AMENDMENTS

1 - 38

Draft opinion

Morten Løkkegaard

2019 budget - Trilogue mandate
(2018/2024(BUD))

Amendment 1
Luigi Morgano

Draft opinion
Paragraph –1 (new)

Draft opinion

Amendment

-1. Points out that programmes in the fields of education, youth, culture and citizenship remain vital as ways of increasing awareness of the common European identity across the board;

Or. it

Amendment 2
Luigi Morgano

Draft opinion
Paragraph –1 a (new)

Draft opinion

Amendment

-1a. Recalls, inter alia in the light of its 30th anniversary celebrations, that Erasmus + remains the main programme for promoting youth mobility, as demonstrated by the volume of applications received, which exceeds the funding available; recalls furthermore that Erasmus + funding levels are now reaching their peak for the current multiannual financial framework (MFF); considers, therefore, that the budget of Erasmus + for 2019 should be at least doubled to cover eligible applications to participate in the programme, in particular with regard to continuous training and the youth sector, including non-formal education, and to ensure greater participation by vulnerable groups, particularly young people with disabilities;

Amendment 3
Luigi Morgano, Silvia Costa

Draft opinion
Paragraph 1

Draft opinion

1. Recalls that Erasmus+ funding levels are now reaching their peak for the current multiannual financial framework (MFF); calls for the remaining top-up funding for the programme under the MFF revision to be allocated in 2019; reiterates its call for substantial additional funding for Erasmus+ in the next MFF, given the popularity of the programme and its capacity to build a European sense of belonging and enhance job prospects;

Amendment

1. Considers that the budget allocation to Erasmus + should be increased tenfold in the next MFF, given the popularity of the programme and its capacity at the same time to build a European sense of belonging and enhance the job prospects of the young people participating in it;

Amendment 4
Bogdan Andrzej Zdrojewski, Bogdan Brunon Went

Paragraph 1

Draft opinion

1. Recalls that Erasmus+ funding levels are now reaching their peak for the current multiannual financial framework (MFF); calls for the remaining top-up funding for the programme under the MFF revision to be allocated in 2019; reiterates its call for substantial additional funding for Erasmus+ in the next MFF, given the popularity of the programme and its capacity to build a European sense of belonging and enhance job prospects;

Amendment

1. Recalls that Erasmus+ funding levels are now reaching their peak for the current multiannual financial framework (MFF); calls for the remaining top-up funding for the programme under the MFF revision to be allocated in 2019; reiterates its call for the funding for Erasmus+ to at least be tripled in the next MFF, given the popularity of the programme and its capacity to build a European sense of belonging and enhance job prospects;

Amendment 7
Dominique Bilde

Draft opinion
Paragraph 1 a (new)

Draft opinion

Amendment

1a. Emphasises the need to guarantee the integrity of funding under Erasmus+, the budget of which must not be used to fund any other programme, in particular the European Solidarity Corps, which has not been proven to be effective with regard to training and curbing youth unemployment in Europe;

Or. fr

Amendment 8
Helga Trüpel

Draft opinion
Paragraph 1 a (new)

Draft opinion

Amendment

1a. Stipulates, moreover, the need to provide the so-called European Solidarity Corps, presently under negotiation, with its own budget line and its own resources, composed of the previous European Voluntary Service funds under Erasmus+ and further funds coming exclusively from unallocated margins;

Or. en

Amendment 9
Dominique Bilde

Draft opinion
Paragraph 1 b (new)

Draft opinion

Amendment

1b. Points out that, with regard to the social inequalities inherent in access to academic mobility programmes, especially in the most economically disadvantaged Member States, it is important that the benefits of the Erasmus+ programme and of all other programmes or any other form of mobility assistance are strictly reserved for the citizens of Member States and no one else;

Or. fr

Amendment 10
Luigi Morgano, Silvia Costa

Draft opinion
Paragraph 2

Draft opinion

Amendment

2. Stresses the value of Creative Europe in supporting the EU's audiovisual and cultural sectors; insists that funding levels match the ambitions of the programme; considers that reinforcement of the cross-sectoral strand will enable the Commission to scale up efforts to tackle fake news, both through enhanced media literacy work and by fostering sectoral dialogue;

2. Stresses the value of Creative Europe in supporting the EU's audiovisual and cultural sectors; insists that funding levels match the ambitions of the programme, in particular for the Culture sub-programme, which is chronically under-financed, and which consequently has difficulty in achieving satisfactory success rates, frustrating the expectations of candidates; considers that reinforcement of the cross-sectoral strand will enable the Commission to scale up efforts to tackle fake news, both through enhanced media literacy work and by fostering sectoral dialogue; believes, finally, that the exploitation of synergies between EFSI and the guarantee mechanism for the creative cultural sector should continue, including the aspect of training of banking and financial intermediaries to teach them to assess intangible assets correctly, so as to enable the cultural and creative industries to fully express their dual value in protecting and highlighting expression and European cultural and linguistic diversity, and quality job creation and generation of sustainable growth, as well as the development of innovation and production;

Stresses the value of Creative Europe in supporting the EU's audiovisual and cultural sectors; insists that funding levels match the ambitions of the programme; considers that reinforcement of the cross-sectoral strand will enable the Commission to scale up efforts to tackle fake news, both through enhanced media literacy work and by fostering sectoral dialogue;

Amendment

2. Stresses the value of Creative Europe in supporting the EU's audiovisual and cultural sectors; insists that funding levels match the ambitions of the programme; reaffirms in this context its alarm at the chronically low project success rates under the Europe for Citizens programme and the Creative Europe Culture sub-programme; stresses that low success rates cause frustration among applicants and are symptomatic of inadequate levels of financing, which does not correspond to the ambitious goals of the programmes; considers that reinforcement of the cross-sectoral strand of the Creative Europe programme will enable the Commission to scale up efforts to tackle fake news, both through enhanced media literacy work and by fostering sectoral dialogue;

Paragraph 3 a (new)

Draft opinion

Amendment

3a. In the light of the seriously deteriorating situation of press and media freedom in Europe, calls for the existence of the Centre for Media Pluralism and Media Freedom in Florence (CMPF) and the European Centre for Press and Media Freedom in Leipzig (ECPMF) to be safeguarded for the remainder of the MFF and for additional funding to be made available in 2019; notes that these centres complement each other perfectly in their activities and urges the Commission to guarantee them a long-term financing basis in the next MFF to enable them to develop as independently as possible as effective European instruments to safeguard media freedom and media pluralism and provide journalists in hazardous situations with tailor-made assistance and support;

4. Emphasises the value of Europe for Citizens in enhancing citizens' understanding of the EU and fostering a sense of citizenship; reaffirms its commitment to proper funding levels for the programme; recalls that, for the 2018 budget and despite its opposition, the Commission reduced the Europe for Citizens budget by 740,000 EUR vis-à-vis the financial programming figure to boost the European Citizens' Initiative (ECI); deplores, therefore, that, according to the January 2018 financial programming update sent by the Commission, a further 2.5 million EUR (1.1 million EUR in 2019 and 1.5 million EUR in 2020) will be taken from Europe for Citizens to fund the revamped ECI, which, the update states, is provided for in the proposal for the new ECI Regulation; notes that neither the proposal itself nor the Legislative Financial Statement annexed to it make reference to any budgetary impact on the Europe for Citizens programme; recalls that Parliament must be in possession of all the facts when examining proposed legislation and reminds the Commission of its obligation to disclose those facts; stresses its commitment to an effective, properly resourced Europe for Citizens programme, its resolute opposition to the proposed budget reduction and its intention to reverse those cuts in the 2019 and 2020 budgetary procedures;
