted humanitarian protection as part of their resettlement;

Amendment

E. whereas vulnerable people, in particular women, but also children, people with disabilities, people in need of urgent medical treatment and the elderly, who are particularly exposed to all kinds of dangers, namely violence, trafficking and abuse, should be urgently protected and granted humanitarian protection as part of their resettlement as well as by legal and safe passages to Europe;

Or. en

Amendment 58

Jean-Luc Schaffhauser

Motion for a resolution

Recital E

Motion for a resolution

E. whereas vulnerable people, in particular women, but also children, people with disabilities, people in need of urgent medical treatment and the elderly, who are particularly exposed to all kinds of dangers, namely violence, trafficking and abuse, should be urgently protected and granted humanitarian protection as part of their resettlement;

Amendment

E. whereas vulnerable people, in particular women, but also children, people with disabilities, people in need of urgent medical treatment and the elderly, who are particularly exposed to all kinds of dangers, namely violence, trafficking and abuse, should be urgently protected and granted humanitarian protection as part of their resettlement in or near their countries of origin;

Or. fr

Amendment 59

Marietje Schaake, Hilde Vautmans

Motion for a resolution

Recital E

Motion for a resolution

E. whereas vulnerable people, in particular women, but also children, people with disabilities, people in need of urgent medical treatment and the elderly, who are particularly exposed to all kinds of dangers, namely violence, trafficking and abuse, should be urgently protected and granted humanitarian protection as part of their resettlement;

Amendment

E. whereas vulnerable people, in particular women, but also children, people with disabilities, LGBTI people, people in need of urgent medical treatment and the elderly, who are particularly exposed to all kinds of bodily and psychological dangers, including violence, trafficking and abuse, should be urgently protected and granted humanitarian protection as part of their resettlement;

Or. en

Amendment 60

Marina Albiol Guzmán

on behalf of the GUE/NGL Group

Lola Sánchez Caldentey, Stelios Kouloglou

Motion for a resolution

Recital E

Motion for a resolution

E. whereas vulnerable people, in particular women, but also children, people with disabilities, people in need of urgent medical treatment and the elderly, who are particularly exposed to all kinds of dangers, namely violence, trafficking and abuse, should be urgently protected and granted humanitarian protection as part of their resettlement;

Amendment

E. whereas vulnerable people, in particular women, but also children, LGBTI people, people with disabilities, people in need of urgent medical treatment and the elderly, who are particularly exposed to all kinds of dangers, namely violence, trafficking and abuse, should be urgently protected and granted humanitarian protection as part of their resettlement;

Or. en

Amendment 61

Enrique Guerrero Salom

Motion for a resolution

Recital E

Motion for a resolution

E. whereas vulnerable people, in particular women, but also children, people with disabilities, people in need of urgent medical treatment and the elderly, who are particularly exposed to all kinds of dangers, namely violence, trafficking and abuse, should be urgently protected and granted humanitarian protection as part of their resettlement;

Amendment

E. whereas all along their journey, migrants are exposed to all kinds of dangers, namely violence, trafficking and abuse. This is particularly the case for vulnerable people, such as women, children, people with disabilities, people in need of urgent medical treatment and the elderly, who should be urgently protected and granted humanitarian protection as a complement to resettlement;

Or. en

Amendment 62

Barbara Lochbihler, Heidi Hautala
on behalf of the Verts/ALE Group
Jean Lambert

Motion for a resolution

Recital E

Motion for a resolution

E. whereas vulnerable people, in particular women, but also children, people with disabilities, people in need of urgent medical treatment and the elderly, who are particularly exposed to all kinds of dangers, namely violence, trafficking and abuse, should be urgently protected and granted humanitarian protection as part of their resettlement;

Amendment

E. whereas certain people, in particular women, children, people with disabilities, people in need of urgent medical treatment and the elderly, who are exposed to violence, exploitation, trafficking and abuse, should be urgently granted access to protection and referral mechanisms and provided access to a residence status and basic services including health care;

Or. en

Amendment 63

Hilde Vautmans, Ivo Vajgl, Petras Auštrevičius, Marietje Schaake, Javier Nart

Motion for a resolution

Recital E

Motion for a resolution

E. whereas vulnerable people, in particular women, but also children, people with disabilities, people in need of urgent medical treatment and the elderly, who are particularly exposed to all kinds of dangers, namely violence, trafficking and abuse, should be urgently protected and granted humanitarian protection as part of their resettlement;

Amendment

E. whereas vulnerable people, in particular women, but also (unaccompanied) minors, people with disabilities, people in need of urgent medical treatment and the elderly, who are particularly exposed to all kinds of dangers, namely violence, trafficking and abuse, should be urgently protected and granted humanitarian protection as part of their resettlement;

Or. en

Amendment 64
Angel Dzhambazki

Motion for a resolution
Recital E

Motion for a resolution

E. whereas vulnerable people, in particular women, but also children, people with disabilities, people in need of urgent medical treatment and the elderly, who are particularly exposed to all kinds of dangers, namely violence, trafficking and abuse, should be urgently protected and granted humanitarian protection as part of their resettlement;

Amendment

E. whereas vulnerable people, in particular women, but also children, people with disabilities, people in need of urgent medical treatment and the elderly, who are particularly exposed to all kinds of dangers, namely violence, trafficking and abuse, should receive extra protection while their applications for asylum are being considered;

Or. bg

Amendment 65
Louis Aliot

Motion for a resolution
Recital E

Motion for a resolution

E. whereas vulnerable people, in

Amendment

E. whereas vulnerable people, in particular women, but also children, people with disabilities, people in need of urgent medical treatment and the elderly, who are particularly exposed to all kinds of dangers, namely violence, trafficking and abuse, should be urgently protected and granted humanitarian protection as part of their resettlement;

particular women, but also children, people with disabilities, people in need of urgent medical treatment and the elderly, who are particularly exposed to all kinds of dangers, namely violence, trafficking and abuse, should be urgently protected and granted humanitarian protection in their countries of origin;

Or. fr

Amendment 66

Fabio Massimo Castaldo, Ignazio Corrao, Laura Ferrara

Motion for a resolution

Recital E

Motion for a resolution

E. whereas vulnerable people, in particular women, but also children, people with disabilities, people in need of urgent medical treatment and the elderly, who are particularly exposed to all kinds of dangers, namely violence, trafficking and abuse, should be urgently protected and granted humanitarian protection as part of their resettlement;

Amendment

E. whereas vulnerable people, such as women, children, people with disabilities, people in need of urgent medical treatment and the elderly, who are particularly exposed to all kinds of dangers, namely violence, trafficking and abuse, should be urgently protected and granted humanitarian protection as part of their resettlement;

Or. it

Amendment 67

Enrique Guerrero Salom, Doru-Claudian Frunzuliță, Norbert Neuser, Juan Fernando López Aguilar

Motion for a resolution

Recital E a (new)

Motion for a resolution

Ea. whereas humanitarian aid base on needs and the respect of the principles of humanity, neutrality, impartiality and independence, as well on the respect on international humanitarian law and the human rights provided by the Geneva Conventions and the additional protocols thereto, must be at the core of all EU external actions; whereas aid independence, i.e. aid that is free from any political, economic or security considerations or any type of discrimination, must prevail;

Amendment

Or. en

Amendment 68
Geoffrey Van Orden

Motion for a resolution
Recital E a (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

Ea. whereas the uncontrolled arrival of large number of people from different cultures may create difficulties in the host societies in terms of the impact on public services and on the way of life in certain areas, particularly where there is reluctance on the part of newcomers to integrate or where they are subject to the same political and cultural influences that they may have hoped to leave behind;

Or. en

Amendment 69
Heidi Hautala, Barbara Lochbihler, Jean Lambert

Motion for a resolution
Recital E a (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

Ea. whereas the European Court of Auditors has expressed serious doubts on the effectiveness of the EU's external migration spending, including the respect of projects for the human rights of migrants; whereas the Court also found that security and border protection were the predominant element in European migration spending;

Or. en

Amendment 70

Elena Valenciano, Agustín Díaz de Mera García Consuegra

Motion for a resolution

Recital E a (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

Ea. whereas the EU response has mobilised different internal and external instruments, but appears to have been excessively focussed on the short term and on reducing or stopping flows; whereas this short-term approach does not address the causes of forced displacement and migration flows neither the humanitarian needs of migrants;

Or. en

Amendment 71

Patrizia Toia

Motion for a resolution

Recital E a (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

Ea. whereas the EU response has mobilised different internal and external instruments, but appears to have been excessively focused on the short term and on reducing or stopping flows, whereas this short term approach does not address the causes of forced displacement and migration flows;

Or. en

Amendment 72
Heidi Hautala, Barbara Lochbihler, Jean Lambert

Motion for a resolution
Recital E b (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

Eb. whereas violent conflicts constitute the main root cause of forced displacement; whereas the EU response to the increased migratory flows did hardly focus on improving EU crisis management and conflict prevention tools, but focused largely on development instruments;*

Or. en

Amendment 73
Elena Valenciano, Enrique Guerrero Salom

Motion for a resolution
Recital E b (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

Eb. whereas the EU should consider to what extent its current policy increases the vulnerability of refugees and migrants and contributes to irregular flows;*

Or. en

Amendment 74
Patrizia Toia

Motion for a resolution
Recital E b (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

Eb. whereas according to Article 208*

of the Lisbon Treaty development assistance aims at reducing and eventually eradicating poverty in third countries;

Or. en

Amendment 75

Elena Valenciano, Enrique Guerrero Salom

Motion for a resolution

Recital E c (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

Ec. whereas so far the EU's response to migration flows has mainly put the burden of management on third countries at the expenses of internal and regional stability; whereas any EU political response that does not live up to its declared values and commitments severely impacts on its credibility -particularly in front of partners/third countries- thereby undermining its capacity to defend its interests and an effective external action;

Or. en

Amendment 76

Heidi Hautala, Barbara Lochbihler, Jean Lambert

Motion for a resolution

Recital E c (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

Ec. whereas economic development of countries leads to increased migration outflows as more people have the means to leave their country; whereas this trend can only be reverted in the long term;

Or. en

Amendment 77

Elena Valenciano, Agustín Díaz de Mera García Consuegra

Motion for a resolution

Recital E d (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

Ed. whereas according to Article 208 of the Lisbon Treaty development assistance aims at reducing and eventually eradicating poverty in third countries;

Or. en

Amendment 78

Louis Aliot

Motion for a resolution

Recital F

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

F. whereas the increase in human mobility, if managed in a safe, orderly, regular and responsible manner, can provide significant benefits, as recognised by the 2030 Agenda, but these are often largely underestimated; whereas the ageing of the European population requires, among other measures, relying on foreign workers in order to guarantee an adequate balance between active and retired people;

deleted

Or. fr

Amendment 79

György Hölvényi, László Tőkés

Motion for a resolution

Recital F

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

F. whereas the increase in human mobility, if managed in a safe, orderly, regular and responsible manner, can provide significant benefits, as recognised by the 2030 Agenda, but these are often largely underestimated; whereas the ageing of the European population requires, among other measures, relying on foreign workers in order to guarantee an adequate balance between active and retired people;

deleted

Or. hu

Amendment 80

Udo Voigt

Motion for a resolution

Recital F

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

F. whereas the increase in human mobility, if managed in a safe, orderly, regular and responsible manner, can provide significant benefits, as recognised by the 2030 Agenda, but these are often largely underestimated; whereas the ageing of the European population requires, among other measures, relying on foreign workers in order to guarantee an adequate balance between active and retired people;

F. whereas massive immigration is already posing a real threat to European security;

Or. de

Amendment 81

Jean-Luc Schaffhauser

Motion for a resolution

Recital F

Motion for a resolution

F. whereas the increase in human mobility, if managed in a safe, orderly, regular and responsible manner, can provide significant benefits, as recognised by the 2030 Agenda, but these are often largely underestimated; whereas the ageing of the European population requires, among other measures, relying on foreign workers in order to guarantee an adequate balance between active and retired people;

Amendment

F. whereas there should be no question of seeking to ‘replace’ ageing sections of the population in certain Member States by encouraging them to accept growing numbers of migrants;

Or. fr

Amendment 82
Georgios Epitideios

Motion for a resolution
Recital F

Motion for a resolution

F. whereas the increase in human mobility, if managed in a safe, orderly, regular and responsible manner, can provide significant benefits, as recognised by the 2030 Agenda, but these are often largely underestimated; whereas the ageing of the European population requires, among other measures, relying on foreign workers in order to guarantee an adequate balance between active and retired people;

Amendment

F. whereas the increase in human mobility, if managed in a safe, orderly, regular and responsible manner, can provide significant benefits, as recognised by the 2030 Agenda, but these are often largely underestimated; whereas the ageing of the European population requires, among other measures, relying on foreign workers who have a permit to reside legally in the countries of the EU in order to guarantee an adequate balance between active and retired people; a prerequisite for this to happen is to ensure work for young people in EU countries who have the same qualifications as foreigners from third countries;

Or. el

Amendment 83
László Tóké, György Hölvényi

Motion for a resolution
Recital F

Motion for a resolution

F. whereas the increase in human mobility, if managed in a safe, orderly, regular and responsible manner, can provide significant benefits, as recognised by the 2030 Agenda, but these are often largely underestimated; whereas the ageing of the European population requires, among other measures, relying on foreign workers in order to guarantee an adequate balance between active and retired people;

Amendment

F. whereas the increase in human mobility, if managed in a safe, orderly, regular and responsible manner, can provide significant benefits, as recognised by the 2030 Agenda, but these are often largely underestimated;

Or. hu

Amendment 84
Notis Marias

Motion for a resolution
Recital F

Motion for a resolution

F. whereas the increase in human mobility, if managed in a safe, orderly, regular and responsible manner, can provide significant benefits, as recognised by the 2030 Agenda, but these are often largely underestimated; whereas the ageing of the European population requires, among other measures, relying on foreign workers in order to guarantee an adequate balance between active and retired people;

Amendment

F. whereas the increase in human mobility, if managed in a safe, orderly, regular and responsible manner, can provide significant benefits, as recognised by the 2030 Agenda, but these are often largely underestimated;

Or. el

Amendment 85
Angel Dzhambazki

Motion for a resolution
Recital F

Motion for a resolution

F. whereas the increase in human mobility, if managed in a safe, orderly, regular and responsible manner, can provide significant benefits, as recognised by the 2030 Agenda, but these are often largely underestimated; whereas the ageing of the European population requires, among other measures, relying on foreign workers in order to guarantee an adequate balance between active and retired people;

Amendment

F. whereas the increase in human mobility, if managed in a safe, orderly, regular and responsible manner, can provide significant benefits, as recognised by the 2030 Agenda, but these are often largely underestimated;

Or. bg

Amendment 86
Geoffrey Van Orden

Motion for a resolution
Recital F

Motion for a resolution

F. whereas the increase in human mobility, if managed in a safe, orderly, regular and responsible manner, can provide significant benefits, as recognised by the 2030 Agenda, but these are often largely underestimated; whereas the ageing of the European population requires, among other measures, relying on foreign workers in order to guarantee an adequate balance between active and retired people;

Amendment

F. whereas migration, if managed in a safe, orderly, regular and responsible manner, can provide significant benefits, as recognised by the 2030 Agenda, but these are often largely underestimated;

Or. en

Amendment 87
Marietje Schaake

Motion for a resolution
Recital F

Motion for a resolution

F. whereas the increase in human mobility, if managed in a safe, orderly, regular and responsible manner, can provide significant benefits, as recognised by the 2030 Agenda, but these are often largely underestimated; whereas the ageing of the European population requires, among other measures, relying on foreign workers in order to guarantee an adequate balance between active and retired people;

Amendment

F. whereas the increase in human mobility, if managed in a safe, orderly, regular and responsible and pre-emptive manner can provide significant benefits, as recognised by the 2030 Agenda, to host countries and migrants alike; whereas these benefits are often largely underestimated; whereas the ageing of the European population requires, among other measures, relying on foreign workers in order to guarantee an adequate balance between active and retired people;

Or. en

Amendment 88
Barbara Lochbihler, Heidi Hautala
on behalf of the Verts/ALE Group
Jean Lambert

Motion for a resolution
Recital F

Motion for a resolution

F. whereas the increase in human mobility, if managed in a safe, orderly, regular and responsible manner, can provide significant benefits, as recognised by the 2030 Agenda, but these are often largely underestimated; whereas the ageing of the European population requires, among other measures, relying on foreign workers in order to guarantee an adequate balance between active and retired people;

Amendment

F. whereas the increase in human mobility, if managed in a safe, orderly, regular and responsible manner, can provide significant benefits, as recognised by the 2030 Agenda, but often underestimated, and can mitigate migrants' and refugees' exposure to harm; whereas the ageing of the European population requires, among other measures, relying on foreign workers in order to guarantee an adequate balance between active and retired people;

Or. en

Amendment 89
Louis Michel, Hilde Vautmans

Motion for a resolution
Recital F

Motion for a resolution

F. whereas the increase in human mobility, if managed in a safe, orderly, regular and responsible manner, can provide significant benefits, as recognised by the 2030 Agenda, but these are often largely underestimated; whereas the ageing of the European population requires, among other measures, relying on foreign workers in order to guarantee an adequate balance between active and retired people;

Amendment

F. whereas the increase in human mobility, if managed in a safe, orderly, regular and responsible manner, can provide significant benefits, as recognised by the 2030 Agenda, but these are often largely underestimated; whereas the EU must produce workable solutions, including making use of foreign workers, in anticipation of increasing European population ageing, in order to guarantee a balance between the active and non-active populations in the EU;

Or. nl

Amendment 90
Enrique Guerrero Salom, Doru-Claudian Frunzulică, Juan Fernando López Aguilar, Norbert Neuser

Motion for a resolution
Recital F

Motion for a resolution

F. whereas the increase in human mobility, if managed in a safe, orderly, regular and responsible manner, can provide significant benefits, as recognised by the 2030 Agenda, but these are often largely underestimated; whereas the ageing of the European population requires, among other measures, relying on foreign workers in order to guarantee an adequate balance between active and retired people;

Amendment

F. whereas the increase in human mobility, if managed in a safe, orderly, regular and responsible manner, can provide significant benefits, as recognised by the 2030 Agenda, but these are often largely underestimated; whereas the ageing of the European population requires, among other measures, relying on foreign workers in order to guarantee an adequate balance between persons in remunerative work and retired people;

Or. en

Amendment 91
Philippe Juvin

Motion for a resolution
Recital F

Motion for a resolution

F. whereas the increase in human mobility, if managed in a safe, orderly, regular and responsible manner, can provide significant benefits, as recognised by the 2030 Agenda, but these are often largely underestimated; whereas the ageing of the European population requires, among other measures, relying on foreign workers in order to guarantee an adequate balance between active and retired people;

Amendment

F. whereas the increase in human mobility, if managed in a safe, orderly, regular and responsible manner, can provide significant benefits, as recognised by the 2030 Agenda, but these are often largely underestimated; whereas the ageing of the European population may prompt Member States to provide for the recruitment of foreign workers in order to meet specific labour-market needs;

Or. fr

Amendment 92
Bernd Lucke

Motion for a resolution
Recital F

Motion for a resolution

F. whereas the increase in human mobility, if managed in a safe, orderly, regular and responsible manner, can provide significant benefits, as recognised by the 2030 Agenda, but these are often largely underestimated; whereas the ageing of the European population requires, among other measures, relying on foreign workers in order to guarantee an adequate balance between active and retired people;

Amendment

F. whereas the increase in human mobility, if managed in a safe, orderly, regular and responsible manner, can provide significant benefits, as recognised by the 2030 Agenda, but these are often largely overestimated; whereas the ageing of the European population requires, among other measures, relying on foreign workers in order to guarantee an adequate balance between active and retired people;

Or. en

Amendment 93
Elena Valenciano, Agustín Díaz de Mera García Consuegra

Motion for a resolution
Recital F a (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

Fa. whereas mobility of people represents a great factor of growth for countries, including the EU, through the provision of adequate facilities (housing, education, languages) by fostering public and private sectors investments; whereas positive narratives should be developed to depict migration movements not just as a challenge to security and stability because of uncontrolled movements of people, but also as an opportunity for host countries, as this can also counter extremism and populism;

Or. en

Amendment 94
Patrizia Toia

Motion for a resolution
Recital F a (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

Fa. whereas mobility of people represents a great factor of growth for countries, including the EU, through the provision of adequate facilities (housing, education, languages) by fostering public and private sectors investments; whereas positive narratives should be developed to depict migration flows not just as a challenge to security and stability because of uncontrolled movements of people, but also as an opportunity for host countries, as this can also counter extremism and populism;

Or. en

Amendment 95
Marietje Schaake

Motion for a resolution
Recital F a (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

Fa. whereas on 29 November 2015, EU and Turkish leaders concluded an agreement under which Turkey would receive up to €3 billion in aid, in addition to other measures, in return for stemming the flow of (Syrian) refugees from its borders; whereas this informal agreement has not been made public and the European Parliament did not play a role in the process of concluding the 'deal' or statement with Turkey;

Or. en

Amendment 96
Enrique Guerrero Salom, Doru-Claudian Frunzulică, Juan Fernando López Aguilar, Norbert Neuser

Motion for a resolution
Recital F a (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

Fa. whereas the EU has a responsibility to supports its implementing partners to carry out rapid, effective, quality assistance and protection and be accountable to affected-population; in that regard the EU's partners require timely and predictable funding, decisions on allocations of funding for changing or new priorities should give them sufficient time for planning and mitigation measures;

Or. en

Amendment 97

Bernd Lucke

Motion for a resolution

Recital F a (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

Fa. whereas due to cultural differences and a widespread lack of proper qualifications and language skills refugees and migrants from developing countries are not the solution for the demographic problem of the social security systems within Europe; whereas even successful integration in the labour market would only widen the contributor base to the same extent as it generates new claims;

Or. en

Amendment 98

Barbara Lochbihler, Heidi Hautala

on behalf of the Verts/ALE Group

Jean Lambert

Motion for a resolution

Recital F a (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

Fa. whereas developing a human rights-based migration framework, allowing for the creation and expansion of regular migration channels, including resettlement opportunities for refugees, will enable the EU to draw on the economic and social benefits of mobility;

Or. en

Amendment 99

Hilde Vautmans, Ivo Vajgl, Petras Auštrevičius, Marietje Schaake, Javier Nart

Motion for a resolution

Recital F a (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

Fa. whereas the ongoing food and nutrition crisis in the Sahel causes the erosion of people's resilience, aggravated by quick succession of crises, the absence of basic services and the conflicts in the region; whereas this situation will cause more migration;

Or. en

Amendment 100

Philippe Juvin

Motion for a resolution

Recital F a (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

Fa. whereas if the Union wishes to introduce a common migration policy it must begin by controlling its external borders effectively;

Or. fr

Amendment 101

Miguel Urbán Crespo

Motion for a resolution

Recital F a (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

Fa. whereas the most efficient way to fight trafficking and smuggling of persons is to provide safe and legal access to the EU;

Amendment 102

Barbara Lochbihler, Heidi Hautala
on behalf of the Verts/ALE Group
Jean Lambert

Motion for a resolution
Recital F b (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

Fb. whereas the successful implementation of a human rights-based migration policy requires to challenge negative perceptions of migration and conceptualisations of migration that underpin counterproductive and ineffective security policies, which result in the criminalisation and stigmatisation of migrants, and which have fostered the rise of xenophobia within the European Union;

Or. en

Amendment 103

Enrique Guerrero Salom

Motion for a resolution
Recital F b (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

Fb. whereas decentralised cooperation can help get a better grasp of the needs and cultures of IDPs, migrants and refugees and raise awareness of the local population about the challenges faced by migrants in their countries of origin; whereas local and regional European governments can play a key role in helping address these root causes, through capacity-building;

Amendment 104

Hilde Vautmans, Ivo Vajgl, Petras Auštrevičius, Marietje Schaake

Motion for a resolution

Recital F b (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

Fb. whereas the conditions in "the Jungle" in Calais are inhuman, the camp is solely administered by volunteers and more than 1000 children are there trying to survive unaccompanied; whereas the French authorities threaten to break up the camp, while human traffickers are waiting to take abuse of the situation;

Or. en

Amendment 105

Bernd Lucke

Motion for a resolution

Recital F b (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

Fb. whereas humanitarian assistance in conflict and neighbouring regions and countries leads to an improvement of these countries; whereas the emigration of skilled workers from these countries has the opposite effect;

Or. en

Amendment 106

Bernd Lucke

Motion for a resolution

Recital F c (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

Fc. whereas the track record of integrating Turkish or Arabic immigrant groups is very disappointing in a number of Member States, whereas in an economically successful Member State like Germany with free public education between 25% and 30% of the citizens with a migratory background from Turkey or the Middle East (first or second generation) do not have any educational degree at all, whereas according to recent data between 25% and 35% of these people are unemployed and up to 35% are dependent on social welfare;

Or. en

Amendment 107

Marina Albiol Guzmán

on behalf of the GUE/NGL Group

Lola Sánchez Caldentey, Stelios Kouloglou

Motion for a resolution

Subheading 1 a (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

1. Rejects any approach towards migration based on treating it as a problem, not granting that migrants' human rights are respected and ignoring that migration is a phenomenon that has occurred throughout human history and contributes positively to the development of societies;

Or. en

Amendment 108

Hilde Vautmans, Ivo Vajgl, Petras Auštrevičius, Marietje Schaake, Javier Nart

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph -1 (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

-1. Calls on the Council and Commission to take action on the scandalous situation in "the Jungle" in Calais; asks the Council to accommodate the refugees and asylum seekers from that camp in a human way; urges the Commission to come with an inclusive strategy for unaccompanied children including a EU-database of fingerprints, pictures and place of residence;

Or. en

Amendment 109
Louis Aliot

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 1

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

1. Underlines the fact that we are witnessing in today's world an unprecedented level of human mobility, and stresses that one of the most urgent actions the international community must undertake is the strengthening of a common response to address the challenges and opportunities that this phenomenon represents; stresses that this response must be guided by the full protection of the rights and dignity of everyone forced by any circumstance to flee their homes in search of a better life; underlines that, though their treatment is governed by separate legal frameworks, refugees and migrants have the same universal human rights and fundamental freedoms, which need to be safeguarded regardless of their status; recalls that the EU must abide by its values and principles in all common policies and promote them

deleted

in its external relations;

Or. fr

Amendment 110
Geoffrey Van Orden

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 1

Motion for a resolution

1. Underlines the fact that we are witnessing in today's world an unprecedented level of human mobility, and stresses that one of the most urgent actions the international community must undertake is the strengthening of a common response to address the challenges and opportunities that this phenomenon represents; stresses that this response must be guided by the full protection of the rights and dignity of everyone forced by any circumstance to flee their homes in search of a better life; underlines that, though their treatment is governed by separate legal frameworks, refugees and migrants have the same universal human rights and fundamental freedoms, which need to be safeguarded regardless of their status; recalls that the EU must abide by its values and principles in all common policies and promote them in its external relations;

Amendment

1. That high levels of international migration often require a common response to address the challenges and opportunities that this phenomenon represents; recalls that member states abiding by democratic values and principles and international law, are entitled to respond to the crisis as they see fit and notes the recent referendum in Hungary as evidence that not all citizens have the same response to a crisis;

Or. en

Amendment 111
Enrique Guerrero Salom, Doru-Claudian Frunzulică, Juan Fernando López Aguilar, Norbert Neuser

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 1

Motion for a resolution

1. Underlines the fact that we are witnessing in today's world an unprecedented level of human mobility, and stresses that one of the most urgent actions the international community must undertake is the strengthening of a common response to address the challenges and opportunities that this phenomenon represents; stresses that this response must be guided by the full protection of the rights and dignity of everyone forced by any circumstance to flee their homes in search of a better life; underlines that, though their treatment is governed by separate legal frameworks, refugees and migrants have the same universal human rights and fundamental freedoms, which need to be safeguarded regardless of their status; recalls that the EU must abide by its values and principles in all common policies and promote them in its external relations;

Amendment

1. Underlines that we are witnessing in today's world an unprecedented level of human mobility and that one of the most urgent actions the international community must urgently undertake is the strengthening of a common response to address the challenges and opportunities that this phenomenon represents; stresses that this response must be guided by the full protection of the rights and dignity of everyone forced by any circumstance to flee their homes in search of a better and safer life, ; underlines that, though their treatment is governed by separate legal frameworks, refugees and migrants (including migrants in an irregular situation) have the same universal human rights and fundamental freedoms, which need to be safeguarded regardless of their legal status; recalls that the EU must abide by its values and principles in all common policies and promote them in its external relations, recognises that the effects of externalisation of EU migration and asylum policies and the lack of legal avenues to the EU are worrying, and translate in significant abuses at all stages of the migratory and refugee movement; recalls that the external dimension of the EU asylum and migration agenda should be rooted in solidarity and in the principle of protection of the fundamental rights;

Or. en

Amendment 112
Tokia Saïfi

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 1

Motion for a resolution

1. Underlines the fact that we are

PE592.248v02-00

Amendment

1. Underlines the fact that we are

54/137

AM\1107657EN.docx

witnessing in today's world an unprecedented level of human mobility, and stresses that one of the most urgent actions the international community must undertake is the strengthening of a common response to address the challenges and opportunities that this phenomenon represents; stresses that this response must be guided by the full protection of the rights and dignity of everyone forced by any circumstance to flee their homes in search of a better life; underlines that, though their treatment is governed by separate legal frameworks, refugees and migrants have the same universal human rights and fundamental freedoms, which need to be safeguarded regardless of their status; recalls that the EU must abide by its values and principles in all common policies and promote them in its external relations;

witnessing in today's world an unprecedented level of human mobility, and stresses that one of the most urgent actions the international community must undertake is the strengthening of a common response to address the challenges and opportunities that this phenomenon represents; stresses that this response must be guided by the full protection of the rights and dignity of everyone forced by any circumstance to flee their homes in search of a better life; underlines that, though their treatment is governed by separate legal frameworks, refugees and migrants have the same universal human rights and fundamental freedoms, which need to be safeguarded regardless of their status; recalls that the EU must abide by its values and principles in all common policies and promote them in its external relations; highlights, in that regard, the need for the EU's external policies to be consistent with each other and with other policies with an external dimension, and to pursue the objectives set out in Article 21 of the Treaty on European Union, particularly in relation to migration policy;

Or. fr

Amendment 113
Jerzy Buzek

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 1

Motion for a resolution

1. Underlines the fact that we are witnessing in today's world an unprecedented level of human mobility, and stresses that one of the most urgent actions the international community must undertake is the strengthening of a common response to address the challenges and opportunities that this phenomenon

Amendment

1. Underlines the fact that we are witnessing in today's world an unprecedented level of human mobility, and stresses that one of the most urgent actions the international community must undertake is the strengthening of a common response to address the challenges and opportunities that this phenomenon

represents; stresses that this response must be guided by the full protection of the rights and dignity of everyone forced by any circumstance to flee their homes in search of a better life; underlines that, though their treatment is governed by separate legal frameworks, refugees and migrants have the same universal human rights and fundamental freedoms, which need to be safeguarded regardless of their status; recalls that the EU must abide by its values and principles in all common policies and promote them in its external relations; represents; stresses that this response must be founded on the principle of solidarity with the consent of all EU Member States and taking into account demographic trends and Europe's long-term prospects; stresses that this response must be guided by the full protection of the rights and dignity of everyone forced by any circumstance to flee their homes in search of a better life; underlines that, though their treatment is governed by separate legal frameworks, refugees and migrants have the same universal human rights and fundamental freedoms, which need to be safeguarded regardless of their status; recalls that the EU must abide by its values and principles in all common policies and promote them in its external relations;

Or. en

Amendment 114 Demetris Papadakis

Motion for a resolution Paragraph 1

Motion for a resolution

1. Underlines the fact that we are witnessing in today's world an unprecedented level of human mobility, and stresses that one of the most urgent actions the international community must undertake is the strengthening of a common response to address the challenges and opportunities that this phenomenon represents; stresses that this response must be guided by the full protection of the rights and dignity of everyone forced by any circumstance to flee their homes in search of a better life; underlines that, though their treatment is governed by separate legal frameworks, refugees and migrants have the same universal human rights and fundamental freedoms, which need to be safeguarded regardless of their

Amendment

1. Underlines the fact that we are witnessing in today's world an unprecedented level of human mobility, and stresses that one of the most urgent actions the international community must undertake is the strengthening of a common response to address the challenges and opportunities that this phenomenon represents; believes that the response to the migration crisis in and around Europe should not focus only on a security-based approach; stresses that this response must be based on solidarity and guided by the full protection of the rights and dignity of everyone forced by any circumstance to flee their homes in search of a better life; underlines that, though their treatment is governed by separate legal frameworks, status; recalls that the EU must abide by its values and principles in all common policies and promote them in its external relations;

refugees and migrants have the same universal human rights and fundamental freedoms, which need to be safeguarded regardless of their status; recalls that the EU must abide by its values and principles in all common policies and promote them in its external relations;

Or. en

Amendment 115
Jean-Luc Schaffhauser

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 1

Motion for a resolution

1. Underlines the fact that we are witnessing in today's world an unprecedented level of human mobility, and stresses that one of the most urgent actions the international community must undertake is the strengthening of a common response to address the challenges and opportunities that this phenomenon represents; stresses that this response must be guided by the full protection of the rights and dignity of everyone forced by any circumstance to flee their homes in search of a better life; underlines that, though their treatment is governed by separate legal frameworks, refugees and migrants have the same universal human rights and fundamental freedoms, which need to be safeguarded regardless of their status; recalls that the EU must abide by its values and principles in all common policies and promote them in its external relations;

Amendment

1. Underlines the fact that we are witnessing in today's world an unprecedented level of human mobility, and stresses that one of the most urgent actions the international community must undertake is to ensure stability in the societies of the Member States, which are not capable of integrating such large numbers of migrants – a fact demonstrated by numerous well-reported incidents in Germany over the past year; emphasises that refugees should be helped to have a decent life in the closest possible proximity to their countries of origin, so they can return home when the conditions are right for them to do so; points out that, rather than disrupting entire societies, the aim should be to support refugees with a view to the reconstruction or development of their countries of origin;

Or. fr

Amendment 116
Charles Goerens

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 1

Motion for a resolution

1. Underlines the fact that we are witnessing in today's world an unprecedented level of human mobility, and stresses that one of the most urgent actions the international community must undertake is the strengthening of a common response to address the challenges and opportunities that this phenomenon represents; stresses that this response must be guided by the full protection of the rights and dignity of everyone forced by any circumstance to flee their homes in search of a better life; underlines that, though their treatment is governed by separate legal frameworks, refugees and migrants have the same universal human rights and fundamental freedoms, which need to be safeguarded regardless of their status; recalls that the EU must abide by its values and principles in all common policies and promote them in its external relations;

Amendment

1. Underlines the fact that we are witnessing in today's world an unprecedented level of human mobility, and stresses that one of the most urgent actions the international community must undertake is the strengthening of a common response based on the principle of solidarity to address the challenges and opportunities that this phenomenon represents; stresses that this response must be guided by the full protection of the rights and dignity of everyone forced by any circumstance to flee their homes in search of a better life; underlines that, though their treatment is governed by separate legal frameworks, refugees and migrants have the same universal human rights and fundamental freedoms, which need to be safeguarded regardless of their status; recalls that the EU must abide by its values and principles in all common policies and promote them in its external relations in line with Chancellor Merkel's open-door policy towards refugees;

Or. en

Amendment 117
Notis Marias

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 1

Motion for a resolution

1. Underlines the fact that we are witnessing in today's world an unprecedented level of human mobility, and stresses that one of the most urgent actions the international community must undertake is the strengthening of a

Amendment

1. Underlines the fact that we are witnessing in today's world an unprecedented level of human mobility, and stresses that one of the most urgent actions the international community must undertake is the strengthening of a common response to address the challenges and opportunities that this phenomenon represents; stresses that this response must be guided by the full protection of the rights and dignity of everyone forced by any circumstance to flee their homes in search of a better life; underlines that, though their treatment is governed by separate legal frameworks, refugees and migrants have the same universal human rights and fundamental freedoms, which need to be safeguarded regardless of their status; recalls that the EU must abide by its values and principles in all common policies and promote them in its external relations;

common response to address the challenges that this phenomenon represents; stresses that this response must be guided by the protection of the rights and dignity both of everyone forced by any circumstance to flee their homes in search of a better life and of those who host them; emphasises that the treatment of migrants and refugees is governed by different legal frameworks; recalls that the EU must abide by its values and principles in all common policies and promote them in its external relations;

Or. el

Amendment 118 Angel Dzhambazki

Motion for a resolution Paragraph 1

Motion for a resolution

1. Underlines the fact that we are witnessing in today's world an unprecedented level of human mobility, and stresses that one of the most urgent actions the international community must undertake is the strengthening of a common response to address the challenges and opportunities that this phenomenon represents; stresses that this response must be guided by the full protection of the rights and dignity of everyone forced by any circumstance to flee their homes in search of a better life; underlines that, though their treatment is governed by separate legal frameworks, refugees and migrants have the same universal human rights and fundamental freedoms, which need to be safeguarded regardless of their status; recalls that the EU must abide by its values and principles in all common

Amendment

1. Underlines the fact that we are witnessing in today's world an unprecedented level of human mobility, and especially an increase in economic migration, and stresses that one of the most urgent actions the international community must undertake is the strengthening of a common response to address the challenges and opportunities that this phenomenon represents; stresses that this response must be guided by the full protection of the rights and dignity of everyone forced by any circumstance to flee their homes in search of a better life; underlines that, though their treatment is governed by separate legal frameworks, refugees and migrants have the same universal human rights and fundamental freedoms, which need to be safeguarded regardless of their status; recalls that the policies and promote them in its external relations;

EU must abide by its values and principles in all common policies and promote them in its external relations;

Or. bg

Amendment 119

Fabio Massimo Castaldo, Ignazio Corrao, Laura Ferrara

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 1

Motion for a resolution

1. Underlines the fact that we are witnessing in today's world an unprecedented level of human mobility, and stresses that one of the most urgent actions the international community must undertake is the strengthening of a common response to address the challenges and opportunities that this phenomenon represents; stresses that this response must be guided by the full protection of the rights and dignity of everyone forced by any circumstance to flee their homes in search of a better life; underlines that, though their treatment is governed by separate legal frameworks, refugees and migrants have the same universal human rights and fundamental freedoms, which need to be safeguarded regardless of their status; recalls that the EU must abide by its values and principles in all common policies and promote them in its external relations;

Amendment

1. Underlines the fact that we are witnessing in today's world an unprecedented level of human mobility, and stresses that one of the most urgent actions the international community must undertake is the strengthening of a common response to address the challenges and opportunities that this phenomenon represents; stresses that this response must be guided by the full protection of the rights and dignity of everyone forced by any circumstance to flee their homes in search of a better life; underlines that, though their treatment is governed by separate legal frameworks, refugees and migrants have the same universal human rights and fundamental freedoms, which need to be safeguarded regardless of their status; recalls that the EU must abide by its values and principles in all common policies and promote them in its external relations and calls for greater consistency in this regard;

Or. it

Amendment 120

László Tóké, György Hölvényi

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 1

Motion for a resolution

1. Underlines the fact that we are witnessing in today's world an unprecedented level of human mobility, and stresses that one of the most urgent actions the international community must undertake is the strengthening of a common response to address the challenges and opportunities that this phenomenon represents; stresses that this response must be guided by the full protection of the rights and dignity of everyone forced by any circumstance to flee their homes in search of a better life; underlines that, though their treatment is governed by separate legal frameworks, refugees and migrants have the same universal human rights and fundamental freedoms, which need to be safeguarded regardless of their status; recalls that the EU must abide by its values and principles in all common policies and promote them in its external relations;

Amendment

1. Underlines the fact that we are witnessing in today's world an unprecedented level of human mobility, and stresses that one of the most urgent actions the international community must undertake is the strengthening of a common response to address the challenges and opportunities that this phenomenon represents; stresses that this response must be guided by the full protection of rights and dignity, and the provision of assistance in their home country, for everyone forced by any circumstance to flee their homes in search of a better life; underlines that, though their treatment is governed by separate legal frameworks, refugees and migrants have the same universal human rights and fundamental freedoms, which need to be safeguarded regardless of their status; recalls that the EU must abide by its values and principles in all common policies and promote them in its external relations;

Or. hu

Amendment 121

György Hölvényi, László Tőkés

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 1

Motion for a resolution

1. Underlines the fact that we are witnessing in today's world an unprecedented level of human mobility, and stresses that one of the most urgent actions the international community must undertake is the strengthening of a common response to address the challenges and opportunities that this phenomenon represents; stresses that this response must be guided by the full protection of the rights and dignity of everyone forced by any circumstance to flee their homes in search of a better life; underlines that, though their treatment is governed by separate legal frameworks, refugees and migrants have the same universal human rights and fundamental freedoms, which need to be safeguarded regardless of their status; recalls that the EU must abide by its values and principles in all common policies and promote them in its external relations;

Amendment

1. Underlines the fact that we are witnessing in today's world an unprecedented level of human mobility, and stresses that one of the most urgent actions the international community must undertake is the strengthening of a common response to address the challenges and opportunities that this phenomenon represents; stresses that this response must be guided by the full protection of rights

and dignity, and the provision of assistance in their home country, for everyone forced by any circumstance to flee their homes in search of a better life; underlines that, though their treatment is governed by separate legal frameworks, refugees and migrants have the same universal human rights and fundamental freedoms, which need to be safeguarded regardless of their status; recalls that the EU must abide by its values and principles in all common policies and promote them in its external relations;

Or. hu

Amendment 122

Daniel Caspary

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 1

Motion for a resolution

1. Underlines the fact that we are witnessing in today's world an unprecedented level of human mobility, and stresses that one of the most urgent actions the international community must undertake is the strengthening of a common response to address the challenges and opportunities that this phenomenon represents; stresses that this response must be guided by the full protection of the rights and dignity of everyone forced by any circumstance to flee their homes in search of a better life; underlines that, though their treatment is governed by separate legal frameworks, refugees and migrants have the same universal human rights and fundamental freedoms, which need to be safeguarded regardless of their status; recalls that the EU must abide by its values and principles in all common policies and promote them in its external relations;

Amendment

1. Underlines the fact that we are witnessing in today's world an unprecedented level of human mobility, and stresses that one of the most urgent actions the international community must undertake is the strengthening of a common response to address the challenges and opportunities that this phenomenon represents; stresses that this response must be guided by the full protection of the rights and dignity of everyone forced to flee their homes by war or persecution on account of race, religion, nationality or political belief; underlines that, though their treatment is governed by separate legal frameworks, refugees and migrants have the same universal human rights and fundamental freedoms, which need to be safeguarded regardless of their status; recalls that the EU must abide by its values and principles in all common policies and promote them in its external relations;

Amendment 123

Barbara Lochbihler, Heidi Hautala
on behalf of the Verts/ALE Group
Jean Lambert

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 1

Motion for a resolution

1. Underlines the fact that we are witnessing in today's world an unprecedented level of human mobility, and stresses that one of the most urgent actions the international community must undertake is the strengthening of a common response to address the challenges and opportunities that this phenomenon represents; stresses that this response must be guided by the full protection of the rights and dignity of everyone forced by any circumstance to flee their homes in search of a better life; underlines that, though their treatment is governed by separate legal frameworks, refugees and migrants have the same universal human rights and fundamental freedoms, which need to be safeguarded regardless of their status; recalls that the EU must abide by its values and principles in all common policies and promote them in its external relations;

Amendment

1. Underlines the fact that we are witnessing in today's world an unprecedented level of human mobility, and stresses that one of the most urgent actions the international community must undertake is the strengthening of a common response to address the challenges and opportunities that this phenomenon represents; stresses that this response must be guided by the full protection of the rights and dignity of everyone forced by any circumstance to leave their homes in search of a better life; underlines that, though their treatment is governed by separate legal frameworks, refugees and migrants have the same universal human rights and fundamental freedoms, which need to be safeguarded regardless of their status; recalls that the EU must abide by its values and principles in all common policies and promote them in its external relations;

Or. en

Amendment 124

Georgios Epitideios

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 1

Motion for a resolution

1. Underlines the fact that we are witnessing in today's world an unprecedented level of human mobility, and stresses that one of the most urgent actions the international community must undertake is the strengthening of a common response to address the challenges and opportunities that this phenomenon represents; stresses that this response must be guided by the full protection of the rights and dignity of everyone forced by any circumstance to flee their homes in search of a better life; underlines that, though their treatment is governed by separate legal frameworks, refugees and migrants have the same universal human rights and fundamental freedoms, which need to be safeguarded regardless of their status; recalls that the EU must abide by its values and principles in all common policies and promote them in its external relations;

Amendment

1. Underlines the fact that we are witnessing in today's world an unprecedented level of human mobility, and stresses that one of the most urgent actions the international community must undertake is the strengthening of a common response to address the challenges and opportunities that this phenomenon represents; stresses that this response must be guided by the full protection of the rights and dignity of everyone and underlines that, though their treatment is governed by separate legal frameworks, refugees and migrants have the same universal human rights and fundamental freedoms, which need to be safeguarded regardless of their status; recalls that the EU must abide by its values and principles in all common policies and promote them in its external relations; considers that it must also organise the return to their countries of origin of those entering the EU illegally;

Or. el

Amendment 125

Bernd Lucke

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 1

Motion for a resolution

1. Underlines the fact that we are witnessing in today's world an unprecedented level of human mobility, and stresses that one of the most urgent actions the international community must undertake is the strengthening of a common response to address the challenges and opportunities that this phenomenon represents; stresses that this response must be guided by the full protection of the rights and dignity of everyone forced by any circumstance to flee their homes in search of a better life; underlines that, though their treatment is governed by separate legal frameworks, refugees and migrants have the same universal human rights and fundamental freedoms, which need to be safeguarded regardless of their status; recalls that the EU must abide by its values and principles in all common policies and promote them in its external relations;

Amendment

1. Underlines the fact that we are witnessing in today's world an unprecedented level of human mobility, and stresses that one of the most urgent actions the international community must undertake is the strengthening of a common response to address the challenges and opportunities that this phenomenon represents; stresses that this response should aim at protecting the rights and

dignity of everyone forced to flee, in particular those who are most vulnerable; underlines that, though their treatment is governed by separate legal frameworks, refugees and migrants have the same universal human rights and fundamental freedoms, which need to be safeguarded regardless of their status; recalls that the EU must abide by its values and principles in all common policies and promote them in its external relations;

Or. en

Amendment 126

Marina Albiol Guzmán

on behalf of the GUE/NGL Group

Lola Sánchez Caldentey, Stelios Kouloglou

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 1

Motion for a resolution

1. Underlines the fact that we are witnessing in today's world an unprecedented level of human mobility, and stresses that one of the most urgent actions the international community must undertake is the strengthening of a common response to address the challenges and opportunities that this phenomenon represents; stresses that this response must be guided by the full protection of the rights and dignity of everyone forced by any circumstance to flee their homes in search of a better life; underlines that, though their treatment is governed by separate legal frameworks, refugees and migrants have the same universal human rights and fundamental freedoms, which need to be safeguarded regardless of their status; recalls that the EU must abide by its values and principles in all common policies and promote them in its external

Amendment

1. Underlines the fact that we are witnessing in today's world a high level of human mobility, and stresses that one of the most urgent actions the international community must undertake is the strengthening of a common response to address the challenges and opportunities that this phenomenon represents; stresses that this response must be guided by the full protection of the rights and dignity of everyone forced by any circumstance to flee their homes in search of a better life; underlines that, though their treatment is governed by separate legal frameworks, refugees and migrants have the same universal human rights and fundamental freedoms, which need to be safeguarded regardless of their status; recalls that the EU must abide by its values and principles in all common policies and promote them in its external relations; relations;

Or. en

Amendment 127

Elena Valenciano, Agustín Díaz de Mera García Consuegra

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 1 a (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

1a. Stresses that this high level of human mobility responds to multiple, complex causes that require evidence-based decisions to differentiate its elements and develop targeted policy responses; underlines the need for the EU and its Member States to take into account this current reality and develop a new approach to the movement of people based on real data and the EU's interests, by fostering the resilience of people by increasing their access to basic services, notably education, and their integration and contribution to local contexts by providing opportunities for employment and self-employment;

Or. en

Amendment 128

Patrizia Toia

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 1 a (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

1a. Stresses that this high level of human mobility responds to multiple, complex causes that require evidence-based decisions to differentiate its elements and develop targeted policy responses; underlines the need for the EU and its Member States to take into account this current reality and develop a new approach to the movement of people based on real data and the EU's interests, by fostering the resilience of people by increasing their access to basic services, notably education, and their integration and contribution to local contexts by providing opportunities for employment and self-employment;

Or. en

Amendment 129

Fabio Massimo Castaldo, Ignazio Corrao, Laura Ferrara

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 1 a (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

1a. underlines the need for the EU and its Member States to take into account this current reality and develop a new approach to the movement of people based on real data, human dignity and human rights, by fostering the resilience of people by increasing their access to basic services, notably education, and their integration and contribution to local contexts by providing opportunities for employment and self-employment;

Or. en

Amendment 130

Laurențiu Rebegea

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 1 a (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

1a. Notes that in today's world one of the main triggering factors for population displacement is military action by the regular armed forces (army, navy or air force) of sovereign states;

Or. ro

Amendment 131

Hilde Vautmans, Ivo Vajgl, Petras Auštrevičius, Marietje Schaake, Javier Nart

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 1 a (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

1a. Urges the European Council to replace the Dublin Regulation with a European Asylum Procedure based on the UNHCR criteria; The European Asylum Procedure should replace the 28 national procedures;

Or. en

Amendment 132

Laurențiu Rebegea

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 1 b (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

1b. Notes that in today's world organised groups are appearing that directly or indirectly extract material benefit from intensified migratory movements and forced population displacements, and that these groups tend to artificially stimulate or incite migratory movements;

Or. ro

Amendment 133

Hilde Vautmans, Ivo Vajgl, Petras Auštrevičius, Marietje Schaake, Javier Nart

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 1 b (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

Ib. Stresses that to take away the incentive to undertake the dangerous journey to Europe, refugees should be able to apply for a European humanitarian visa and asylum in the hot spots;

Or. en

Amendment 134

Hilde Vautmans, Ivo Vajgl, Petras Auštrevičius, Marietje Schaake, Javier Nart

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 1 c (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

Ic. Calls for a fair distribution scheme of refugees between all Member States; considers that applications for asylum should be made to the EU and not to a specific member state; underlines that this should be based on a fair sharing of responsibility between Member States; stresses that the country of first arrival criteria should be removed from the Dublin regulation and replaced with a fair and mandatory distribution mechanism between Member States; indicates that this relocation mechanism should be based on objective criteria such as population, and GDP;

Or. en

Amendment 135

Hilde Vautmans, Ivo Vajgl, Petras Auštrevičius, Marietje Schaake, Javier Nart

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 1 d (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

1d. Urges the Commission and Council to establish a European Blue Card to manage economic migration for skilled and unskilled workers facilitated by the EURES network;

Or. en

Amendment 136
Angel Dzhambazki

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 2

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

2. Stresses that well-managed international migration represents an important contribution to socioeconomic development, as it has done historically, and that it is necessary to encourage this by changing the current narrative and developing a positive one, countering xenophobic, populist and nationalistic discourses and adopting policies focused on the medium and long term and not exclusively guided by immediate political pressures, while also addressing legitimate concerns regarding border management, social protection for vulnerable groups and integration of refugees and migrants;

deleted

Or. bg

Amendment 137
Louis Aliot

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 2

Motion for a resolution

2. Stresses that well-managed international migration represents an important contribution to socioeconomic development, as it has done historically, and that it is necessary to encourage this by changing the current narrative and developing a positive one, countering xenophobic, populist and nationalistic discourses and adopting policies focused on the medium and long term and not exclusively guided by immediate political pressures, while also addressing legitimate concerns regarding border management, social protection for vulnerable groups and integration of refugees and migrants;

Amendment

deleted

Or. fr

Amendment 138
Jean-Luc Schaffhauser

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 2

Motion for a resolution

2. Stresses that well-managed international migration represents an important contribution to socioeconomic development, as it has done historically, and that it is necessary to encourage this by changing the current narrative and developing a positive one, countering xenophobic, populist and nationalistic discourses and adopting policies focused on the medium and long term and not exclusively guided by immediate political pressures, while also addressing legitimate concerns regarding border management, social protection for vulnerable groups and integration of

Amendment

2. Stresses that lofty idealism offers no solutions to the current serious crises, and insists that Member States' societies must not be further destabilised by the enforced integration of migrants who, the fact is, would continue to arrive in ever-growing numbers;

refugees and migrants;

Or. fr

Amendment 139

Bernd Lucke, Eleni Theoharous

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 2

Motion for a resolution

2. Stresses that *well-managed international migration represents an important contribution to socioeconomic development, as it has done historically, and that it is necessary to encourage this by changing the current narrative and developing a positive one, countering xenophobic, populist and nationalistic discourses and adopting policies focused on the medium and long term and not exclusively guided by immediate political pressures, while also addressing legitimate concerns regarding border management, social protection for vulnerable groups and integration of refugees and migrants;

Amendment

2. Stresses that the unprecedented and unsustainable flow of refugees and migrants to the European Union threatens the effective functioning of the Schengen Area and the European Union's and the Member States' immigration systems; underlines in this respect the importance of a coherent strategy of the whole European Union to counter xenophobic, populist and nationalistic discourses, and adopting policies focussed on the medium and long term; emphasizes the need for an effective control of the EU's external border to reduce the pressure on the littoral states of the Mediterranean, especially Greece and Italy; welcomes the measures Spain had implemented and recognizes the success of those;

Or. en

Amendment 140

Patrizia Toia

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 2

Motion for a resolution

2. Stresses that well-managed international migration represents an important contribution to socioeconomic

Amendment

2. Stresses that well-managed international migration represents an important contribution to socioeconomic development, as it has done historically, and that it is necessary to encourage this by changing the current narrative and developing a positive one, countering xenophobic, populist and nationalistic discourses and adopting policies focused on the medium and long term and not exclusively guided by immediate political pressures, while also addressing legitimate concerns regarding border management, social protection for vulnerable groups and integration of refugees and migrants;

development, as it has done historically, and that it is necessary to encourage this by changing the current narrative and developing a positive one, countering xenophobic, populist and nationalistic discourses and adopting policies focused on the medium and long term and not exclusively guided by immediate political pressures, while also addressing legitimate concerns regarding border management, social protection for vulnerable groups and integration of refugees and migrants; this process of changing the narrative should also begin by promoting, through accredited and recognised research centres, a genuine and objective understanding of the issue, the statistics of which are all too often manipulated with a view to exploiting them;

Or. it

Amendment 141 Georgios Epitideios

Motion for a resolution Paragraph 2

Motion for a resolution

2. Stresses that well-managed international migration represents an important contribution to socioeconomic development, as it has done historically, and that it is necessary to encourage this by changing the current narrative and developing a positive one, countering xenophobic, populist and nationalistic discourses and adopting policies focused on the medium and long term and not exclusively guided by immediate political pressures, while also addressing legitimate concerns regarding border management, social protection for vulnerable groups and integration of refugees and migrants;

Amendment

2. Stresses that well-managed international migration represents an important contribution to socioeconomic development, as it has done historically, and that it is necessary to encourage this, while also assuaging legitimate concerns regarding border management, social protection for vulnerable groups and the integration of as many refugees and migrants as a State is able to absorb;

Or. el

Amendment 142
Geoffrey Van Orden

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 2

Motion for a resolution

2. Stresses that well-managed international migration represents an important contribution to socioeconomic development, as it has done historically, and that it is necessary to encourage this by changing the current narrative and developing a positive one, countering xenophobic, populist and nationalistic discourses and adopting policies focused on the medium and long term and not exclusively guided by immediate political pressures, while also addressing legitimate concerns regarding border management, social protection for vulnerable groups and integration of refugees and migrants;

Amendment

2. Notes that well-managed international migration represents an important contribution to development, provided that numbers are controlled and newcomers are given every opportunity to integrate, recognises that there are legitimate concerns regarding border management, social protection for vulnerable groups and integration of refugees and migrants;

Or. en

Amendment 143
Fabio Massimo Castaldo, Ignazio Corrao, Laura Ferrara

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 2

Motion for a resolution

2. Stresses that well-managed international migration represents an important contribution to socioeconomic development, as it has done historically, and that it is necessary to encourage this by changing the current narrative and developing a positive one, countering xenophobic, populist and nationalistic discourses and adopting policies focused on the medium and long term and not exclusively guided by immediate political

Amendment

2. Stresses that well-managed international migration represents an important contribution to socioeconomic development, as it has done historically, and that it is necessary to encourage this by changing the current narrative and developing a positive one, countering xenophobic, populist and nationalistic discourses and adopting policies focused on the medium and long term and not exclusively guided by immediate political pressures, while also addressing legitimate concerns regarding border management, social protection for vulnerable groups and integration of refugees and migrants;

pressures, while also addressing legitimate concerns regarding border management, social protection for vulnerable groups and integration of refugees and migrants;
points out, however, that people should never be forced to leave their homes and that the profound causes of migration should be tackled effectively;

Or. it

Amendment 144 Notis Marias

Motion for a resolution Paragraph 2

Motion for a resolution

2. Stresses that well-managed international migration represents an important contribution to socioeconomic development, as it has done historically, and that it is necessary to encourage this by changing the current narrative and developing a positive one, countering xenophobic, populist and nationalistic discourses and adopting policies focused on the medium and long term and not exclusively guided by immediate political pressures, while also addressing legitimate concerns regarding border management, social protection for vulnerable groups and integration of refugees and migrants;

Amendment

2. Stresses that well-managed international migration represents an important contribution to socioeconomic development, and that it is therefore necessary to break away from the dominant ideology of the so-called 'open society' in addressing this phenomenon and to focus on the real problems of people which are not exclusively individual and to place greater emphasis on issues of a cultural nature and on adopting policies focused on the medium and long term and addressing immediate political pressures, while also tackling legitimate concerns regarding border management, social protection for vulnerable groups and the attempt to integrate refugees and migrants;

Or. el

Amendment 145 Fernando Ruas

Motion for a resolution Paragraph 2

Motion for a resolution

2. Stresses that well-managed international migration represents an important contribution to socioeconomic development, as it has done historically, and that it is necessary to encourage this by changing the current narrative and developing a positive one, countering xenophobic, populist and nationalistic discourses and adopting policies focused on the medium and long term and not exclusively guided by immediate political pressures, while also addressing legitimate concerns regarding border management, social protection for vulnerable groups and integration of refugees and migrants;

Amendment

2. Stresses that well-managed international migration represents an important contribution to socioeconomic development, as it has done historically, and that it is necessary to encourage this by changing the current narrative and developing a positive one, countering xenophobic, populist and nationalistic discourses and adopting global, European, and local policies focused on the medium and long term that must be coherent, forward looking, and meaningful and not exclusively guided by immediate political pressures, while also addressing legitimate concerns regarding border management, social protection for vulnerable groups and integration of refugees and migrants;

Or. pt

Amendment 146

Barbara Lochbihler, Heidi Hautala

on behalf of the Verts/ALE Group

Jean Lambert

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 2

Motion for a resolution

2. Stresses that well-managed international migration represents an important contribution to socioeconomic development, as it has done historically, and that it is necessary to encourage this by changing the current narrative and developing a positive one, countering xenophobic, populist and nationalistic discourses and adopting policies focused on the medium and long term and not exclusively guided by immediate political pressures, while also addressing legitimate concerns regarding border management, social protection for vulnerable groups and

Amendment

2. Stresses that well-managed international migration represents an important contribution to socioeconomic development, as it has done historically, and that it is necessary to encourage this by changing the current narrative and developing a positive one, countering xenophobic, populist and nationalistic discourses and adopting inclusive and flexible policies focused on the medium and long term regulating migration as a regular human phenomenon and not exclusively guided by immediate political pressures, while also addressing legitimate integration of refugees and migrants; concerns regarding border management, social protection for vulnerable groups and integration of refugees and migrants;

Or. en

Amendment 147

László Tóké, György Hölvényi

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 2

Motion for a resolution

2. Stresses that well-managed international migration represents an important contribution to socioeconomic development, as it has done historically, and that it is necessary to encourage this by changing the current narrative and developing a positive one, countering xenophobic, populist and nationalistic discourses and adopting policies focused on the medium and long term and not exclusively guided by immediate political pressures, while also addressing legitimate concerns regarding border management, social protection for vulnerable groups and integration of refugees and migrants;

Amendment

2. Stresses that well-managed international migration can contribute to socioeconomic development, and that it is necessary to change the current narrative and develop one based on solidarity, countering xenophobic, populist and nationalistic discourses and adopting policies focused on the medium and long term and not exclusively guided by immediate political pressures, while also addressing legitimate concerns regarding border management, social protection for vulnerable groups and integration of refugees and migrants;

Or. hu

Amendment 148

György Hölvényi, László Tóké

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 2

Motion for a resolution

2. Stresses that well-managed international migration represents an important contribution to socioeconomic development, as it has done historically, and that it is necessary to encourage this

Amendment

2. Stresses that well-managed international migration can contribute to socioeconomic development, and that it is necessary to change the current narrative and develop one based on solidarity, by changing the current narrative and developing a positive one, countering xenophobic, populist and nationalistic discourses and adopting policies focused on the medium and long term and not exclusively guided by immediate political pressures, while also addressing legitimate concerns regarding border management, social protection for vulnerable groups and integration of refugees and migrants; countering xenophobic, populist and nationalistic discourses and adopting policies focused on the medium and long term and not exclusively guided by immediate political pressures, while also addressing legitimate concerns regarding border management, social protection for vulnerable groups and integration of refugees and migrants;

Or. hu

Amendment 149
Miguel Urbán Crespo

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 2

Motion for a resolution

2. Stresses that well-managed international migration represents an important contribution to socioeconomic development, as it has done historically, and that it is necessary to encourage this by changing the current narrative and developing a positive one, countering xenophobic, populist and nationalistic discourses and adopting policies focused on the medium and long term and not exclusively guided by immediate political pressures, while also addressing legitimate concerns regarding border management, social protection for vulnerable groups and integration of refugees and migrants;

Amendment

2. Stresses that international migration represents an important contribution to socioeconomic development, as it has done historically, and that it is necessary to encourage this by changing the current narrative and developing a positive one, countering xenophobic, populist and nationalistic discourses and adopting policies focused on the medium and long term common benefit and not be misguided by immediate political pressures, while also addressing the needs of social protection for vulnerable groups and integration of refugees and migrants;

Or. en

Amendment 150
Marina Albiol Guzmán
on behalf of the GUE/NGL Group
Lola Sánchez Caldentey, Stelios Kouloglou

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 2

Motion for a resolution

2. Stresses that well-managed international migration represents an important contribution to socioeconomic development, as it has done historically, and that it is necessary to encourage this by changing the current narrative and developing a positive one, countering xenophobic, populist and nationalistic discourses and adopting policies focused on the medium and long term and not exclusively guided by immediate political pressures, while also addressing legitimate concerns regarding border management, social protection for vulnerable groups and integration of refugees and migrants;

Amendment

2. Stresses that international migration represents an important contribution to socioeconomic development, as it has done historically, and that it is necessary to encourage this by changing the current narrative and developing a positive one, countering xenophobic, populist and nationalistic discourses and adopting policies focused on the medium and long term and not exclusively guided by immediate political pressures, while also addressing social protection for vulnerable groups and social inclusion of refugees and migrants;

Or. en

Amendment 151
Louis Michel, Hilde Vautmans

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 2

Motion for a resolution

2. Stresses that well-managed international migration represents an important contribution to socioeconomic development, as it has done historically, and that it is necessary to encourage this by changing the current narrative and developing a positive one, countering xenophobic, populist and nationalistic discourses and adopting policies focused on the medium and long term and not exclusively guided by immediate political pressures, while also addressing legitimate concerns regarding border management, social protection for vulnerable groups and integration of refugees and migrants;

Amendment

2. Stresses that well-managed international migration represents an important contribution to socioeconomic development, as it has done historically, and that the narrative employed in this connection must be a positive one, countering xenophobic, populist and nationalistic discourses and adopting policies focused on the medium and long term and not exclusively guided by immediate political pressures or national electoral considerations, while also addressing legitimate concerns regarding border management, social protection for vulnerable groups and integration of refugees and migrants;

Amendment 152
Eleni Theocharous

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 2 a (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

2a. Identifies that migrants' integration is one of the biggest challenges in the context of our efforts to successfully address the refugee and migration crisis; equal treatment and opportunities to employment, the role of education and training in promoting the respect of fundamental rights are vital whereas at the same time education should aim to prepare the host society in accepting and integrating migrants; matching migrants -as a voluntary process - with the best possible country for their skills and culture could control the impact on labour markets and help improve relations with the local population; prioritising the creation of jobs could be a key component of aid and to that end supporting third countries in enabling refugees to get access to employment and economic opportunities is important;

Or. en

Amendment 153
Jean-Luc Schaffhauser

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 3

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

3. Recognises that the humanitarian aid system is dangerously overstretched deleted and that it will never be sufficient to respond to forced displacement crises, in particular given the protracted nature of a majority of them; welcomes therefore the new policy framework outlined in the Commission communication on ‘Forced Displacement and Development’ of April 2016; notes the importance of promoting closer humanitarian-development links and the need to engage with different partners – governments, local authorities, civil society, including refugees themselves, and the private sector – to develop targeted evidence-based strategies to tackle this challenge;

Or. fr

Amendment 154

Marietje Schaake, Hilde Vautmans

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 3

Motion for a resolution

3. Recognises that the humanitarian aid system is dangerously overstretched and that it will never be sufficient to respond to forced displacement crises, in particular given the protracted nature of a majority of them; welcomes therefore the new policy framework outlined in the Commission communication on ‘Forced Displacement and Development’ of April 2016; notes the importance of promoting closer humanitarian-development links and the need to engage with different partners – governments, local authorities, civil society, including refugees themselves, and the private sector – to develop targeted evidence-based strategies to tackle this challenge;

Amendment

3. Stresses that the humanitarian aid system is extremely (financially) overstretched and that it will never be sufficient to respond to forced displacement crises, in particular given the protracted nature of a majority of them; welcomes therefore the new policy framework outlined in the Commission communication on ‘Forced Displacement and Development’ of April 2016; notes the importance of promoting closer humanitarian-development links and the need to engage with different partners – governments, local authorities, civil society, including refugees themselves, and the private sector – to develop targeted evidence-based strategies to tackle this challenge;

Or. en

Amendment 155
David McAllister

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 3

Motion for a resolution

3. Recognises that the humanitarian aid system is dangerously overstretched and that it will never be sufficient to respond to forced displacement crises, in particular given the protracted nature of a majority of them; welcomes therefore the new policy framework outlined in the Commission communication on ‘Forced Displacement and Development’ of April 2016; notes the importance of promoting closer humanitarian-development links and the need to engage with different partners – governments, local authorities, civil society, including refugees themselves, and the private sector – to develop targeted evidence-based strategies to tackle this challenge;

Amendment

3. Recognises that the humanitarian aid system is dangerously overstretched and that it will never be sufficient to respond to forced displacement crises, in particular given the protracted nature of a majority of them; welcomes therefore the new policy framework outlined in the Commission communication on ‘Forced Displacement and Development’ of April 2016; notes the importance of a comprehensive and more sustainable approach on migration including the promotion of closer humanitarian-development links and the need to engage with different partners – governments, local authorities, civil society, including refugees themselves, and the private sector – to develop targeted evidence-based strategies to tackle this challenge; calls for an increased cooperation with the UN, and other actors, including increased financial contributions for UNHCR; stresses, in this context, the need for improved living conditions in refugee camps, especially in terms of health and education for women and children;

Or. en

Amendment 156
Enrique Guerrero Salom, Doru-Claudian Frunzulică, Juan Fernando López Aguilar, Norbert Neuser

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 3

Motion for a resolution

3. Recognises that the humanitarian aid system is dangerously overstretched and that it will never be sufficient to respond to forced displacement crises, in particular given the protracted nature of a majority of them; welcomes therefore the new policy framework outlined in the Commission communication on ‘Forced Displacement and Development’ of April 2016; notes the importance of promoting closer humanitarian-development links and the need to engage with different partners – governments, local authorities, civil society, including refugees themselves, and the private sector – to develop targeted evidence-based strategies to tackle this challenge;

Amendment

3. Recognises that the humanitarian aid system is dangerously overstretched and that it will never be sufficient to respond to forced displacement crises, notably given the protracted nature of a majority of them; welcomes therefore the new policy framework outlined in the Commission communication on “Forced Displacement and Development” of April 2016 and calls on the EEAS and the European Commission to implement its content within the new Partnership Framework with third countries; notes the importance of promoting closer humanitarian-development links, and the need to engage with different partners – governments, local authorities, civil society including refugees themselves, and the private sector – to develop targeted evidence-based strategies to tackle this challenge while respecting that humanitarian aid is not a crisis management tool as stated in the EU Consensus for Humanitarian Aid;

Or. en

Amendment 157

Eleni Theocharous, Bernd Lucke

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 3

Motion for a resolution

3. Recognises that the humanitarian aid system is dangerously overstretched and that it will never be sufficient to respond to forced displacement crises, in particular given the protracted nature of a majority of them; welcomes therefore the new policy framework outlined in the Commission communication on ‘Forced Displacement and Development’ of April

Amendment

3. Recognises that the humanitarian aid system is dangerously overstretched and that it will never be sufficient to respond to forced displacement crises, in particular given the protracted nature of a majority of them; welcomes therefore the new policy framework outlined in the Commission communication on ‘Forced Displacement and Development’ of April

2016; notes the importance of promoting closer humanitarian-development links and the need to engage with different partners – governments, local authorities, civil society, including refugees themselves, and the private sector – to develop targeted evidence-based strategies to tackle this challenge;

2016; notes the importance of promoting closer humanitarian-development links and the need to engage with different partners – governments, local authorities, civil society, including refugees themselves, and the private sector – to develop targeted evidence-based strategies to tackle this challenge and to gradually end dependence on humanitarian assistance in existing displacement situations by fostering resilience and enabling the displaced to live in dignity as contributors to their host countries, until voluntary return or resettlement;

Or. en

Amendment 158

Louis Aliot

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 3

Motion for a resolution

3. Recognises that the humanitarian aid system is dangerously overstretched and that it will never be sufficient to respond to forced displacement crises, in particular given the protracted nature of a majority of them; welcomes therefore the new policy framework outlined in the Commission communication on ‘Forced Displacement and Development’ of April 2016; notes the importance of promoting closer humanitarian-development links and the need to engage with different partners – governments, local authorities, civil society, including refugees themselves, and the private sector – to develop targeted evidence-based strategies to tackle this challenge;

Amendment

3. Recognises that the humanitarian aid system is dangerously overstretched and that it will never be sufficient to respond to forced displacement crises, in particular given the protracted nature of a majority of them; welcomes therefore the new policy framework outlined in the Commission communication on ‘Forced Displacement and Development’ of April 2016; notes the importance of promoting closer humanitarian-development links and the need to engage with different partners – governments, local authorities, civil society, including refugees themselves, and the private sector – to develop targeted evidence-based strategies to tackle this challenge; whereas the aim of all such measures should be to restrict migration to Europe in so far as possible and to provide incentives for keeping people where they are, so they can be involved in developing their countries to the full;

Or. fr

Amendment 159
Geoffrey Van Orden

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 3

Motion for a resolution

3. Recognises that the humanitarian aid system is dangerously overstretched and that it will never be sufficient to respond to forced displacement crises, in particular given the protracted nature of a majority of them; welcomes therefore the new policy framework outlined in the Commission communication on ‘Forced Displacement and Development’ of April 2016; notes the importance of promoting closer humanitarian-development links and the need to engage with different partners – governments, local authorities, civil society, including refugees themselves, and the private sector – to develop targeted evidence-based strategies to tackle this challenge;

Amendment

3. Recognises that the humanitarian aid system is dangerously overstretched and that it needs to be reformed, in particular given the protracted nature of a majority of crises; notes the importance of promoting closer humanitarian-development links and the need to engage with different partners – governments, local authorities, civil society, including refugees themselves, and the private sector – to develop targeted evidence-based strategies to tackle this challenge;

Or. en

Amendment 160
Marina Albiol Guzmán
on behalf of the GUE/NGL Group
Lola Sánchez Caldentey, Stelios Kouloglou

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 3

Motion for a resolution

3. Recognises that the humanitarian aid system is dangerously overstretched and that it will never be sufficient to

Amendment

3. Recognises that the humanitarian aid system is dangerously overstretched and that it will never be sufficient to respond to forced displacement crises, in particular given the protracted nature of a majority of them; welcomes therefore the new policy framework outlined in the Commission communication on ‘Forced Displacement and Development’ of April 2016; notes the importance of promoting closer humanitarian-development links and the need to engage with different partners – governments, local authorities, civil society, including refugees themselves, and the private sector – to develop targeted evidence-based strategies to tackle this challenge; respond to forced displacement crises, in particular given the protracted nature of a majority of them; notes the importance of promoting closer humanitarian-development links and the need to engage with different partners – governments, local authorities, civil society, including refugee and migrant organizations – to develop targeted evidence-based strategies to tackle this challenge;

Or. en

Amendment 161

László Tőkés, György Hölvényi

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 3

Motion for a resolution

3. Recognises that the humanitarian aid system is dangerously overstretched and that it will never be sufficient to respond to forced displacement crises, in particular given the protracted nature of a majority of them; welcomes therefore the new policy framework outlined in the Commission communication on ‘Forced Displacement and Development’ of April 2016; notes the importance of promoting closer humanitarian-development links and the need to engage with different partners – governments, local authorities, civil society, including refugees themselves, and the private sector – to develop targeted evidence-based strategies to tackle this challenge;

Amendment

3. Recognises that the humanitarian aid system is dangerously overstretched and that it will never be sufficient to respond to forced displacement crises, in particular given the protracted nature of a majority of them; welcomes therefore the new policy framework outlined in the Commission communication on ‘Forced Displacement and Development’ of April 2016; notes the importance of promoting closer humanitarian-development links and the need to engage with different partners – governments, local authorities, civil society, including refugees themselves, local religious organisations and NGOs, and the private sector – to develop targeted evidence-based strategies to tackle this challenge;

Or. hu

Amendment 162
György Hölvényi, László Tőkés

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 3

Motion for a resolution

3. Recognises that the humanitarian aid system is dangerously overstretched and that it will never be sufficient to respond to forced displacement crises, in particular given the protracted nature of a majority of them; welcomes therefore the new policy framework outlined in the Commission communication on ‘Forced Displacement and Development’ of April 2016; notes the importance of promoting closer humanitarian-development links and the need to engage with different partners – governments, local authorities, civil society, including refugees themselves, and the private sector – to develop targeted evidence-based strategies to tackle this challenge;

Amendment

3. Recognises that the humanitarian aid system is dangerously overstretched and that it will never be sufficient to respond to forced displacement crises, in particular given the protracted nature of a majority of them; welcomes therefore the new policy framework outlined in the Commission communication on ‘Forced Displacement and Development’ of April 2016; notes the importance of promoting closer humanitarian-development links and the need to engage with different partners – governments, local authorities, civil society including refugees themselves, local religious organisations and NGOs, and the private sector – to develop targeted evidence-based strategies to tackle this challenge;

Or. hu

Amendment 163
Angel Dzhambazki

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 3

Motion for a resolution

3. Recognises that the humanitarian aid system is dangerously overstretched and that it will never be sufficient to respond to forced displacement crises, in particular given the protracted nature of a majority of them; welcomes therefore the new policy framework outlined in the Commission communication on ‘Forced Displacement and Development’ of April 2016; notes the importance of promoting

Amendment

3. Recognises that the humanitarian aid system is dangerously overstretched and that it will never be sufficient to respond to forced displacement crises, in particular given the protracted nature of a majority of them; welcomes therefore the new policy framework outlined in the Commission communication on ‘Forced Displacement and Development’ of April 2016 as a step in the right direction; notes

closer humanitarian-development links and the need to engage with different partners – governments, local authorities, civil society, including refugees themselves, and the private sector – to develop targeted evidence-based strategies to tackle this challenge; the importance of promoting closer humanitarian-development links and the need to engage with different regional actors – governments, local authorities, civil society, including refugees themselves, and the private sector – to develop targeted evidence-based strategies to tackle this challenge;

Or. en

Amendment 164

Fabio Massimo Castaldo, Ignazio Corrao, Laura Ferrara

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 3

Motion for a resolution

3. Recognises that the humanitarian aid system is dangerously overstretched and that it will never be sufficient to respond to forced displacement crises, in particular given the protracted nature of a majority of them; welcomes therefore the new policy framework outlined in the Commission communication on ‘Forced Displacement and Development’ of April 2016; notes the importance of promoting closer humanitarian-development links and the need to engage with different partners – governments, local authorities, civil society, including refugees themselves, and the private sector – to develop targeted evidence-based strategies to tackle this challenge;

Amendment

3. Recognises that the humanitarian aid system is dangerously overstretched and that it will never be sufficient to respond to forced displacement crises, in particular given the protracted nature of a majority of them; welcomes therefore the new policy framework outlined in the Commission communication on ‘Forced Displacement and Development’ of April 2016; notes the importance of promoting closer humanitarian-development links and the need to engage with different partners – governments, local authorities, the diaspora, civil society, including refugees themselves, and the private sector – to develop targeted evidence-based strategies to tackle this challenge;

Or. it

Amendment 165

Miguel Urbán Crespo

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 3

Motion for a resolution

3. Recognises that the humanitarian aid system is dangerously overstretched and that it will never be sufficient to respond to forced displacement crises, in particular given the protracted nature of a majority of them; welcomes therefore the new policy framework outlined in the Commission communication on ‘Forced Displacement and Development’ of April 2016; notes the importance of promoting closer humanitarian-development links and the need to engage with different partners – governments, local authorities, civil society, including refugees themselves, and the private sector – to develop targeted evidence-based strategies to tackle this challenge;

Amendment

3. Recognises that the humanitarian aid system is dangerously overstretched and that it will never be sufficient to respond to forced displacement crises, in particular given the protracted nature of a majority of them; denounces therefore the policies which link humanitarian and development aid with the forced management of migration, including returns; notes the importance of promoting closer humanitarian-development links and the need to engage with different partners – governments, local authorities, civil society, including refugees themselves, and relevant NGO's– to develop targeted evidence-based strategies to tackle this challenge;

Or. en

Amendment 166
Georgios Epitideios

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 3

Motion for a resolution

3. Recognises that the humanitarian aid system is dangerously overstretched and that it will never be sufficient to respond to forced displacement crises, in particular given the protracted nature of a majority of them; welcomes therefore the new policy framework outlined in the Commission communication on ‘Forced Displacement and Development’ of April 2016; notes the importance of promoting closer humanitarian-development links and the need to engage with different partners – governments, local authorities, civil society, including refugees themselves, and the private sector – to develop targeted evidence-based strategies to tackle this

Amendment

3. Recognises that the system for providing humanitarian aid does not function properly and is dangerously overstretched and that it will never be sufficient to respond to forced displacement crises, in particular given the protracted nature of a majority of them; welcomes therefore the new policy framework outlined in the Commission communication on ‘Forced Displacement and Development’ of April 2016; notes the importance of promoting closer humanitarian-development links and the need to engage with different partners – governments, local authorities, civil society and the private sector – to develop targeted challenge;

evidence-based strategies to tackle this challenge;

Or. el

Amendment 167

Heidi Hautala, Barbara Lochbihler, Jean Lambert

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 3 a (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

3a. Underlines that jobs and economic opportunities are critical to mitigating the impact of displacement induced vulnerabilities; calls on the EU to help migrants and refugees to move to places offering such opportunities, to help create opportunities in their place of exile (including by removing the barriers and obstacles to access the labour market) and to help them to develop new skills more attuned to the needs of the local labour market;

Or. en

Amendment 168

Cristian Dan Preda

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 3 a (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

3a. Highlights the important steps undertaken by the EU to tackle the external dimension of the migration crisis and particularly the fight against organised crime responsible for migrant smuggling and human trafficking and the enhanced cooperation with the countries of origin and transit;

Amendment 169
Enrique Guerrero Salom

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 3 a (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

3a. Recognises the rights and dignity of millions of fellow human beings will be further diminished if they languish in refugee camps or on the margins of cities without access to basic needs, livelihoods and income opportunities;

Or. en

Amendment 170
Fernando Ruas

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 4

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

4. Stresses that EU development cooperation should continue to address the root causes of forced displacement by promoting peace, democracy and security, reducing poverty and inequality, strengthening basic services, addressing state fragility and promoting human rights and good governance, in line with Sustainable Development Goal 16 in the new 2030 Agenda;

4. Stresses that EU development cooperation should continue to address the root causes of forced displacement, the basis for action being the core EU principles set out in Articles 208 TFEU and 21 TEU and the prime objective, to reduce and ultimately eradicate poverty and to promote democracy and the principles underlying it, the rule of law, the universality and indivisibility of human rights and fundamental freedoms, respect for human dignity, the principles of equality and solidarity, and observance of the principles laid down in the United Nations Charter and international law; notes that the promotion of peace, security, justice, and equity, strengthening institutions, administrative capacity building, and good governance, in line with Sustainable Development Goal 16 in the new 2030 Agenda, are further principles to take into account;

Or. pt

Amendment 171

Elena Valenciano, Agustín Díaz de Mera García Consuegra

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 4

Motion for a resolution

4. Stresses that EU development cooperation should continue to address the root causes of forced displacement by promoting peace, democracy and security, reducing poverty and inequality, strengthening basic services, addressing state fragility and promoting human rights and good governance, in line with Sustainable Development Goal 16 in the new 2030 Agenda;

Amendment

4. Stresses that EU development cooperation should continue to address the root causes of forced displacement by promoting peace, democracy and security, reducing poverty and inequality, strengthening basic services, addressing state fragility and promoting human rights and good governance, in line with Sustainable Development Goal 16 in the new 2030 Agenda; highlights the need to focus on the socioeconomic aspects of the migration phenomenon and promote the creation of decent jobs and real economic opportunities so as to make migration a choice and not an obligation; notes that a successful policy should recognize the need of creating economic resilience in both host and origin countries;

Or. en

Amendment 172

Patrizia Toia

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 4

Motion for a resolution

4. Stresses that EU development

Amendment

4. Stresses that EU development

cooperation should continue to address the root causes of forced displacement by promoting peace, democracy and security, reducing poverty and inequality, strengthening basic services, addressing state fragility and promoting human rights and good governance, in line with Sustainable Development Goal 16 in the new 2030 Agenda;

cooperation should continue to address the root causes of forced displacement by promoting peace, democracy and security, reducing poverty and inequality, strengthening basic services, addressing state fragility and promoting human rights and good governance, in line with Sustainable Development Goal 16 in the new 2030 Agenda; highlights the need to focus on the socioeconomic aspects of the migration phenomenon and promote the creation of decent jobs and real economic opportunities so as to make migration a choice and not an obligation; notes that a successful policy should recognize the need of creating economic resilience in both host and origin countries;

Or. en

Amendment 173

Fabio Massimo Castaldo, Ignazio Corrao, Laura Ferrara

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 4

Motion for a resolution

4. Stresses that EU development cooperation should continue to address the root causes of forced displacement by promoting peace, democracy and security, reducing poverty and inequality, strengthening basic services, addressing state fragility and promoting human rights and good governance, in line with Sustainable Development Goal 16 in the new 2030 Agenda;

Amendment

4. Stresses that EU development cooperation should continue to address the root causes of forced displacement by promoting peace, democracy and security, reducing poverty and inequality, combating corruption, strengthening basic services, addressing state fragility and promoting human rights and good governance, in line with Sustainable Development Goal 16 in the new 2030 Agenda; believes that the EU and the Member States should, using all available instruments, continue to encourage the countries of origin to adopt and implement measures and policies that enable them to achieve economic and social development;

Or. it

Amendment 174
Ramona Nicole Mănescu

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 4

Motion for a resolution

4. Stresses that EU development cooperation should continue to address the root causes of forced displacement by promoting peace, democracy and security, reducing poverty and inequality, strengthening basic services, addressing state fragility and promoting human rights and good governance, in line with Sustainable Development Goal 16 in the new 2030 Agenda;

Amendment

4. Stresses that EU development cooperation should continue to address the root causes of forced displacement, namely the poverty, armed conflict, lack of economic opportunities, bad governance, climate change and mistaken trade policies, by promoting peace, democracy and security, reducing poverty and inequality, strengthening basic services, addressing state fragility and promoting human rights and good governance, in line with Sustainable Development Goal 16 in the new 2030 Agenda;

Or. en

Amendment 175
Heidi Hautala, Barbara Lochbihler, Jean Lambert

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 4

Motion for a resolution

4. Stresses that EU development cooperation should continue to address the root causes of forced displacement by promoting peace, democracy and security, reducing poverty and inequality, strengthening basic services, addressing state fragility and promoting human rights and good governance, in line with Sustainable Development Goal 16 in the new 2030 Agenda;

Amendment

4. Considers the EU response to the migration phenomenon with its strong focus on return, border management and development as ill-conceived; underlines the fact that development instruments are inappropriate instruments in order to reduce migration flows in the short and medium term as economic development leads to more not less migration; invites the EU to address much more the main root causes of forced displacement which is violent conflicts and negative effects of climate change;

Amendment 176
Miguel Urbán Crespo

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 4

Motion for a resolution

4. Stresses that EU development cooperation should continue to address the root causes of forced displacement by promoting peace, democracy and security, reducing poverty and inequality, strengthening basic services, addressing state fragility and promoting human rights and good governance, in line with Sustainable Development Goal 16 in the new 2030 Agenda;

Amendment

4. Stresses that EU development cooperation should be entirely civilian and should continue to address the root causes of forced displacement by promoting peace, democracy and security of all people, in an effort to eradicate poverty and inequality, strengthening public services, addressing state fragility and promoting human rights and good governance, in line with Sustainable Development Goal 16 in the new 2030 Agenda;

Amendment 177
Georgios Epitideios

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 4

Motion for a resolution

4. Stresses that EU development cooperation should continue to address the root causes of forced displacement by promoting peace, democracy and security, reducing poverty and inequality, strengthening basic services, addressing state fragility and promoting human rights and good governance, in line with Sustainable Development Goal 16 in the new 2030 Agenda;

Amendment

4. Stresses that EU development cooperation should continue to address the root causes of forced displacement by promoting peace, democracy and security, assisting the countries of origin of refugees by reducing poverty and inequality, strengthening basic services, addressing state fragility and promoting human rights and good governance, in line with Sustainable Development Goal 16 in the new 2030 Agenda;

Amendment 178

Marietje Schaake, Hilde Vautmans

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 4

Motion for a resolution

4. Stresses that EU development cooperation should continue to address the root causes of forced displacement by promoting peace, democracy and security, reducing poverty and inequality, strengthening basic services, addressing state fragility and promoting human rights and good governance, in line with Sustainable Development Goal 16 in the new 2030 Agenda;

Amendment

4. Stresses that EU development cooperation has the ability to, and should continue to address the root causes of forced displacement by promoting peace, democracy and security, reducing poverty and inequality, strengthening basic services, addressing state fragility and promoting human rights, the rule of law and good governance, in line with Sustainable Development Goal 16 in the new 2030 Agenda;

Or. en

Amendment 179

Philippe Juvin

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 4

Motion for a resolution

4. Stresses that EU development cooperation should continue to address the root causes of forced displacement by promoting peace, democracy and security, reducing poverty and inequality, strengthening basic services, addressing state fragility and promoting human rights and good governance, in line with Sustainable Development Goal 16 in the new 2030 Agenda;

Amendment

4. Stresses that EU development cooperation should continue to address the root causes of forced displacement by promoting peace, democracy, security and economic development, reducing poverty and inequality, strengthening basic services, addressing state fragility and promoting human rights and good governance, in line with Sustainable Development Goal 16 in the new 2030 Agenda;

Or. fr

Amendment 180

György Hölvényi, László Tőkés

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 4

Motion for a resolution

4. Stresses that EU development cooperation should continue to address the root causes of forced displacement by promoting peace, democracy and security, reducing poverty and inequality, strengthening basic services, addressing state fragility and promoting human rights and good governance, in line with Sustainable Development Goal 16 in the new 2030 Agenda;

Amendment

4. Stresses that EU development cooperation should continue to address the root causes of forced displacement by promoting peace, democracy and security, reducing poverty and inequality, strengthening basic services, addressing state fragility and promoting human rights and good governance, in line with Sustainable Development Goal 16 in the new 2030 Agenda, and establishing closer cooperation with the leaders of local religious organisations and NGOs;

Or. hu

Amendment 181

László Tőkés, György Hölvényi

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 4

Motion for a resolution

4. Stresses that EU development cooperation should continue to address the root causes of forced displacement by promoting peace, democracy and security, reducing poverty and inequality, strengthening basic services, addressing state fragility and promoting human rights and good governance, in line with Sustainable Development Goal 16 in the new 2030 Agenda;

Amendment

4. Stresses that EU development cooperation should continue to address the root causes of forced displacement by promoting peace, democracy and security, reducing poverty and inequality, strengthening basic services, addressing state fragility and promoting human rights and good governance, in line with Sustainable Development Goal 16 in the new 2030 Agenda, and establishing closer cooperation with the leaders of local religious organisations and NGOs;

Or. hu

Amendment 182
Francesc Gambús

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 4

Motion for a resolution

4. Stresses that EU development cooperation should continue to address the root causes of forced displacement by promoting peace, democracy and security, reducing poverty and inequality, strengthening basic services, addressing state fragility and promoting human rights and good governance, in line with Sustainable Development Goal 16 in the new 2030 Agenda;

Amendment

4. Stresses that EU development cooperation should continue to address the root causes of forced displacement by promoting peace, conflict resolution, with particular attention paid to post-conflict reconciliation processes, democracy and security, reducing poverty and inequality, strengthening basic services, addressing state fragility and promoting human rights and good governance, in line with Sustainable Development Goal 16 in the new 2030 Agenda;

Or. es

Amendment 183
Kati Piri

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 4

Motion for a resolution

4. Stresses that EU development cooperation should continue to address the root causes of forced displacement by promoting peace, democracy and security, reducing poverty and inequality, strengthening basic services, addressing state fragility and promoting human rights and good governance, in line with Sustainable Development Goal 16 in the new 2030 Agenda;

Amendment

4. Stresses that EU development cooperation should continue to address the root causes of forced displacement by promoting peace, democracy and security, reducing poverty and inequality, strengthening basic services, addressing state fragility and promoting human rights and good governance, in line with Sustainable Development Goal 16 in the new 2030 Agenda; Development cooperation should not be made conditional upon stopping migration flows to Europe;

Or. en

Amendment 184

Louis Michel

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 4

Motion for a resolution

4. Stresses that EU development cooperation should continue to address the root causes of forced displacement by promoting peace, democracy and security, reducing poverty and inequality, strengthening basic services, addressing state fragility and promoting human rights and good governance, in line with Sustainable Development Goal 16 in the new 2030 Agenda;

Amendment

4. Stresses that EU development cooperation should continue to address the root causes of forced displacement by promoting peace, democracy and security, reducing poverty and inequality, strengthening basic services, addressing state fragility and promoting human rights and good governance, in line with Sustainable Development Goal 16 in the new 2030 Agenda; underscores the need to improve policy coherence for development (PCD);

Or. fr

Amendment 185

Hilde Vautmans, Ivo Vajgl, Paavo Väyrynen, Petras Auštrevičius, Marietje Schaake, Javier Nart

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 4

Motion for a resolution

4. Stresses that EU development cooperation should continue to address the root causes of forced displacement by promoting peace, democracy and security, reducing poverty and inequality, strengthening basic services, addressing state fragility and promoting human rights and good governance, in line with Sustainable Development Goal 16 in the new 2030 Agenda;

Amendment

4. Stresses that EU development cooperation should continue to address the root causes of forced displacement by promoting peace, democracy and security, reducing poverty and inequality, strengthening basic services, addressing state fragility and promoting human rights and good governance, in line with Sustainable Development Goal 16 in the new 2030 Agenda; calls therefor for the necessary analyses made per country of those root causes;

Amendment 186
Demetris Papadakis

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 4

Motion for a resolution

4. Stresses that EU development cooperation should continue to address the root causes of forced displacement by promoting peace, democracy and security, reducing poverty and inequality, strengthening basic services, addressing state fragility and promoting human rights and good governance, in line with Sustainable Development Goal 16 in the new 2030 Agenda;

Amendment

4. Stresses that EU development cooperation should continue to address the root causes of forced displacement by promoting peace, democracy and security, political and economic stability and prosperity, reducing poverty and inequality, strengthening basic services, addressing state fragility and promoting human rights, fundamental freedoms and good governance, in line with Sustainable Development Goal 16 in the new 2030 Agenda;

Or. en

Amendment 187
Marina Albiol Guzmán
on behalf of the GUE/NGL Group
Lola Sánchez Caldentey, Stelios Kouloglou

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 4

Motion for a resolution

4. Stresses that EU development cooperation should continue to address the root causes of forced displacement by promoting peace, democracy and security, reducing poverty and inequality, strengthening basic services, addressing state fragility and promoting human rights and good governance, in line with Sustainable Development Goal 16 in the new 2030 Agenda;

Amendment

4. Stresses that EU development cooperation should continue to address the root causes of forced displacement by promoting through civil means peace, democracy and the peoples' sovereignty over their own resources, reducing poverty and inequality, strengthening public basic services, addressing state fragility and promoting human rights and good governance, in line with Sustainable

Amendment 188
Miroslav Poche

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 4

Motion for a resolution

4. Stresses that EU development cooperation should continue to address the root causes of forced displacement by promoting peace, democracy and security, reducing poverty and inequality, strengthening basic services, addressing state fragility and promoting human rights and good governance, in line with Sustainable Development Goal 16 in the new 2030 Agenda;

Amendment

4. Stresses that EU development cooperation should continue to address the root causes of forced displacement by promoting peace, democracy and security, reducing poverty and inequality, strengthening basic services, addressing state fragility and promoting human rights, good governance and the rule of law, in line with Sustainable Development Goal 16 in the new 2030 Agenda;

Amendment 189
Geoffrey Van Orden

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 4

Motion for a resolution

4. Stresses that EU development cooperation should continue to address the root causes of forced displacement by promoting peace, democracy and security, reducing poverty and inequality, strengthening basic services, addressing state fragility and promoting human rights and good governance, in line with Sustainable Development Goal 16 in the new 2030 Agenda;

Amendment

4. Stresses that EU development cooperation should continue to address the root causes of forced displacement by promoting peace, democracy, security, and the rule of law, reducing poverty and corruption, strengthening basic services, addressing state fragility and promoting human rights and good governance, through better targeted and well controlled aid programmes;

Amendment 190

Elena Valenciano, Enrique Guerrero Salom

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 4

Motion for a resolution

4. Stresses that EU development cooperation should continue to address the root causes of forced displacement by promoting peace, democracy and security, reducing poverty and inequality, strengthening basic services, addressing state fragility and promoting human rights and good governance, in line with Sustainable Development Goal 16 in the new 2030 Agenda;

Amendment

4. Stresses that EU development cooperation should continue to address the root causes of forced migration by promoting peace, democracy and security, reducing poverty and inequality, strengthening basic services, addressing state fragility and promoting human rights and good governance, in line with Sustainable Development Goal 16 in the new 2030 Agenda;

Or. en

Amendment 191

Elena Valenciano, Agustín Díaz de Mera García Consuegra

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 4 a (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

4a. Welcomes the EU's commitment to humanitarian assistance – as the world largest donor – and calls on EU and Member States to fulfil the pledges already made and increase their financial commitments in line with the rise in humanitarian needs; notes that the humanitarian response will always be the first element of the response to displacement crises; stresses that international law and the humanitarian principles of humanity, neutrality, impartiality and independence need to remain the guiding framework of the EU's humanitarian response to refugee and forced displacement crises;

Or. en

Amendment 192
Patrizia Toia

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 4 a (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

4a. Welcomes the EU's commitment to humanitarian assistance – as the world largest donor – and calls on EU and Member States to fulfil the pledges already made and increase their financial commitments in line with the rise in humanitarian needs; notes that the humanitarian response will always be the first element of the response to displacement crises; stresses that international law and the humanitarian principles of humanity, neutrality, impartiality and independence need to remain the guiding framework of the EU's humanitarian response to refugee and forced displacement crises;

Or. en

Amendment 193
Louis Michel

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 4 a (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

4a. Stresses the need to establish a framework and make appropriate arrangements in countries of origin for receiving vulnerable and marginalised returned migrants in a dignified way and enabling them to integrate successfully in socio-cultural terms;

Or. fr

Amendment 194

Fabio Massimo Castaldo, Ignazio Corrao, Laura Ferrara

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 4 a (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

4a. Welcomes the EU's commitment to humanitarian assistance – as the world largest donor – but urges EU and Member States to fulfil the pledges already made and increase their financial commitments in line with the rise in humanitarian needs;

Or. en

Amendment 195

Bernd Lucke

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 4 a (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

4a. Emphasizes the fact that the EU is the world's largest donor of humanitarian aid to ameliorate the living conditions of refugees;

Or. en

Amendment 196

Barbara Lochbihler, Heidi Hautala

on behalf of the Verts/ALE Group

Jean Lambert

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 4 a (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

4a. Stresses that EU development cooperation should not be made conditional upon cooperation of third countries on readmission, returns, prevention of irregular migration and border management;

Or. en

Amendment 197
Georgios Epitideios

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 4 a (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

4a. Stresses the important role of the EU in securing an immediate end to the wars that are creating refugees and migrants;

Or. el

Amendment 198
Elena Valenciano, Enrique Guerrero Salom

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 4 b (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

4b. Calls on the Member States to make use of any existing possibilities to provide for humanitarian visas, particularly for vulnerable persons, at Union embassies and consular offices in countries of origin or transit countries;

Or. en

Amendment 199
Geoffrey Van Orden

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 5

Motion for a resolution

5. Stresses the crucial role of women in cases of forced displacement, not only as they are more vulnerable to certain abuse, but also because of the role they play in responding to emergencies, their socioeconomic contributions and their active participation in conflict resolution and prevention; notes that a focus on women's empowerment is therefore necessary to address the deeper causes of forced displacement; reiterates the importance of adding a gender perspective to the EU policies addressing movements of migrants and refugees;

Amendment

5. Stresses the crucial role of women in cases of forced displacement, not only as they are more vulnerable to certain abuse, but also because of the role they play in responding to emergencies, their socioeconomic contributions and their active participation in conflict resolution and prevention;

Or. en

Amendment 200
Bernd Lucke

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 5

Motion for a resolution

5. Stresses the crucial role of women in cases of forced displacement, not only as they are more vulnerable to certain abuse, but also because of the role they play in responding to emergencies, their socioeconomic contributions and their active participation in conflict resolution and prevention; notes that a focus on women's empowerment is therefore necessary to address the deeper causes of forced displacement; reiterates the importance of adding a gender perspective

Amendment

5. Stresses the crucial role of women in cases of forced displacement, not only as they are more vulnerable to certain abuse, but also because of the role they play in responding to emergencies, their socioeconomic contributions and their active participation in conflict resolution and prevention; reiterates the importance of adding a gender perspective to the EU policies addressing movements of migrants and refugees;

to the EU policies addressing movements of migrants and refugees;

Or. en

Amendment 201

Barbara Lochbihler, Heidi Hautala
on behalf of the Verts/ALE Group
Jean Lambert

Motion for a resolution Paragraph 5

Motion for a resolution

5. Stresses the crucial role of women in cases of forced displacement, not only as they are more vulnerable to certain abuse, but also because of the role they play in responding to emergencies, their socioeconomic contributions and their active participation in conflict resolution and prevention; notes that a focus on women's empowerment is therefore necessary to address the deeper causes of forced displacement; reiterates the importance of adding a gender perspective to the EU policies addressing movements of migrants and refugees;

Amendment

5. Stresses the importance of recognizing the gendered dimension of migration, not only women's vulnerability to certain abuse, but also their multivariate reasons for migrating, their role in responding to emergencies, their socioeconomic contributions and their active participation in conflict resolution and prevention; notes that a focus on women's empowerment is therefore necessary to ensure respect for women's rights and their autonomy at every stage of the migration process; reiterates the importance of adding a gender perspective to the EU policies addressing movements of migrants and refugees;

Or. en

Amendment 202 Soraya Post

Motion for a resolution Paragraph 5

Motion for a resolution

5. Stresses the crucial role of women in cases of forced displacement, not only as they are more vulnerable to certain abuse,

Amendment

5. Stresses the crucial role of women in cases of forced displacement, not only as they are more vulnerable to certain abuse,

but also because of the role they play in responding to emergencies, their socioeconomic contributions and their active participation in conflict resolution and prevention; notes that a focus on women's empowerment is therefore necessary to address the deeper causes of forced displacement; reiterates the importance of adding a gender perspective to the EU policies addressing movements of migrants and refugees;

but also because of the role they play in responding to emergencies, their socioeconomic contributions and their active participation in conflict resolution and prevention as well as in post-conflict processes; notes that a focus on women's empowerment and participation is therefore necessary to address the deeper causes of forced displacement; reiterates the importance of adding a gender perspective to the EU policies addressing movements of migrants and refugees;

Or. en

Amendment 203

Louis Michel, Hilde Vautmans

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 5

Motion for a resolution

5. Stresses the crucial role of women in cases of forced displacement, not only as they are more vulnerable to certain abuse, but also because of the role they play in responding to emergencies, their socioeconomic contributions and their active participation in conflict resolution and prevention; notes that a focus on women's empowerment is therefore necessary to address the deeper causes of forced displacement; reiterates the importance of adding a gender perspective to the EU policies addressing movements of migrants and refugees;

Amendment

5. Stresses the crucial role of women in cases of forced displacement, not only as they are more vulnerable to certain abuse, but also because of the role they play in responding to emergencies, their socioeconomic contributions and their active participation in conflict resolution and prevention and the rebuilding of a democratic society; notes that a focus on women's empowerment is therefore necessary to address the deeper causes of forced displacement; reiterates the importance of adding a gender perspective to the EU policies addressing movements of migrants and refugees;

Or. nl

Amendment 204

Mary Honeyball, Iratxe García Pérez

on behalf of the Committee on Women's Rights and Gender Equality

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 5

Motion for a resolution

5. Stresses the crucial role of women in cases of forced displacement, not only as they are more vulnerable to certain abuse, but also because of the role they play in responding to emergencies, their socioeconomic contributions and their active participation in conflict resolution and prevention; notes that a focus on women's empowerment is therefore necessary to address the deeper causes of forced displacement; reiterates the importance of adding a gender perspective to the EU policies addressing movements of migrants and refugees;

Amendment

5. Stresses the crucial role of women with regards to forced displacement, not only as being more vulnerable to certain abuses, but also in regards to the role they play in responding to emergencies, their socioeconomic contributions and their active participation in conflict resolution and prevention; notes that a focus on women's empowerment and greater role as decision-makers is central to addressing the deeper causes of forced displacement and gendered power relations, and that it is necessary that a gender perspective is applied to EU policies on refugee and migrant movements;

Or. en

Amendment 205
Angel Dzhambazki

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 5

Motion for a resolution

5. Stresses the crucial role of women in cases of forced displacement, not only as they are more vulnerable to certain abuse, but also because of the role they play in responding to emergencies, their socioeconomic contributions and their active participation in conflict resolution and prevention; notes that a focus on women's empowerment is therefore necessary to address the deeper causes of forced displacement; reiterates the importance of adding a gender perspective to the EU policies addressing movements of migrants and refugees;

Amendment

5. Stresses the crucial role of women in cases of forced displacement, not only as they are more vulnerable to certain types of abuse, but also because of the role they play in responding to emergencies, their socioeconomic contributions and their active participation in conflict resolution and prevention; notes that a focus on women's empowerment is therefore necessary to address the deeper causes of forced displacement; reiterates the importance of adding a gender perspective to the EU policies addressing movements of migrants and refugees;

Amendment 206
Francesc Gambús

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 5

Motion for a resolution

5. Stresses the crucial role of women in cases of forced displacement, not only as they are more vulnerable to certain abuse, but also because of the role they play in responding to emergencies, their socioeconomic contributions and their active participation in conflict resolution and prevention; notes that a focus on women's empowerment is therefore necessary to address the deeper causes of forced displacement; reiterates the importance of adding a gender perspective to the EU policies addressing movements of migrants and refugees;

Amendment

5. Stresses the crucial role of women in cases of forced displacement, not only as they are more vulnerable to all kinds of abuse, but also because of the role they play in responding to emergencies, their socioeconomic contributions and their active participation in conflict resolution and prevention; notes that a focus on women's empowerment is therefore necessary to address the deeper causes of forced displacement; reiterates the importance of adding a gender perspective to the EU policies addressing movements of migrants and refugees;

Or. es

Amendment 207
Demetris Papadakis

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 5

Motion for a resolution

5. Stresses the crucial role of women in cases of forced displacement, not only as they are more vulnerable to certain abuse, but also because of the role they play in responding to emergencies, their socioeconomic contributions and their active participation in conflict resolution and prevention; notes that a focus on women's empowerment is therefore necessary to address the deeper causes of forced displacement; reiterates the

Amendment

5. Stresses the crucial role of women in cases of forced displacement, not only as they are more vulnerable to certain abuse, but also because of the role they play in responding to emergencies, their socioeconomic contributions and their active participation in conflict resolution and prevention; notes that a focus on women's empowerment is therefore necessary to address the deeper causes of forced displacement; reiterates the importance of adding a gender perspective to the EU policies addressing movements of migrants and refugees; importance of adding a gender as well as a children's perspective to the EU policies addressing movements of migrants and refugees;

Or. en

Amendment 208
Daniel Caspary

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 5

Motion for a resolution

5. Stresses the crucial role of women in cases of forced displacement, not only as they are more vulnerable to certain abuse, but also because of the role they play in responding to emergencies, their socioeconomic contributions and their active participation in conflict resolution and prevention; notes that a focus on women's empowerment is therefore necessary to address the deeper causes of forced displacement; reiterates the importance of adding a gender perspective to the EU policies addressing movements of migrants and refugees;

Amendment

(Does not affect the English version.)

Or. de

Amendment 209
Enrique Guerrero Salom, Doru-Claudian Frunzulică, Juan Fernando López Aguilar, Norbert Neuser

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 5

Motion for a resolution

5. Stresses the crucial role of women in cases of forced displacement, not only as they are more vulnerable to certain abuse, but also because of the role they play in responding to emergencies, their

Amendment

5. Stresses the crucial role of women in cases of forced displacement, not only as they are more vulnerable to certain abuse, but also because of the role they play in responding to emergencies, their socioeconomic contributions and their active participation in conflict resolution and prevention; notes that a focus on women's empowerment is therefore necessary to address the deeper causes of forced displacement; reiterates the importance of adding a gender perspective to the EU policies addressing movements of migrants and refugees;

socioeconomic contributions and their active participation in conflict resolution and prevention; notes that a focus on women's empowerment is therefore necessary to address the deeper causes of forced displacement; reiterates the importance of adding a gender and age perspective to the EU policies addressing movements of migrants and refugees;

Or. en

Amendment 210

Mary Honeyball, Iratxe García Pérez

on behalf of the Committee on Women's Rights and Gender Equality

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 6

Motion for a resolution

6. Recalls that children – particularly unaccompanied ones –, people with disabilities and the elderly are particularly vulnerable to abuse, including sexual and gender-based violence, even once they have reached places deemed secure; calls for these groups to be given special assistance and humanitarian protection as part of their resettlement;

Amendment

6. Recalls that vulnerable groups - including women, unaccompanied minors, people with disabilities and the elderly - are at great risk of sexual and gender based violence, even once they have reached places deemed secure; calls for these groups to be given special assistance and humanitarian protection as a complement to resettlement and to be prioritised in gender-sensitive reception procedures with a greater adherence to minimum standards, and more efficient family reunification provisions;

Or. en

Amendment 211

Marietje Schaake, Hilde Vautmans

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 6

Motion for a resolution

6. Recalls that children – particularly unaccompanied ones –, people with disabilities and the elderly are particularly vulnerable to abuse, including sexual and gender-based violence, even once they have reached places deemed secure; calls for these groups to be given special assistance and humanitarian protection as part of their resettlement;

Amendment

6. Recalls that children – particularly unaccompanied ones –, people with disabilities, LGBTI people and the elderly are particularly vulnerable to abuse, including sexual and gender-based violence, even once they have reached places deemed secure; calls for these groups to be given special assistance and humanitarian protection as part of their resettlement, and to particularly safeguard vulnerable people against violence and discrimination during the asylum process;

Or. en

Amendment 212

Marina Albiol Guzmán

on behalf of the GUE/NGL Group

Lola Sánchez Caldentey, Stelios Kouloglou

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 6

Motion for a resolution

6. Recalls that children – particularly unaccompanied ones –, people with disabilities and the elderly are particularly vulnerable to abuse, including sexual and gender-based violence, even once they have reached places deemed secure; calls for these groups to be given special assistance and humanitarian protection as part of their resettlement;

Amendment

6. Recalls that children – particularly unaccompanied ones –, LGBTI people, people with disabilities and the elderly are particularly vulnerable to abuse, including sexual and gender-based violence, even once they have reached places deemed secure; calls for these groups to be given special assistance and humanitarian protection as part of their resettlement;

Or. en

Amendment 213

Miguel Urbán Crespo

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 6

Motion for a resolution

6. Recalls that children – particularly unaccompanied ones –, people with disabilities and the elderly are particularly vulnerable to abuse, including sexual and gender-based violence, even once they have reached places deemed secure; calls for these groups to be given special assistance and humanitarian protection as part of their resettlement;

Amendment

6. Recalls that children – particularly unaccompanied ones –, people with disabilities, the elderly and LGBTI people are particularly vulnerable to abuse, including sexual and gender-based violence, even once they have reached places deemed secure; calls for these groups to be given special assistance and humanitarian protection as part of their resettlement;

Or. en

Amendment 214

Barbara Lochbihler, Heidi Hautala
on behalf of the Verts/ALE Group
Jean Lambert

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 6

Motion for a resolution

6. Recalls that children – particularly unaccompanied ones –, people with disabilities and the elderly are particularly vulnerable to abuse, including sexual and gender-based violence, even once they have reached places deemed secure; calls for these groups to be given special assistance and humanitarian protection as part of their resettlement;

Amendment

6. Recalls that children – both separated and accompanied by their families –, people with disabilities and the elderly are particularly vulnerable to abuse, including sexual and gender-based violence, even once they have reached places deemed secure; calls for these groups to be given special assistance and be granted access to protection and provided access to a residence status and basic services including health care and education;

Or. en

Amendment 215
Fernando Ruas

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 6

Motion for a resolution

6. Recalls that children – particularly unaccompanied ones –, people with disabilities and the elderly are particularly vulnerable to abuse, including sexual and gender-based violence, even once they have reached places deemed secure; calls for these groups to be given special assistance and humanitarian protection as part of their resettlement;

Amendment

6. Recalls that children – particularly unaccompanied ones –, people with disabilities and the elderly are particularly vulnerable to abuse, including sexual and gender-based violence, even once they have reached places deemed secure; calls for these groups to be given special assistance and greater humanitarian protection as part of their resettlement/integration process;

Or. pt

Amendment 216
Eleni Theocharous, Bernd Lucke

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 6

Motion for a resolution

6. Recalls that children – particularly unaccompanied ones –, people with disabilities and the elderly are particularly vulnerable to abuse, including sexual and gender-based violence, even once they have reached places deemed secure; calls for these groups to be given special assistance and humanitarian protection as part of their resettlement;

Amendment

6. Recalls that children – particularly unaccompanied ones –, people with disabilities and the elderly are particularly vulnerable to abuse, including sexual and gender-based violence and discrimination, even once they have reached places deemed secure; calls for these groups to be given special assistance and humanitarian protection as part of their resettlement;

Or. en

Amendment 217
Geoffrey Van Orden

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 6

Motion for a resolution

6. Recalls that children – particularly unaccompanied ones –, people with disabilities and the elderly are particularly vulnerable to abuse, including sexual and gender-based violence, even once they have reached places deemed secure; calls for these groups to be given special assistance and humanitarian protection as part of their resettlement;

Amendment

6. Recalls that children – particularly unaccompanied ones –, people with disabilities and the elderly are particularly vulnerable to abuse, including sexual and gender-based violence, even once they have reached places deemed secure; believes that there is a danger that children are sometimes exploited by their own families in the migration process;

Or. en

Amendment 218
Angel Dzhambazki

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 6

Motion for a resolution

6. Recalls that children – particularly unaccompanied ones –, people with disabilities and the elderly are particularly vulnerable to abuse, including sexual and gender-based violence, even once they have reached places deemed secure; calls for these groups to be given special assistance and humanitarian protection as part of their resettlement;

Amendment

6. Recalls that children – particularly unaccompanied ones –, people with disabilities and the elderly are particularly vulnerable to abuse, including sexual and gender-based violence, even once they have reached places deemed secure; calls for these groups to be given special assistance and humanitarian protection;

Or. bg

Amendment 219
Louis Aliot

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 6

Motion for a resolution

6. Recalls that children – particularly unaccompanied ones –, people with disabilities and the elderly are particularly

Amendment

6. Recalls that children – particularly unaccompanied ones –, people with disabilities and the elderly are particularly vulnerable to abuse, including sexual and gender-based violence, even once they have reached places deemed secure; calls for these groups to be given special assistance and humanitarian protection as part of their resettlement;

vulnerable to abuse, including sexual and gender-based violence, even once they have reached places deemed secure; calls for these groups to be given special assistance and humanitarian protection in their countries of origin;

Or. fr

Amendment 220
Marietje Schaake, Hilde Vautmans

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 6 – point 1 (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

(1) Underlines the fact that children have an, often overlooked, right to education in their host countries; welcomes the focus on financial support to provide more education and training for Syrian children in the EU-Jordan compact; reiterates that a similar need continues to exist in Lebanon;

Or. en

Amendment 221
Elena Valenciano, Enrique Guerrero Salom

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 6 a (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

6a. Recognises statelessness as a significant human rights challenge; asks the Commission and the EEAS to fight statelessness in all EU external action, in particular by addressing discrimination in nationality laws on the basis of gender, religion or a minority status, by promoting children's right to a nationality and by supporting the UN Refugee Agency

(UNHCR) campaign aimed at ending statelessness by 2024;

Or. en

Amendment 222

Barbara Lochbihler, Heidi Hautala
on behalf of the Verts/ALE Group
Jean Lambert

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 6 a (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

6a. Recognises that children are a significant proportion of migrants and refugees, and specific procedures must be developed and put in place to ensure protection of all children, both unaccompanied and with their parents or other caregivers, regardless of migration status, in line with the UN Convention on the Rights of the Child;

Or. en

Amendment 223

Patrizia Toia

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 6 a (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

6a. Underlines that, in line with EU principles, an overall objective of the EU external migration policies should be to establish a multilateral governance regime for international migration, for which the recent UN High-Level Meeting is a first step;

Or. en

Amendment 224

Elena Valenciano, Agustín Díaz de Mera García Consuegra

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 6 b (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

6b. Underlines that, in line with EU principles, an overall objective of the EU external migration policies should be to establish a multilateral governance regime for international migration, for which the recent UN High-Level Meeting is a first step;

Or. en

Amendment 225

Bernd Lucke

Motion for a resolution

Subheading 2

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

Better managed international migration: a global responsibility

Better managed international migration:
Much room for improvement for the EU and its Member States

Or. en

Amendment 226

Notis Marias

Motion for a resolution

Subheading 2

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

Better managed international migration: a global responsibility

Better managed international migration:

Amendment 227Louis Aliot*Motion for a resolution*Paragraph 7Motion for a resolution*

7. Welcomes the UN General Assembly High-Level Meeting to Address Large Movements of Refugees and Migrants of 19 September 2016 and the hosting of the Leaders' Summit by the USA, as migration flows are a global responsibility which demand a global response and enhanced cooperation between all stakeholders; welcomes the outcome of these summits as the expression of a political commitment of unprecedented force, initiating the path towards a truly international sharing of responsibilities for refugees and large migration movements; regrets however the lack of specific pledges or legally binding commitments in terms of aid or reform, which are needed to close the current gap between rhetoric and reality; calls on all the parties involved to ensure continued political engagement, funding and concrete acts of solidarity in support of host countries; calls for the EU and its Member States to take the lead in international efforts, particularly as regards ensuring that the agreements – including the future compacts on refugees and on safe, orderly and regular migration – are swiftly put into practice, establishing follow-up mechanisms as needed;

Amendment

7. Welcomes the UN General Assembly High-Level Meeting to Address Large Movements of Refugees and Migrants of 19 September 2016 and the hosting of the Leaders' Summit by the USA, as migration flows are a global responsibility which demand a global response and enhanced cooperation between all stakeholders; insists that third countries should take on a larger share of the work of receiving migrants;

Amendment 228
Geoffrey Van Orden

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 7

Motion for a resolution

7. Welcomes the UN General Assembly High-Level Meeting to Address Large Movements of Refugees and Migrants of 19 September 2016 and the hosting of the Leaders' Summit by the USA, as migration flows are a global responsibility which demand a global response and enhanced cooperation between all stakeholders; welcomes the outcome of these summits as the expression of a political commitment of unprecedented force, initiating the path towards a truly international sharing of responsibilities for refugees and large migration movements; regrets however the lack of specific pledges or legally binding commitments in terms of aid or reform, which are needed to close the current gap between rhetoric and reality; calls on all the parties involved to ensure continued political engagement, funding and concrete acts of solidarity in support of host countries; calls for the EU and its Member States to take the lead in international efforts, particularly as regards ensuring that the agreements – including the future compacts on refugees and on safe, orderly and regular migration – are swiftly put into practice, establishing follow-up mechanisms as needed;

Amendment

7. Recognises the UN General Assembly High-Level Meeting to Address Large Movements of Refugees and Migrants of 19 September 2016 and the hosting of the Leaders' Summit by the USA, as migration flows are a global responsibility which demand a global response and enhanced cooperation between all stakeholders; welcomes the outcome of these summits as the expression of a political commitment of unprecedented force, initiating the path towards a truly international sharing of responsibilities for refugees and large migration movements; calls for Member States to take the lead in international efforts, as well as ensuring that agreements –including the future compacts on refugees and on controlled migration – are swiftly put into practice, establishing follow-up mechanisms as needed;

Or. en

Amendment 229
Georgios Epitideios

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 7

Motion for a resolution

7. Welcomes the UN General Assembly High-Level Meeting to Address Large Movements of Refugees and Migrants of 19 September 2016 and the hosting of the Leaders' Summit by the USA, as migration flows are a global responsibility which demand a global response and enhanced cooperation between all stakeholders; welcomes the outcome of these summits as the expression of a political commitment of unprecedented force, initiating the path towards a truly international sharing of responsibilities for refugees and large migration movements; regrets however the lack of specific pledges or legally binding commitments in terms of aid or reform, which are needed to close the current gap between rhetoric and reality; calls on all the parties involved to ensure continued political engagement, funding and concrete acts of solidarity in support of host countries; calls for the EU and its Member States to take the lead in international efforts, particularly as regards ensuring that the agreements –including the future compacts on refugees and on safe, orderly and regular migration – are swiftly put into practice, establishing follow-up mechanisms as needed;

Amendment

7. Welcomes the UN General Assembly High-Level Meeting to Address Large Movements of Refugees and Migrants of 19 September 2016 and the hosting of the Leaders' Summit by the USA, as migration flows are a global responsibility which demand a global response and enhanced cooperation between all stakeholders; welcomes the outcome of these summits as the expression of a political commitment of unprecedented force, initiating the path towards a truly international sharing of responsibilities for refugees and large migration movements; regrets however the lack of specific pledges or legally binding commitments in terms of aid or reform, which are needed to close the current gap between rhetoric and reality; calls on all the parties involved to ensure continued political engagement, funding and concrete acts of solidarity in support of host countries; and also for their rapid distribution among the other EU countries in line with the absorption capacity of each country and calls for the EU and its Member States to take the lead in international efforts, particularly as regards ensuring that the agreements – including the future compacts on refugees and on safe, orderly and regular migration – are swiftly put into practice, establishing follow-up mechanisms as needed; especially in Greece where, due to the large number of refugees and migrants, the State is unable to look after them and their situation is tragic;

Or. el

Amendment 230
Marietje Schaake, Hilde Vautmans

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 7

Motion for a resolution

7. Welcomes the UN General Assembly High-Level Meeting to Address Large Movements of Refugees and Migrants of 19 September 2016 and the hosting of the Leaders' Summit by the USA, as migration flows are a global responsibility which demand a global response and enhanced cooperation between all stakeholders; welcomes the outcome of these summits as the expression of a political commitment of unprecedented force, initiating the path towards a truly international sharing of responsibilities for refugees and large migration movements; regrets however the lack of specific pledges or legally binding commitments in terms of aid or reform, which are needed to close the current gap between rhetoric and reality; calls on all the parties involved to ensure continued political engagement, funding and concrete acts of solidarity in support of host countries; calls for the EU and its Member States to take the lead in international efforts, particularly as regards ensuring that the agreements –including the future compacts on refugees and on safe, orderly and regular migration – are swiftly put into practice, establishing follow-up mechanisms as needed;

Amendment

7. Takes note of the UN General Assembly High-Level Meeting to Address Large Movements of Refugees and Migrants of 19 September 2016 and the hosting of the Leaders' Summit by the USA, as migration flows are a global responsibility which demand a global response and enhanced cooperation between all stakeholders; welcomes the outcome of these summits as the expression of a political commitment of unprecedented force, initiating the path towards a truly international sharing of responsibilities for refugees and large migration movements; regrets however the lack of specific pledges or legally binding commitments in terms of (financial) aid or reform, which are needed to close the current gap between rhetoric and reality; calls on all the parties involved to ensure continued political engagement, funding and concrete acts of solidarity in support of host countries; calls for the EU and its Member States to take the lead in international efforts;

Or. en

Amendment 231
Eleni Theocharous, Bernd Lucke

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 7

Motion for a resolution

7. Welcomes the UN General

AM\1107657EN.docx

Amendment

7. Welcomes the UN General

123/137

PE592.248v02-00

Assembly High-Level Meeting to Address Large Movements of Refugees and Migrants of 19 September 2016 and the hosting of the Leaders' Summit by the USA, as migration flows are a global responsibility which demand a global response and enhanced cooperation between all stakeholders; welcomes the outcome of these summits as the expression of a political commitment of unprecedented force, initiating the path towards a truly international sharing of responsibilities for refugees and large migration movements; regrets however the lack of specific pledges or legally binding commitments in terms of aid or reform, which are needed to close the current gap between rhetoric and reality; calls on all the parties involved to ensure continued political engagement, funding and concrete acts of solidarity in support of host countries; calls for the EU and its Member States to take the lead in international efforts, particularly as regards ensuring that the agreements –including the future compacts on refugees and on safe, orderly and regular migration – are swiftly put into practice, establishing follow-up mechanisms as needed;

Assembly High-Level Meeting to Address Large Movements of Refugees and Migrants of 19 September 2016 and the hosting of the Leaders' Summit by the USA, as migration flows are a global responsibility which demand a global response and enhanced cooperation between all stakeholders; welcomes the outcome of these summits as the expression of a political commitment of unprecedented force, initiating the path towards a truly international sharing of responsibilities for refugees and large migration movements; deeply regrets however the lack of specific pledges or legally binding commitments in terms of aid or reform, which are needed to close the current gap between rhetoric and reality; calls on all the parties involved to ensure continued political engagement, and cooperation, exchange of knowledge and experience with partner countries, CSOs and local authorities, funding and concrete acts of solidarity in support of host countries; calls for the EU and its Member States to take the lead in international efforts, particularly as regards ensuring that the agreements –including the future compacts on refugees and on safe, orderly and regular migration – are swiftly put into practice, establishing follow-up mechanisms as needed;

Or. en

Amendment 232
Miguel Urbán Crespo

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 7

Motion for a resolution

7. Welcomes the UN General Assembly High-Level Meeting to Address Large Movements of Refugees and Migrants of 19 September 2016 and the

Amendment

7. Welcomes the UN General Assembly High-Level Meeting to Address Large Movements of Refugees and Migrants of 19 September 2016 and the hosting of the Leaders' Summit by the USA, as migration flows are a global responsibility which demand a global response and enhanced cooperation between all stakeholders; welcomes the outcome of these summits as the expression of a political commitment of unprecedented force, initiating the path towards a truly international sharing of responsibilities for refugees and large migration movements; regrets however the lack of specific pledges or legally binding commitments in terms of aid or reform, which are needed to close the current gap between rhetoric and reality; calls on all the parties involved to ensure continued political engagement, funding and concrete acts of solidarity in support of host countries; calls for the EU and its Member States to take the lead in international efforts, particularly as regards ensuring that the agreements –including the future compacts on refugees and on safe, orderly and regular migration – are swiftly put into practice, establishing follow-up mechanisms as needed;

hosting of the Leaders' Summit by the USA, as migration flows are a global responsibility which demand a global response and enhanced cooperation between all stakeholders; welcomes the outcome of these summits as the expression of a political commitment of unprecedented force, initiating the path towards a truly international sharing of responsibilities for refugees and large migration movements; regrets however the lack of specific pledges or legally binding commitments in terms of aid or reform, which are needed to close the current gap between rhetoric and reality; calls on all the parties involved to ensure continued political engagement, funding and concrete acts of solidarity in support of host countries; calls for the EU and its Member States to take the lead in international efforts, particularly as regards ensuring that the agreements –including the future compacts on refugees and on safe, orderly and regular migration – are swiftly put into practice through concrete and tangible establishment of safe and legal avenues to the EU including by the issuing of humanitarian visas, establishing follow-up mechanisms as needed;

Or. en

Amendment 233

Fabio Massimo Castaldo, Ignazio Corrao, Laura Ferrara

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 7

Motion for a resolution

7. Welcomes the UN General Assembly High-Level Meeting to Address Large Movements of Refugees and Migrants of 19 September 2016 and the hosting of the Leaders' Summit by the USA, as migration flows are a global responsibility which demand a global

Amendment

7. Welcomes the UN General Assembly High-Level Meeting to Address Large Movements of Refugees and Migrants of 19 September 2016 and the hosting of the Leaders' Summit by the USA, as migration flows are a global responsibility which demand a global response and enhanced cooperation between all stakeholders; welcomes the outcome of these summits as the expression of a political commitment of unprecedented force, initiating the path towards a truly international sharing of responsibilities for refugees and large migration movements; regrets however the lack of specific pledges or legally binding commitments in terms of aid or reform, which are needed to close the current gap between rhetoric and reality; calls on all the parties involved to ensure continued political engagement, funding and concrete acts of solidarity in support of host countries; calls for the EU and its Member States to take the lead in international efforts, particularly as regards ensuring that the agreements –including the future compacts on refugees and on safe, orderly and regular migration – are swiftly put into practice, establishing follow-up mechanisms as needed; response and enhanced cooperation between all stakeholders; welcomes the fact that these summits are convened as the expression of a political commitment of unprecedented force and hopes that this will urgently initiate the path towards a truly international sharing of responsibilities for refugees and large migration movements; regrets however the lack of specific pledges or legally binding commitments in terms of aid or reform, which are needed to close the current gap between rhetoric and reality; calls on all the parties involved to ensure continued urgent and effective political engagement, funding and concrete acts of solidarity in support of host countries; calls for the EU and its Member States to take the lead in international efforts, particularly as regards ensuring that the agreements – including the future compacts on refugees and on safe, orderly and regular migration – are swiftly put into practice, with respect for human rights and establishing follow-up mechanisms as needed;

Or. it

Amendment 234

Marina Albiol Guzmán

on behalf of the GUE/NGL Group

Lola Sánchez Caldentey, Stelios Kouloglou

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 7

Motion for a resolution

7. Welcomes the UN General Assembly High-Level Meeting to Address Large Movements of Refugees and Migrants of 19 September 2016 and the hosting of the Leaders' Summit by the USA, as migration flows are a global responsibility which demand a global response and enhanced cooperation between all stakeholders; welcomes the outcome of these summits as the

Amendment

7. Welcomes the UN General Assembly High-Level Meeting to Address Large Movements of Refugees and Migrants of 19 September 2016 and the hosting of the Leaders' Summit by the USA, as migration flows are a global responsibility which demand a global response and enhanced cooperation between all stakeholders; welcomes the outcome of these summits as the expression of a political commitment of unprecedented force, initiating the path towards a truly international sharing of responsibilities for refugees and large migration movements; regrets however the lack of specific pledges or legally binding commitments in terms of aid or reform, which are needed to close the current gap between rhetoric and reality; calls on all the parties involved to ensure continued political engagement, funding and concrete acts of solidarity in support of host countries; calls for the EU and its Member States to take the lead in international efforts, particularly as regards ensuring that the agreements –including the future compacts on refugees and on safe, orderly and regular migration – are swiftly put into practice, establishing follow-up mechanisms as needed;

expression of a political commitment of unprecedented force, initiating the path towards a truly international sharing of responsibilities for refugees and large migration movements; regrets however the lack of specific pledges or legally binding commitments in terms of aid or reform, which are needed to close the current gap between rhetoric and reality; calls on all the parties involved to ensure continued political engagement, funding and concrete acts of solidarity in support of host countries; calls for the EU and its Member States to take the lead in international efforts, particularly as regards ensuring that the agreements –including the future compacts on refugees and on safe and orderly migration – are swiftly put into practice through the swift creation of safe ways of access to the EU and the issuing of visas, establishing follow-up mechanisms as needed;

Or. en

Amendment 235
Fernando Ruas

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 7

Motion for a resolution

7. Welcomes the UN General Assembly High-Level Meeting to Address Large Movements of Refugees and Migrants of 19 September 2016 and the hosting of the Leaders' Summit by the USA, as migration flows are a global responsibility which demand a global response and enhanced cooperation between all stakeholders; welcomes the outcome of these summits as the expression of a political commitment of unprecedented force, initiating the path towards a truly international sharing of responsibilities for refugees and large

Amendment

7. Welcomes the UN General Assembly High-Level Meeting to Address Large Movements of Refugees and Migrants of 19 September 2016 and the hosting of the Leaders' Summit by the USA, as migration flows are a global responsibility which demand a global response and enhanced cooperation between all stakeholders; welcomes the outcome of these summits as the expression of a genuine political commitment of unprecedented force, initiating the path towards a truly global response and international sharing of migration movements; regrets however the lack of specific pledges or legally binding commitments in terms of aid or reform, which are needed to close the current gap between rhetoric and reality; calls on all the parties involved to ensure continued political engagement, funding and concrete acts of solidarity in support of host countries; calls for the EU and its Member States to take the lead in international efforts, particularly as regards ensuring that the agreements –including the future compacts on refugees and on safe, orderly and regular migration – are swiftly put into practice, establishing follow-up mechanisms as needed; responsibilities for refugees and large migration movements throughout the world; regrets however the lack of specific pledges or legally binding commitments in terms of aid or reform, which are needed to close the current gap between rhetoric and reality; calls on all the parties involved to ensure continued political engagement, funding and concrete acts of solidarity in support of host countries; calls for the EU and its Member States to take the lead in international efforts, particularly as regards ensuring that the agreements –including the future compacts on refugees and on safe, orderly and regular migration – are swiftly put into practice, establishing continuous follow-up mechanisms as needed;

Or. pt

Amendment 236

Barbara Lochbihler, Heidi Hautala

on behalf of the Verts/ALE Group

Jean Lambert

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 7

Motion for a resolution

7. Welcomes the UN General Assembly High-Level Meeting to Address Large Movements of Refugees and Migrants of 19 September 2016 and the hosting of the Leaders' Summit by the USA, as migration flows are a global responsibility which demand a global response and enhanced cooperation between all stakeholders; welcomes the outcome of these summits as the expression of a political commitment of unprecedented force, initiating the path towards a truly international sharing of responsibilities for refugees and large migration movements; regrets however the lack of specific pledges or legally binding commitments in terms of aid or reform, which are needed to close the current gap

Amendment

7. Welcomes the UN General Assembly High-Level Meeting to Address Large Movements of Refugees and Migrants of 19 September 2016 and the hosting of the Leaders' Summit by the USA, as migration flows are a global responsibility which demand a global response and enhanced cooperation between all stakeholders; welcomes the outcome of these summits as the expression of a political commitment of unprecedented force, initiating the path towards a truly international sharing of responsibilities for refugees and large migration movements; regrets however the lack of specific pledges or legally binding commitments in terms of aid or reform, which are needed to close the current gap between rhetoric and reality; calls on all the parties involved to ensure continued political engagement, funding and concrete acts of solidarity in support of host countries; calls for the EU and its Member States to take the lead in international efforts, particularly as regards ensuring that the agreements –including the future compacts on refugees and on safe, orderly and regular migration – are swiftly put into practice, establishing follow-up mechanisms as needed;

between rhetoric and reality; calls on all the parties involved to ensure continued political engagement, funding and concrete acts of solidarity in support of host countries; calls for the EU and its Member States to take the lead in international efforts, particularly as regards ensuring that the agreements –including the future UN compacts on refugees and on safe, orderly and regular migration – are grounded in human rights, and are swiftly developed and put into practice, establishing follow-up mechanisms as needed;

Or. en

Amendment 237
Bernd Lucke

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 7

Motion for a resolution

7. Welcomes the UN General Assembly High-Level Meeting to Address Large Movements of Refugees and Migrants of 19 September 2016 and the hosting of the Leaders' Summit by the USA, as migration flows are a global responsibility which demand a global response and enhanced cooperation between all stakeholders; welcomes the outcome of these summits as the expression of a political commitment of unprecedented force, initiating the path towards a truly international sharing of responsibilities for refugees and large migration movements; regrets however the lack of specific pledges or legally binding commitments in terms of aid or reform, which are needed to close the current gap between rhetoric and reality; calls on all the parties involved to ensure continued political engagement, funding and concrete acts of solidarity in support of host countries; calls for the EU and its Member

Amendment

7. Welcomes the UN General Assembly High-Level Meeting to Address Large Movements of Refugees and Migrants of 19 September 2016 and the hosting of the Leaders' Summit by the USA, as migration flows are a global responsibility which demand a global response and enhanced cooperation between all stakeholders; welcomes the outcome of these summits as the expression of a political commitment of unprecedented force, initiating the path towards a truly international sharing of responsibilities for refugees and large migration movements; regrets however the lack of specific pledges or legally binding commitments in terms of aid or reform; calls on all the parties involved to ensure continued political engagement, funding and concrete acts of solidarity in support of host countries; calls for the EU and its Member States to take the lead in international efforts, particularly as regards

States to take the lead in international efforts, particularly as regards ensuring that the agreements –including the future compacts on refugees and on safe, orderly and regular migration – are swiftly put into practice, establishing follow-up mechanisms as needed; ensuring that the agreements –including the future compacts on refugees and on safe, orderly and regular migration – are swiftly put into practice, establishing follow-up mechanisms as needed;

Or. en

Amendment 238
Ramona Nicole Mănescu

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 7

Motion for a resolution

7. Welcomes the UN General Assembly High-Level Meeting to Address Large Movements of Refugees and Migrants of 19 September 2016 and the hosting of the Leaders' Summit by the USA, as migration flows are a global responsibility which demand a global response and enhanced cooperation between all stakeholders; welcomes the outcome of these summits as the expression of a political commitment of unprecedented force, initiating the path towards a truly international sharing of responsibilities for refugees and large migration movements; regrets however the lack of specific pledges or legally binding commitments in terms of aid or reform, which are needed to close the current gap between rhetoric and reality; calls on all the parties involved to ensure continued political engagement, funding and concrete acts of solidarity in support of host countries; calls for the EU and its Member States to take the lead in international efforts, particularly as regards ensuring that the agreements –including the future compacts on refugees and on safe, orderly and regular migration – are swiftly put into practice, establishing follow-up

Amendment

7. Welcomes the UN General Assembly High-Level Meeting to Address Large Movements of Refugees and Migrants of 19 September 2016 and the hosting of the Leaders' Summit by the USA, as migration flows are a global responsibility which demand an effective global response and enhanced cooperation between all stakeholders for a sustainable solution; welcomes the outcome of these summits as the expression of a political commitment of unprecedented force, initiating the path towards a truly international sharing of responsibilities for refugees and large migration movements; regrets however the lack of specific pledges or legally binding commitments in terms of aid or reform, which are needed to close the current gap between rhetoric and reality; calls on all the parties involved to ensure continued political engagement, funding and concrete acts of solidarity in support of host countries; calls for the EU and its Member States to take the lead in international efforts, particularly as regards ensuring that the agreements –including the future compacts on refugees and on safe, orderly and regular migration – are swiftly put into practice, establishing follow-up mechanisms as needed;

mechanisms as needed;

Or. en

Amendment 239

Notis Marias

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 7

Motion for a resolution

7. Welcomes the UN General Assembly High-Level Meeting to Address Large Movements of Refugees and Migrants of 19 September 2016 and the hosting of the Leaders' Summit by the USA, as migration flows are a global responsibility which demand a global response and enhanced cooperation between all stakeholders; welcomes the outcome of these summits as the expression of a political commitment of unprecedented force, initiating the path towards a truly international sharing of responsibilities for refugees and large migration movements; regrets however the lack of specific pledges or legally binding commitments in terms of aid or reform, which are needed to close the current gap between rhetoric and reality; calls on all the parties involved to ensure continued political engagement, funding and concrete acts of solidarity in support of host countries; calls for the EU and its Member States to take the lead in international efforts, particularly as regards ensuring that the agreements –including the future compacts on refugees and on safe, orderly and regular migration – are swiftly put into practice, establishing follow-up mechanisms as needed;

Amendment

7. Notes the outcome of the UN General Assembly High-Level Meeting to Address Large Movements of Refugees and Migrants of 19 September 2016 and the hosting of the Leaders' Summit by the USA, as migration flows are a global responsibility which demand a global response and enhanced cooperation between all stakeholders; welcomes the outcome of these summits as the expression of a political commitment of unprecedented force, initiating the path towards a truly international sharing of responsibilities for refugees and large migration movements; regrets however the lack of specific pledges or legally binding commitments in terms of aid or reform, which are needed to close the current gap between rhetoric and reality; calls on all the parties involved to ensure continued political engagement, funding and concrete acts of solidarity in support of host countries; calls for the EU and its Member States to take the lead in international efforts, particularly as regards ensuring that the agreements –including the future compacts on refugees and on safe, orderly and regular migration – are swiftly put into practice, establishing follow-up mechanisms as needed;

Or. el

Amendment 240

Kati Piri

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 7

Motion for a resolution

7. Welcomes the UN General Assembly High-Level Meeting to Address Large Movements of Refugees and Migrants of 19 September 2016 and the hosting of the Leaders' Summit by the USA, as migration flows are a global responsibility which demand a global response and enhanced cooperation between all stakeholders; welcomes the outcome of these summits as the expression of a political commitment of unprecedented force, initiating the path towards a truly international sharing of responsibilities for refugees and large migration movements; regrets however the lack of specific pledges or legally binding commitments in terms of aid or reform, which are needed to close the current gap between rhetoric and reality; calls on all the parties involved to ensure continued political engagement, funding and concrete acts of solidarity in support of host countries; calls for the EU and its Member States to take the lead in international efforts, particularly as regards ensuring that the agreements –including the future compacts on refugees and on safe, orderly and regular migration – are swiftly put into practice, establishing follow-up mechanisms as needed;

Amendment

7. Welcomes the UN General Assembly High-Level Meeting to Address Large Movements of Refugees and Migrants of 19 September 2016 and the hosting of the Leaders' Summit by the USA, as migration flows are a global responsibility which demand a global response and enhanced cooperation between all stakeholders; welcomes the outcome of these summits as the expression of a political commitment of unprecedented force, initiating the path towards a truly international sharing of responsibilities for refugees and large migration movements; deeply regrets however the lack of specific pledges or legally binding commitments in terms of aid or reform, which are needed to close the current gap between rhetoric and reality; calls on all the parties involved to ensure political engagement, funding and concrete acts of solidarity in support of host countries; calls for the EU and its Member States to take the lead in international efforts, particularly as regards ensuring that the agreements –including the future compacts on refugees and on safe, orderly and regular migration – are swiftly put into practice, establishing follow-up mechanisms as needed;

Or. en

Amendment 241

Paavo Väyrynen

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 7 a (new)

7a. Calls for the use of reception centres and refugee camps for avoiding illegal immigration and perilous journeys over the Mediterranean; calls for better resourcing of the existing refugee camps in order to offer their inhabitants decent life with proper housing, nutrition, health care and education; calls for the establishment of new high level reception centres and refugee camps in Northern Africa and the Middle East as well as in the Balkans in cooperation with the UNHCR and the other relevant UN bodies, regional organizations and the governments concerned; suggests that the right for asylum should be decided in these centres and camps; calls on all EU Member States to receive refugees from them in the framework of a national UNHCR quotas;

Or. en

Amendment 242
Mariya Gabriel

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 7 a (new)

7a. Calls on the Union to focus, too, on cooperating with regional organisations, including the African Union, the Gulf Cooperation Council and the Arab League, and encouraging them to mobilise to the full; notes that the economic integration of sub-regional entities, particularly in Africa, offers a further means of promoting a joint-management approach and encouraging South-South initiatives on migration management and mobility; enjoins the EU to seek a stronger and more credible role for the African Union in preventing political crises in Africa;

Or. fr

Amendment 243

Elena Valenciano, Agustín Díaz de Mera García Consuegra

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 7 a (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

7a. Stresses that global cooperation should be built-up upon regional and sub-regional cooperation and mobility frameworks, including those between developing regions; calls on the Commission to strengthen cooperation frameworks with regional organisations such as the African Union, League of Arab States, Gulf Cooperation Council that can also encourage the management of intra-regional mobility, with the African continent as a priority; expresses support for the reinforcement of initiatives of South-South mobility;

Or. en

Amendment 244

Patrizia Toia

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 7 a (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

7a. Stresses that global cooperation should be built-up upon regional and sub-regional cooperation and mobility frameworks, including those between developing regions; calls on the Commission to strengthen cooperation frameworks with regional organisations such as the African Union, League of

Arab States, Gulf Cooperation Council that can also encourage the management of intra-regional mobility, with the African continent as a priority; expresses support for the reinforcement of initiatives of South-South mobility;

Or. en

Amendment 245

Bernd Lucke

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 7 a (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

7a. Calls on the EU and its Member States to demonstrate by words and deeds that the Common European Asylum System (CEAS) must not and will not be abused by people who falsely pretend to be victims of persecution;

Or. en

Amendment 246

Laurențiu Rebegea

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 7 a (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

7a. Calls for politicians in countries which launch military operations by regular armed forces that trigger migration and forced population displacements to be held accountable for this;

Or. ro

Amendment 247

Jerzy Buzek

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 7 a (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

7a. Stresses the need to properly address and distinguish the difference between refugees and economic migrants in the policymaking process;

Or. en

Amendment 248

Elena Valenciano, Enrique Guerrero Salom

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 7 b (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

7b. Underlines that the EU can benefit from closer cooperation and synergy with multilateral development banks and specialized UN bodies, in particular the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees (UNHCR) and the now UN-related International Organization for Migration (IOM); takes note of the recent ideas by the World Bank on the situation of forcibly displaced people and welcomes the recognition of the need to develop mitigation and asylum policies that support the forcibly displaced people to integrate and, at same time, the host communities to meet their development goals;

Or. en

Amendment 249

Bernd Lucke

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 7 b (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

7b. Calls on the EU and its Member States to make every effort to identify people who have deliberately destroyed their identity documents or who lie about their country of origin or about the persecution they claim to have suffered; calls on the EU and its Member States to make every effort to return these people to where they come from or to any other safe country outside of the EU;

Or. en

Amendment 250
Laurențiu Rebegea

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 7 b (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

7b. Calls for the condemnation of any group which artificially stimulates or incites migratory movements or forced population displacements in order to extract direct or indirect benefit from this;

Or. ro