

MEPs to discuss investor protection and regulatory aspects of TTIP

[27-01-2015 - 10:56]

Investor protection, including investor-to-state disputes, and regulatory aspects in the forthcoming Transatlantic Trade and Investment Partnership (TTIP) will be discussed on Tuesday, at a joint hearing with the trade and legal affairs committees.

MEPs will discuss the enforcement of the TTIP investment protection provisions, investor-to-state-dispute settlement and regulatory coherence and cooperation between the EU and US with Commission officials, academics and stakeholders at the hearing on "TTIP: Regulatory aspects and investor to state dispute settlement and arbitration".

The hearing, co-chaired by Pavel Svoboda, Chair of the Committee on Legal Affairs, and Bernd Lange, Chair of the Committee on International Trade, takes place from 15.00 to 18.00, in room PHS 1A0002
