Proposal for a regulationArticle 71 b (new)Text proposed by the CommissionAmendment*Article 71b

In order to respect fully the prerogatives of the European Parliament, the decision on the location of the Agency legally must and shall be taken under the ordinary legislative procedure, pursuant to which the European Parliament and the Council are equal co-legislators, following further consultations between the institutions to take account of new information that has emerged on the selected temporary location for the agency.

Or. en

Justification

The seat of the European Medicines Agency will be selected under the ordinary legislative procedure in full respect of the prerogatives of co-legislators in relation to the location of bodies and agencies and in respect of the principle of full cooperation and transparency between Institutions.
