Or. en

Justification

The young farmer payment should not be confined to those who are head of holding. Young farmers who have joined existing business should not be excluded from receiving this payment, particularly as this can be the main and traditional way in which young farmers enter farming. Furthermore, in many cases, the distinction between joining an existing business and becoming head of holding is not particularly pronounced.

Amendment 1967

Liam Aylward, Marian Harkin

Proposal for a regulation

Article 36 – paragraph 5 – subparagraph 1

Text proposed by the Commission

Member States shall calculate each year the amount of the payment referred to in paragraph 1 by multiplying a figure corresponding to 25 % of the average value of the payment entitlements held by the farmer by the number of entitlements he has activated in accordance with Article 26(1).

Amendment

The amount of the payment referred to in paragraph 1 shall be the exact amount required to bring the payment up to the average per hectare under the basic payment of the Member State or region plus 25%. Where the basic per hectare payment already exceeds the average plus 25%, then no additional payment shall be made.

Member States shall fix a limit which may be up to a maximum of 50 hectares.

Or. en

Justification

The proposal in the Commission draft to add 25% to all qualifying young farmer payments makes sense only in the event that a uniform flat rate is achieved at a national level. In practice this means that some young farmers inherit significantly higher than average payments and there is no particular justification in cutting payments to other farmers in order to increase the payments in these cases. Instead, the best use of scarce resources is to target additional payments to ensure that young farmers with low payments get an immediate and substantial boost in their payments. This is a more equitable approach as it gives equal payments to all young farmers below the targeted rate.

of the payment entitlements in that Member State or region by the number of entitlements the farmer has activated in accordance with Article 26(1).

Article 37 a (new)

Article 37a

General risk management provisions

1. Member States may cover:

(a) financial contributions, paid directly to farmers or groups of farmers, to premiums for crop, animal and plant insurance against economic losses caused by adverse climatic events and animal or plant diseases or pest infestation;

(b) financial contributions to mutual funds to pay financial compensations to farmers, for economic losses caused by the outbreak of an animal or plant disease, an environmental incident or adverse climatic events, including droughts;

(c) an income stabilisation tool, in the form of financial contributions to mutual funds or insurance, providing compensation to farmers who experience a severe drop in their income.

2. For the purposes of paragraph 1 points (b) and (c), “mutual fund” shall mean a scheme accredited by the Member State, in accordance with its national law, for affiliated farmers to insure themselves, whereby compensation payments are made to affiliated farmers affected by economic losses caused by the outbreak of an animal or plant disease, an environmental incident or adverse climatic events, or experiencing a severe drop in their income.

3. Member States shall ensure that overcompensation as a result of the combination of this aid with other national or Union support instruments or private insurance schemes is avoided. Direct income support received under the European Globalisation Adjustment Fund (hereinafter "EGF") shall also be taken into consideration when estimating the income levels of farmers.

4. The Commission shall be empowered to adopt delegated acts in accordance with Article 55 concerning the minimum and maximum duration of the commercial loans to mutual funds referred to in Articles 37c(3)(b) and 37d(4).

5. The Commission shall submit to the European Parliament and the Council a mid-term review concerning the implementation of the risk management measure and propose, if necessary, appropriate legislative proposals for improvement.

Article 37b

Crop, animal, and plant insurance

Article 37b

1. Support under Article 37a(1)(a) shall be granted only for insurance contracts which cover loss caused by an adverse climatic event or by an animal or plant disease or a pest infestation or for a measure adopted in accordance with Directive 2000/29/EC to eradicate or contain a plant disease or pest which results in a reduction of annual production of more than 30 % as compared to the average annual production of the farmer. That average annual production shall be calculated by taking the figures for the preceding three years or for the preceding five years and excluding the highest and lowest figures, or, in duly justified exceptional circumstances, by taking the figures for a specific year in the preceding five years.

The measurement of the extent of the loss caused may be tailored to the specific characteristics of each type of product using

(a) biological indexes (quantity of biomass loss) or equivalent yield loss indexes established at farm, local, regional or national level, or

(b) weather indexes (quantity of rainfall, temperature, etc.) established at local, regional or national level.

2. The occurrence of an adverse climatic event or the outbreak of an animal or plant disease or pest infestation must be formally recognised as such by the competent authority of the Member State concerned. Member States may, where appropriate, establish in advance criteria on the basis of which such formal recognition shall be deemed to be granted.

3. Insurance payments shall compensate for not more than the total cost of replacing the losses referred to in Article 37a(1)(a) and shall not require or specify the type or quantity of future production. Member States may limit the amount of the premium that is eligible for support by applying appropriate ceilings.

In accordance with the provisions of Article 22(7) and the previous paragraph, and with a view to meeting the objective and non-discriminatory criteria enshrined in Article 20, special aid, in the form of the coupled support referred to in this chapter, will be provided to small-scale cattle, sheep or goat farms in Member States or regions.

Or. es

Justification

En el caso de los sectores de vacuno y de ovino-caprino, consideramos que la propuesta de la nueva PAC es básicamente agrícola y que no ha tenido en cuenta los sectores ganaderos que hasta el 2013 han recibido ayudas. No se ha dado un trato proporcional y equitativo a estos sectores y por tanto, es necesario buscar alguna alternativa que no los excluya. Se propone el encaje de estos sectores dentro de la nueva PAC a través de las ayudas asociadas, garantizando un incremento del porcentaje destinado a estas ayudas asociadas. Pero es necesario hacer referencia a esta situación en el articulado del Reglamento de Pagos directos, con el objetivo de que se facilite su consideración en la aplicación de las ayudas asociadas.

Chapter 1a

Aid for farmers whose principal activity is farming

Article 41(a)

General rules

1. Member States shall grant an annual payment per agricultural work unit to farmers whose principal activity is farming.

2. The beneficiaries shall be the following:

a) natural persons of 18 years or over who are neither retired nor in receipt of a total disability allowance in respect of all farming activities, and who derive at least 50% of their total income from farming activities on their holding and spend less than 50% of their total working time on activities unrelated to farming. and

b) legal persons at least half of whose shareholders are natural persons whose principal activity is farming, or at least half of whose shares or share capital is held by such persons. For legal persons made up exclusively or for the most part of other legal persons, account will be taken of associations or links with other companies, in order to determine whether these links or associations mean that at least half of their shares or share capital is held by natural persons whose principal activity is farming.

Article 41(b)

Amount of the payment

For each relevant year, the payment per annual agricultural work unit shall be calculated by dividing the national or regional ceiling established under Article 41(c)(1) by the number of annual agricultural work units recorded for each beneficiary.

Article 41(c)

Financial provisions

1. In order to finance the payment referred to in this Chapter, Member States shall use 15% of the annual national ceiling set out in Annex II.

2. The Commission shall, by means of implementing acts, establish the ceiling for the payment referred to in this Chapter on a yearly basis. Those implementing acts shall be adopted in accordance with the examination procedure referred to in Article 56(2).

Amendment

1. Farmers holding payment entitlements allocated in 2014 pursuant to Article 21 and fulfilling the minimum requirements provided for in Article 10(1) may opt for participation in a simplified scheme under the conditions laid down in this Title, hereinafter referred to as 'small farmers scheme'

1. Member States which have been in the EU since before 1 May 2004 may opt to implement a simplified scheme under the conditions laid down in this Title, hereinafter referred to as 'small farmers scheme'

Or. es

Justification

The amendment proposes making participation in the small farmers scheme optional for Member States which have been in the EU since before 1 May 2004 since this scheme means, in practice, having to put in place a new parallel management system and thus greatly complicates the running of the direct payment system.
