Paragraph 32

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

32. Emphasises once again that the EDA should be the implementing agency for Union actions under the European Capabilities and Armaments policy, where envisaged by the Lisbon Treaty; stresses that the administrative and operational expenditure of the EDA should be funded from the Union budget; welcomes the minor adjustments that have been made to the EDA's budget, but emphasises that the EDA's increased responsibilities in the context of, among other things, PESCO, CARD and EDF require adequate funding;

Motion for a resolution

Motion for a resolution

36. Welcomes the implementation of an inclusive Permanent Structured Cooperation (PESCO) as a fundamental step towards closer cooperation in security and defence among the Member States; acknowledges the character of PESCO as a legally binding long-term project, including a set of highly ambitious commitments as well as an array of cooperative projects; stresses the need for full alignment between PESCO activities, other CSDP activities, in particular with the CSDP objectives as defined by the TEU, and activities with NATO; considers that PESCO should be a driver for building capabilities for both organisations;

Amendment

36. Rejects the implementation of the Permanent Structured Cooperation (PESCO) as a step towards the militarisation of the European Union and the de facto founding of the European Defence Union*; warns, in this regard, that with PESCO the existing unanimity rule in the Council concerning CFSP and CSDP decisions will be annulled;*

Motion for a resolutionParagraph 51Motion for a resolution*

51. Underlines that the strategic partnership between the EU and NATO is fundamental to addressing the security challenges facing the EU and its neighbourhood; bearing in mind that 22 out of the 28 EU Member States are also NATO members, underlines that EU-NATO cooperation should be complementary and respectful of each other's specificities and roles; stresses that the two organisations have clearly distinct features and that they should cooperate in full respect of each other's autonomy and decision-making procedures, based on the principles of reciprocity, without prejudice to the specific features of the security and defence policy of any Member State; is convinced that a stronger EU and NATO would reinforce each other, creating more synergies and effectiveness for the security and defence of all partners; stresses that the EU-NATO strategic partnership is equally fundamental for the EU's evolving CSDP and for the future of the Alliance, as well as for EU-UK relations after Brexit;

Amendment

51. Underlines that the strategic partnership between the EU and NATO is not fundamental to addressing the security challenges facing the EU and its neighbourhood; acknowledging that while 22 out of the 28 EU Member States are also NATO members, six are not; stresses that the two organisations have clearly distinct features and that they should cooperate in full respect of each other's autonomy and decision-making procedures, based on the principles of reciprocity, without prejudice to the specific features of the security and defence policy of any Member State; is convinced that a stronger EU and NATO would reinforce each other;

Paragraph 52

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

52. Welcomes the main pillars of the new EU-NATO declaration adopted at the NATO Summit in Brussels on 12 July 2018 and emphasises that successful implementation of the Joint Declaration depends on the political will of all Member States throughout the process; while recognising the tangible results of the implementation of the 74 common actions, believes that further efforts are needed with regard to the practical implementation of the many commitments already made, especially in the areas of combating hybrid threats, cybersecurity and joint exercises; notes in particular the involvement of the EDA in the implementation of 30 actions;

Paragraph 53

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

53. Stresses that efforts regarding military mobility should be a priority and a contribution to the effective implementation of CSDP missions and operations and to the Alliance's defence posture; therefore encourages both organisations to continue working together on military mobility in the closest possible manner, including through the development of common requirements to facilitate the rapid movement of forces and equipment across Europe, keeping in mind the multidirectional challenges originating mainly from the South and the East; calls on the Commission to underpin these efforts with the necessary investments and, where appropriate, legislation; stresses the need to ease the administrative procedures for the cross-border movement of rapid response forces inside the EU;

53. Stresses that efforts regarding military mobility should not be a priority and a contribution to the effective implementation of CSDP missions and operations and to the Alliance's defence posture; stresses further that peacekeeping should be prioritised;
