Paragraph 104

Motion for a resolution

104. Calls on the Commission to finalise methods to determine when certain derogations should be applied, if at all, in particular as regards ‘negligible exposure’ or ‘serious danger to plant health’;

Amendment

104. Calls on the Commission to finalise methods to determine when certain derogations should be applied, if at all, in particular as regards ‘negligible exposure’ or ‘serious danger to plant health’, without changing the spirit of the law: warns the Commission that any reinterpretation of the term ‘negligible exposure’ as ‘negligible risk’ would be against the spirit of the law, and that any outdoor use of pesticides sprayed on crops in the open air cannot, under any circumstances, be classified or interpreted as being used in ‘closed systems’ or in ‘other conditions excluding contact with humans’;
