Paragraph 9 a (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

9a. Recalls that petitions are examined in accordance with Article 227 of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union, which stipulates that any EU citizen and any natural or legal person who is resident or has a registered office in a Member State can submit a petition to the European Parliament on matters which fall within the European Union's fields of activity; recalls that the procedure for dealing with petitions is laid down in the Rules of Procedure of the European Parliament;

A8-0404/2018

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 27

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

27. Stresses that, in connection with the public hearing on the European Citizens' Initiative entitled 'Ban glyphosate and protect people and the environment from toxic pesticides' and in considering petitions on the same subject, it has emerged that EU authorisation procedures for substances such as glyphosate, genetically modified organisms and pesticides are compromised by a lack of independence, insufficient transparency and inaccuracies regarding the compilation and evaluation of scientific evidence; deleted
