Commission Work Programme 2018

Joint motion for a resolution

Paragraph 1 b (new)

Joint motion for a resolution

Amendment

Ib. Notes that the policy paper issued by the UK Government entitled ‘Safeguarding the position of EU citizens in the UK and UK nationals in the EU’ is a most generous offer; notes, however, that EU citizens should not be entitled to special treatment ahead of other third-country nationals once the UK has withdrawn from the Union; considers that any special treatment would discriminate against other third-country nationals in the UK;

Paragraph 1 e (new)

Joint motion for a resolution

Amendment

1e. Welcomes the announcement from the UK Government that it seeks to withdraw from the London Fisheries Convention; considers that leaving the London Fisheries Convention will not allow the UK to regain full sovereignty over its fishing waters; stresses that the only way to regain full sovereignty over 200 nautical miles, or the median line, of fishing waters is to leave the CFP; demands that the EU must not impede the UK asserting these rights under the terms of the 1982 UN Convention on the Law of the Sea;

Paragraph 1 h (new)

Joint motion for a resolution

Amendment

1h. Expresses its concern about the non-implementation of judgments of the European Court of Human Rights; recalls that under Article 46(1) of the European Convention on Human Rights, the high contracting parties have without qualification undertaken a solemn and binding obligation under the rule of law to ‘abide by the final judgement of the Court in any case to which they are parties’; urges the Commission to take action to tackle the issue of the delays in implementation and the lack of political will in certain circumstances to implement certain judgments of the Court; calls on the Commission to apply real measures and mechanisms to ensure that Member States meet their international obligations and that civil and political rights are not violated;
