POSITION OF THE EUROPEAN PARLIAMENT

adopted at first reading on 11 July 2007

with a view to the adoption of Directive 2007/.../EC of the European Parliament and of the Council amending Council Directives 78/855/EEC and 82/891/EEC as regards the requirement of an independent expert's report on the occasion of merger or division of public limited liability companies

THE EUROPEAN PARLIAMENT AND THE COUNCIL OF THE EUROPEAN UNION,

Having regard to the Treaty establishing the European Community, and in particular Article 44(2)(g) thereof,

Having regard to the proposal from the Commission,

Having regard to the opinion of the European Economic and Social Committee¹,

Acting in accordance with the procedure laid down in Article 251 of the Treaty²,

Whereas:

- (1) Community policies on better regulation, in particular those set out in the two Communications from the Commission to the Council, the European Parliament, the European Economic and Social Committee and the Committee of the Regions entitled respectively "A strategic review of Better Regulation in the European Union", of 14 November 2006, and "Action Programme for Reducing Administrative Burdens in the European Union", of 24 January 2007, stress the importance of reducing the administrative burdens imposed on enterprises by existing legislation as a crucial element for improving the competitiveness of such enterprises and for achieving the objectives of the Lisbon agenda.

² Position of the European Parliament of 11 July 2007 (not yet published in the Official Journal).

- (2) Directive 2005/56/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council of 26 October 2005 on cross-border mergers of limited liability companies¹ provides for an exemption from the obligation to have the draft terms of merger examined by independent experts and a report drawn up by such experts for the shareholders of the companies involved in the merger, if all the shareholders agree that such a report is not needed.
- (3) Directive 78/855/EEC concerning mergers of public limited liability companies² does not contain any similar exemption in respect of the draft terms of merger, while Directive 82/891/EEC concerning the division of public limited liability companies³ leaves it to the Member States whether or not to provide for such an exemption in respect of the draft terms of division.
- (4) There is no reason to require such an examination by an independent expert for the shareholders if all the shareholders agree that it may be dispensed with. Any modification of Directives 78/855/EEC and 82/891/EEC allowing such agreement by shareholders should be without prejudice to the systems of protection of the interests of creditors of the companies involved, to be established by Member States in accordance with those Directives, as well as to any rules aimed at ensuring the provision of information to the employees of the companies involved.
- (5) Directives 78/855/EEC and 82/891/EEC should therefore be amended accordingly,

HAVE ADOPTED THIS DIRECTIVE:

² Third Council Directive 78/855/EEC of 9 October 1978 based on Article 54(3)(g) of the Treaty concerning mergers of public limited liability companies (OJ L 295, 20.10.1978, p. 36). Directive as last amended by Directive 2006/99/EC (OJ L 363, 20.12.2006, p. 137).
