2010 discharge: EU general budget, Section III, Commission

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 103

103. Is concerned about the increase of the error rate to 7.7% in the policy area ‘Cohesion, energy and transport’ despite an increased use of interruptions of payment deadlines; is deeply worried that some of the errors could have been detected and corrected for 58% of the transactions affected by errors (Annual Report, point 4.25);

103. Deplores the increase of the error rate to 7.7% in the policy area ‘Cohesion, energy and transport’ despite an increased use of interruptions of payment deadlines; is deeply worried that some of the errors could have been detected and corrected for 58% of the transactions affected by errors (Annual Report, point 4.25); is greatly concerned that talk of a 'stable' situation regarding error rates betrays a growing sense of complacency;
